

Caerphilly Primary School Inspection Reports Autumn 2009 - Spring 2010

School	Spiritual Development	CW: meeting legal requirements	CW: quality	RE standards	Other issues
Blackwood Primary September 2009 Short inspection	S – 2 MSC – 1 Acts of collective worship assist pupils to develop further their spirituality.	Yes	Christian in nature and are well planned. Pupil awareness of religious celebration is enhanced by activities conducted by Mr Big. The opportunity for personal reflection was not offered in the assemblies observed during the inspection.	Short inspection - no subjects inspected.	None
Coed y Brain Primary February 2010 Standard inspection	SMSC – 1 There is a very strong understanding of mutual respect between adults and pupils that underpins the whole ethos of the school, for example in the very positive way in that adults and pupils inter-relate in assemblies.	Yes	CW - is of a broadly Christian nature, is of a very high standard and often reinforces and extends pupils' awareness of spiritual beliefs and issues. All pupils are given very good opportunities to reflect, for example following the recent Haiti earthquake and to consider sensitively and constructively how they will help to alleviate the suffering of those involved in the disaster.	Standard inspection - RE not one of the six subjects inspected.	None

Caerphilly Primary School Inspection Reports Autumn 2009 - Spring 2010

School	Spiritual Development	CW: meeting legal requirements	CW: quality	RE standards	Other issues
Glyn – Gaer Primary November 2009 Standard inspection	SMSC – 2 Spiritual awareness is appropriately promoted through religious education and daily assemblies.	Yes	These occasions are broadly Christian in character, successfully promote the school as a caring community and include an appropriate act of collective worship.	Standard inspection - RE not one of the six subjects inspected.	None
Hendredenny Park September 2009 Standard inspection	SMSC – 2	Yes	Acts of CW, both as a whole school and in individual classes, generally contribute effectively towards pupils' understanding of spiritual matters. Issues raised in collective worship include pupils' needs and pupils from other cultures. There are sometimes missed opportunities for reflection.	KS1 – 2 KS2 – 2 Shortcomings: Although there are no important shortcomings, pupils in year 3 record information, feelings and ideas in a limited range of ways.	None

Caerphilly Primary School Inspection Reports Autumn 2009 - Spring 2010

School	Spiritual Development	CW: meeting legal requirements	CW: quality	RE standards	Other issues
Twyn Primary February 2010 Standard inspection	SMSC – 2	Yes	Collective worship is of a broadly Christian nature. Overall, they are well planned, thoughtful sessions that succeed in creating a sense of awe and wonder. Pupils actively participate in singing.	KS1 – 2 KS2 – 2 There are no important shortcomings	It was a key issue for action in the previous report to comply with statutory regulations in providing a daily act of CW and provide opportunities to develop pupils' spiritual awareness. The current report states that the school has made good progress in addressing the key issue. Pupils are now provided with daily opportunities for CW that contributes well towards the development of their spiritual awareness.

Caerphilly Primary School Inspection Reports Autumn 2009 - Spring 2010

School	Spiritual Development	CW: meeting legal requirements	CW: quality	RE standards	Other issues
Tyn y Wern October 2009 Inspection Framework Pilot (2010)	SMSC – 2 Learning experiences promote well pupils' personal development, including their spiritual, moral, social and cultural development. As a result, pupils make good progress in these areas.	No judgement	No comments in the report	No subjects inspected	None