Edward John Evans – Bridgend SACRE

I was first elected to the Executive in 2006 and since then have held the office of Asst Secretary, Vice Chair, Chair and Immediate Past Chair. During the time I have been a member of the Executive I have had the privilege of representing WASACRE at meetings with successive Education Ministers, Welsh Government, Estyn, and Qualification Wales. I, along with others, met with Welsh Government officials to prepare the beginnings of the new Welsh Curriculum discussing the Humanities AoLE and the matter of RVE in particular. I have been involved, again with others, in discussions with the Education Ministers, Kirsty Williams in particular, about the naming of RS in the new curriculum and other matters pertaining to the new curriculum.

Ordained in the Church in Wales I have been a priest for 50 years and during my time in parishes was heavily involved in a number of local schools which included leading collective worship on a regular basis and occasional class lessons. I still have this role in a local comprehensive school. I have been a governor of various primary schools and am still Chair of Governors (since 2004) of a local Secondary School. I have been a Section 50 Schools Inspector, am a member of the Church in Wales Advisory Council for Education, Chair of Bridgend SACRE and the Church in Wales Registered Representative on the Bridgend County Borough Council Scrutiny Committee dealing with educational matters. I am also a panel member for Admission Appeals to the Church schools on the Diocese of Llandaff (and occasionally Monmouth). For my work in the field of Education I was appointed a Canon of Llandaff Cathedral in 2007. I hold a MA (Wales) in Faith and Education.
