

Ystrad Mynach

One member asked 'why won't I be getting it anymore?'

Markham

No comments.

Gwerin

The two people who put the pays together in the office and help with the envelopes are a bit worried that something they enjoy helping with is being taken away.

One member is not very happy. After taking the news in, they said they were okay with it but still disappointed.

Two members said they were disgusted.

One member said it wasn't fair.

Another member said that she works hard for her pay.

A member says that it's not fair – they won't have any money for their holiday.

Another member said 'if it stops, it stops'.

One member said they weren't sure about the change – they were also worried they wouldn't have any money to go on holiday.

Springfield

Two members said they were disgusted.

Three members are not happy.

Three members liked the process of saving money.

One member said they like to use it to pay for things.

Ebenezer

All members are for it.

One member said they receive pocket money and won't go short.

Another member said they have a lot of money in the bank.

One member said it's okay – the council haven't got the money to pay it.

One member feels the money should be spent on the drama in Ebenezer.

One member said that their parent was disgusted that they were only getting 60p per day.

One person said that the money given to them was offensive – attending a day centre is not work.

Retirement Group

Money was not given to members. 25 years ago it was decided that the money would be spent on social events.

Brooklands

One member stated 'I don't understand money'.

Another member said 'the centres should be given the money so it can be used in a different way'.

Woodfieldside

One member stated 'I would prefer to stay at home if they stop the pay'.

Another member said 'we should do away with the payments and receive a real wage. Where will the money be going?'

Another comment was 'the money I get in the envelope is real to me – it's the only money I see'.

