1. WELCOME

The Chair opened the meeting and welcomed everyone in attendance to Newbridge School.

SACRE also welcomed Mr Lee Kabza from the Caerphilly Youth Forum, together with Ms Sian Fielding, who was observing the meeting in her capacity as the new RE Advisor to Powys SACRE.

2. APOLOGIES FOR ABSENCE

Apologies for absence were received from Councillors Mrs E.M Aldworth, Mrs G.D. Oliver, J. Ridgewell and J. Simmonds, together with Mrs T. Lloyd (NAHT), Mrs E. Hawthorn (United Reformed Church) and Mr P. Warren (CCBC Strategic Lead for School Improvement).

3. DECLARATIONS OF INTEREST

There were no declarations of interest received at the commencement or during the course of the meeting.

4. MINUTES - 6TH MARCH 2019

RESOLVED that the minutes of the Caerphilly SACRE meeting held on 6th March 2019 be approved as a correct record and signed by the Chair.

5. ACTIONS AND MATTERS ARISING FROM THE MINUTES

Minute No. 8 (Curriculum Development Update) - Ms Paula Webber (RE Adviser to SACRE) confirmed that Caerphilly SACRE's response to the White Paper on "Our National Mission: A Transformational Curriculum Proposals for a new legislative framework" had been submitted to Welsh Government ahead of the closing date of 25th May 2019.

There were no other matters arising.

6. SACRE MEMBERSHIP UPDATE

Consideration was given to the report, which summarised the details of the current Caerphilly SACRE membership as of May 2019 and highlighted any vacant positions within the Committee.

Committee A vacancies – it was noted that both Cytun (on behalf of the Free Church Council of Wales) and the Salvation Army are in the process of providing a nomination to fill the vacancy for their organisations, with the Cytun nomination expected at the end of May 2019. The Clerk to SACRE will also contact Wales Humanists and the Interfaith Network to seek nominations for these respective vacancies on Committee A.

Committee B vacancies – it was noted that Ms Laura Strange had recently stepped down from SACRE as a NASUWT teacher representative. SACRE were sorry to learn of the resignation and expressed their thanks to Ms Strange for her contributions to SACRE over the past four years.

SACRE noted the details of the four teacher representative vacancies and discussed the ongoing efforts to fill these places. It was confirmed that the Clerk to SACRE would approach the relevant teaching unions again and ask them to contact their members with a view to filling the vacancies.

Co-opted places – SACRE were reminded that at their Spring Term meeting, Members had agreed to explore the co-option of youth representatives onto the Committee, and had also discussed the logistics around enabling young people to attend SACRE meetings.

Further to these discussions, Mr Lee Kabza (Senior Participation Officer for the Caerphilly Youth Forum) had been invited to the Summer Term meeting of SACRE, to give an overview of the safeguarding procedures carried out by the Youth Service when facilitating visits and activities for its young members.

Mr Kabza explained to SACRE that all Youth Forum representatives and their families are issued with a copy of the Youth Forum handbook which sets out details of the meetings for the year ahead and allows for forward planning by all parties. Mr Kabza also tabled examples of the parental consent forms used by the Caerphilly Youth Service, together with internal department forms which collate essential details (such as transport and responsible Officers) ahead of the visit/activity taking place.

Members discussed the membership and age range of the Youth Forum and the potential for representatives from this group to sit on Caerphilly SACRE, given the safeguarding procedures already in place via the Youth Service. The RE Advisor suggested that having representatives aged 16-18 on SACRE would be the most conducive approach, given the complexity of the material being discussed at SACRE meetings and its relevance to secondary school education. It was noted that Youth Forum representatives have experience of the format for committee meetings, as they regularly attend Scrutiny Committee and Public Service Board meetings.

It was agreed that SACRE would forward details of the two co-opted vacancies to Mr Kabza, so that these can be taken back to the Youth Forum to seek nominations. The Chair offered to attend a future meeting of the Youth Forum to speak to its members about the work of SACRE, and arranged for his contact details to be exchanged with Mr Kabza following the meeting.

Having fully considered its contents, SACRE noted the membership update and the progress made to date in filling the vacancies.

Caerphilly SACRE expressed warm thanks to Mr Kabza for taking the time to attend the meeting and for the information provided. Mr Kabza thanked Members for the invitation and then left the meeting. Miss Bartley left the meeting to accompany him to Reception.

It was agreed that Item 7 (SACRE News Bulletin), Item 9 (Monitoring Provision and Standards – Caerphilly School Inspection Reports) and Item 10 (Correspondence Update) be brought forward on the agenda to allow Miss Bartley to deliver her presentation upon her return to the meeting.

