

CABINET – 18TH SEPTEMBER 2012

SUBJECT: PROVISION OF CARE SERVICES AT TREDEGAR COURT

REPORT BY: DEPUTY CHIEF EXECUTIVE

- 1.1 The report outlines proposals to change the way services are provided at Tredegar Court Extra Care Scheme and explains how this will contribute to directorate efficiencies and enable the Adult Services Division to meet current and future cost pressures brought about by increased demand and budget pressures.
- 1.2 The Health Social Care and Wellbeing Scrutiny Committee fully considered the report on 11th September 2012. Following detailed consideration of the options set out in the report, the Scrutiny Committee supported Option 3, which will enable HART to continue to provide care on an in reach basis. Councillor L. Gardiner requested that his name be recorded as being opposed to this recommendation.
- 1.3 Members are asked to consider the report and the recommendation from the Scrutiny Committee.
