

The St Gabriel's RE Teacher Weekend 2010

Community Cohesion • Challenging RE • Effective RE in Cross-curricular Learning
Pedagogies in RE • New Primary and Secondary Curriculum • Religious Diversity
Environmental Ethics in RE • Management • Virtual Learning Environments
Assessment • RE Students as Filmmakers • Going Beyond the 'Big Six' • & more...

RE for the Twenty Tens combines an exciting and diverse conference programme with opportunities for teachers to share experiences and ideas whilst relaxing from the stresses of term. Contributors to this year's programme include Lat Blaylock/REtoday, Alan Brine/HMI, Mark Chater/QCDA, Deborah Weston/NATRE, Trevor Cooling, Margaret Cooling, Dave Francis, and Mary Myatt.

Date:	16th – 17th October 2010
Location:	Wokefield Park, Reading
Time:	Saturday 10:30am – Sunday lunchtime
Travel:	Free shuttle buses from Reading Station Ample parking available at venue

Dedicated to hosting professional conferences, Wokefield Park is set in 250 acres of parkland with excellent indoor and outdoor leisure facilities. On Saturday night you will also be able to enjoy the centre's impressive cuisine and then dance the night away or enjoy drinks and conversation at the bar. Wokefield will happily cater for any dietary needs as well as religious observances and is fully equipped for disabled delegates.

Free to all first time attendees – The St Gabriel's Programme meets all conference and accommodation fees. All you need to do is get to Wokefield and pay for any incidental expenses, such as drinks at the bar. Due to the rising costs of this event, we ask delegates who have attended previous weekends to pay a nominal fee of £40.

For further details and to download an application form visit www.culham.ac.uk/sg/weekend