7. SACRE NEWS BULLETIN

Ms Webber gave an update on this item, which is intended to be a termly news bulletin to schools to promote the work of SACRE and will highlight any potential resources or training opportunities relating to Religious Education. Ms Webber explained that she was hoping to circulate this document following the Whitsun break and invited SACRE Members to send her any articles for inclusion.

SACRE noted the details of the update from Ms Webber.

8. MONITORING PROVISION AND STANDARDS – CAERPHILLY SCHOOL INSPECTION REPORTS

The report outlined the main RE findings derived from the Estyn inspection of two Caerphilly primary schools between December 2018 and March 2019. The analysis focused on information in relation to spiritual development, collective worship and any comments made in regards to religious education in the inspection reports of the schools inspected during Spring Term 2019.

It was noted that both schools inspected met statutory requirements in relation to collective worship. The report for the one school made positive comments regarding spiritual development, and the report for the other school highlighted the good quality of collective worship in place. Estyn made no recommendations with regards to Spiritual Development, Collective Worship or Religious Education.

Ms Webber explained that NAPfRE had raised the matter of spiritual development not being referenced in all inspection reports with Estyn representatives on the committee, and have received assurances that comments would be included in the future.

Members were very pleased with the excellent inspection results and agreed that congratulatory letters be sent out to both schools on behalf of Caerphilly SACRE.

Having considered and discussed the report, SACRE noted the update in respect of Estyn inspection reports for the Spring Term 2019.

9. CORRESPONDENCE UPDATE

Members were updated on items of correspondence circulated on behalf of SACRE. This included an email to all Caerphilly SACRE Members confirming the response to the White Paper "Our National Mission: A Transformational Curriculum Proposals for a new legislative framework". Information on the draft Curriculum for Wales 2022 guidance had also been circulated to all SACRE Members, together with an invitation to the Baha'i Holy Day event being held in Newport on 9th July 2019.

SACRE noted the details of the correspondence update.

10. PRESENTATION – RELIGIOUS EDUCATION AT NEWBRIDGE SCHOOL

Miss Helen Bartley, Head of Religious Studies at Newbridge School, welcomed Members to the school and to the new state of the art, nine-classroom building that had recently been completed.

With the aid of a slideshow presentation, Miss Bartley outlined the RE staff at Newbridge School and the structure of RE lessons at Key Stages 3 and 4. At Key Stage 3 (Years 7 and 8), pupils receive 1 hour of RE study per week. At Key Stage 4 (Years 9 to 11), pupils receive 1 hour of compulsory RE study per fortnight (Short Course), or if this is selected as a Full Course KS4 option, then pupils have 5 hours of lessons per fortnight.

At Key Stage 3, Christianity and Hinduism is studied in Year 7 and Judaism and Islam is studied in Year 8. Miss Bartley outlined the methods of assessment used across KS3, together with the teaching and learning aids used in the study of RE. Miss Bartley then introduced school pupils Charlotte (Year 8) and Tom (Year 9), who were in attendance to give an overview of the key RE areas of study for their year groups.

Charlotte explained that she is currently studying the Holocaust and genocide in line with the themes of "Peace and Conflict" and "Suffering and Evil" across the Year 8 programme of study. Lessons are currently one hour a week and she is intending to choose RE as a KS4 option. Charlotte explained that she enjoys studying RE and particularly enjoys learning about ethics and religion.

Tom explained that he is studying RE as a Key Stage 4 option in Year 9. The curriculum places a focus on religion and ethics, and his group are currently studying GCSE Unit 2 (Relationships). Tom outlined examples of exam preparation used by the department, such as the use of practice exam questions and undertaking relevant activities. He explained that the school offers a wide range of opportunities for its RE learners at KS4, including educational trips to Krakow, Auschwitz and Birkenau.

Miss Bartley explained that across all year groups, the RE curriculum places significant emphasis on respect and asking challenging questions, with pupils encouraged to think about their learning and question what they can learn about.

SACRE were then provided with an overview of RE at Key Stage 4, which comprises Unit 1 at Compulsory/Short Course and Units 1 and 2 at Full Course. Unit 1 studies Christianity and Judaism and focuses on areas such as moral issues, life and death, and peace and conflict. Unit 2 is taken as the KS4 option class, where pupils look at topics such as relationships and human rights. Preparation for the lengthy examination papers includes the practice of essay questions. The RE department also encourages pupil thinking around the "Iceberg Illusion" which shows how success is the tip of the iceberg (what people see above water) but demonstrates that people don't see what is below the surface (such as hard work, discipline and persistence).

Miss Bartley outlined the next steps for the RE department and Newbridge School, including the appointment of a new headteacher for September 2019, the continuation of a positive learning environment, the introduction of the Successful Futures curriculum and the development of creativity in the classroom. The school is looking to make links with a charity ahead of Interfaith Week in November 2019, and also works with local food banks. The school is also preparing for the Digital Competence Framework and is reviewing the delivery of its Short Course Compulsory Religious Studies programme.

SACRE discussed the presentation from Miss Bartley and in response to a query regarding A Levels, Miss Bartley explained that the school does not have a 6th Form but has connections to tertiary RE Studies at local colleges. In referring to the school's intention to build links with charities, Ms Webber outlined the work of the Interfaith Network in the area and offered to share details of her Interfaith contacts with Miss Bartley.

SACRE noted the details of the presentation and thanked Miss Bartley for the work that had gone into its content. Members were also very pleased to receive the presentations from Charlotte and Tom, and thanked them for their insightful delivery and for taking the time to attend the meeting. The pupils then left the meeting.

11. CURRICULUM DEVELOPMENT UPDATE AND WELSH GOVERNMENT CONSULTATION ON THE DRAFT CURRICULUM FOR WALES

Ms Webber presented the report, which updated SACRE on the progress made in the Humanities AoLE and the draft Curriculum for Wales with a focus on Religious Education.

SACRE were advised that Welsh Government have now produced the draft Curriculum for Wales 2022 and are currently conducting a consultation on its content. All SACREs have been asked to contribute to the consultation and give their views on the draft Curriculum for Wales by the closing date of 19th July 2019.

Ms Webber displayed the website for this consultation on a screen at the meeting, and in drawing SACRE's attention to a number of key areas, she explained that the WG guidance contains information on the structure and components of the Curriculum for Wales, the approach to progression, and how the curriculum must be inclusive for all learners. It also includes information on elements of learning that span the whole curriculum. This is part of Welsh Government's national mission to raise standards, reduce the attainment gap, and deliver an education system that is a source of national pride and public confidence. At the heart of the Curriculum are the four purposes which set out the aspirations for all children and young people by the age of 16.

Religious Education will be placed within the Humanities Area of Learning and Experience (AoLE). Schools will still be expected to deliver the agreed syllabus. Voluntary aided schools with a religious character will continue to be able to deliver their denomination syllabi and parents/carers of learners attending voluntary controlled schools can continue to request that their child studies the denominational syllabus rather than the locally agreed syllabus if they wish.

A new supporting framework is being developed to provide further detail about the relationship between religious education, the agreed syllabus, and the areas of learning and experience. This is being developed by a group of religious education practitioners (including Ms Webber) curriculum pioneers, academics, and representatives from Standing Advisory Councils on Religious Education (SACREs) and the National Advisory Panel for Religious Education (NAPfRE).

Ms Webber gave a detailed overview of the curriculum proposals and explained that the four purposes of the curriculum will underpin a more holistic way of working and integrated approach across subjects. The curriculum will place an emphasis on a concept-driven approach and content will be decided by schools. The new Humanities curriculum will balance skills, knowledge and authentic learning, and place a new focus on disciplines such as business studies, sustainable business and ecology. RE will be retained as a statutory subject and will incorporate new concepts such as looking at spiritual connections, looking outwards from the world and surroundings, and looking at the meaning of life. Ms Webber explained that it is vital to consider the narrative that sits below the five “What Matters” statements and to view their interconnectivity with other subjects, and it is important to identify the links and interdependencies between the Humanities “What Matters” Statements and the other AoLEs.

Ms Webber referred to the extent of the WG consultation and the areas requiring consideration, and explained that several of her other SACREs had expressed an interest in forming a collaborative working party to produce a collective response on behalf of all SACREs in the SE Wales EAS consortium. This would comprise an all-day workshop to consider the draft Curriculum for Wales and unpick the key elements in detail.

Caerphilly SACRE unanimously agreed that this would be a sensible approach which would avoid duplication of responses across individual SACREs. It was noted that where there are differing views held between SACREs then these would also be recorded in the collaborative response.

Ms Webber confirmed that she would look at suitable dates in early July and circulate the details to her SACREs once confirmed. Members discussed representation at this working party and were of the view that at least one representative from each of the committee groups for Caerphilly SACRE should be in attendance, and that teacher voice would be particularly vital to this workshop. A number of Members indicated that they might be able to attend, and it was confirmed that further details would be circulated once the arrangements have been made.

Having agreed the way forward regarding a response to the draft Curriculum for Wales, SACRE thanked Ms Webber for the update on the new Curriculum for Wales and the RE supporting framework and for the work being carried out in these areas.

12. SCHEDULE OF MEETINGS 2019

SACRE noted the details of the Autumn Term meeting arranged for 23rd October 2019 (2.00pm) at Penallta House Council Offices, Ystrad Mynach. Proposed meeting dates for 2020 will be brought to the Autumn Term meeting of SACRE.

13. FEEDBACK FROM THE WASACRE MEETING IN CARDIFF ON 26TH MARCH 2019

SACRE were updated on the discussions and deliberations of WASACRE at its meeting in Cardiff on 26th March 2019. Amongst other items, WASACRE received a presentation from Nicky Hagendyk at NAPfRE (Chair of the Humanities Area of Learning and Experience) who spoke of the challenges in achieving balance across the new approaches, and emphasised experience as being an important aspect of this new curriculum.

At their meeting, WASACRE were also updated on a meeting with Dr Kevin Palmer to discuss the professional learning support needed in light of RE and the new curriculum. They have been invited to produce a document outlining the areas of training required to support the implementation of the new curriculum. NAPfRE will be considering this and presenting a paper to Dr Palmer.

Ms Webber also referred to an attendance query received immediately prior to the start of the WASACRE meeting and reminded Caerphilly SACRE that as per its constitution, WASACRE meetings are not open to members of the public.

Caerphilly SACRE noted the details of the update.

14. WASACRE EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE ELECTIONS

SACRE were informed of the correspondence received from WASACRE in respect of nominations for the Executive Committee and position of Vice Chair.

Caerphilly SACRE considered the five nominations for the three positions on the Executive Committee and the one nomination for the position of Vice Chair on WASACRE.

Having fully considered the pen portraits of the nominated individuals as included in the meeting papers, Caerphilly SACRE fully endorsed the nomination of Rachel Samuel as Vice Chair to the Executive Committee, and unanimously agreed that Mark Prevett, Andrew Jones and Mathew Maidment be put forward as Caerphilly SACRE's preferred nominations to the WASACRE Executive Committee at the meeting on 28th June 2019.

15. REPRESENTATION AT THE FORTHCOMING WASACRE MEETING IN COLWYN BAY, CONWY, ON 28TH JUNE 2019

Caerphilly SACRE noted the date of the next WASACRE meeting in Conwy on 28th June 2019. The Clerk to SACRE will email all SACRE Members nearer the date to seek nominations for attendance and will circulate the agenda papers when received.

The Chair thanked Members for their attendance and contributions and expressed his thanks to Newbridge School for hosting the meeting.

The meeting closed at 3.29 p.m.

Approved as a correct record and subject to any amendments or corrections agreed and recorded in the minutes of the meeting held on 23rd October 2019, they were signed by the Chair.

3. RE-ADOPTION OF THE CURRENT AGREED SYLLABUS FOR RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

The report informed Members of the requirement to review the Agreed Syllabus for RE on a five year basis and asked the Standing Conference to review and re-adopt the 2008 agreed syllabus for religious education. The agreed syllabus sets out the requirements that schools should follow in order to meet statutory requirements.

Members were reminded that in June 2013, Standing Conference endorsed the re-adoption of the Caerphilly Agreed Syllabus for Religious Education, with an understanding that the syllabus would be reviewed once further information is received in relation to the assessment and national curriculum review.

Ms Webber explained that Caerphilly SACRE has been updated on a termly basis of developments with the National Curriculum review and the development of the Humanities curriculum, and that schools should follow the current agreed syllabus until further notice.

THE ANNUAL REPORT OF CAERPHILLY STANDING ADVISORY COUNCIL FOR RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

2018- 2019

SECTION 1: INFORMATION ABOUT SACRE

1.1 Duty to Establish SACRE

All Local Authorities are required to constitute Standing Advisory Council for Religious Education (SACRE) within their local area.

1.2 Composition of SACRE

Representation on SACRE is required as follows: -

- Such Christian and other religious denominations as, in the opinion of the Local Authority, will appropriately reflect the principal religious traditions in the area
- Associations representing teachers
- The Local Authority

The Local Authority determined that the SACRE should comprise of six elected members, seven bodies representative of religion and belief and seven representatives of teachers' associations. In addition, the Authority allowed for two other individuals to be co-opted. Both co-opted places are currently vacant (see 1.3 regarding actions to fill vacant positions).

1.3 Membership of SACRE

The current membership list showing the position as of August 2019 is attached at Appendix 1.

Whilst every effort has been made to seek representation from religious organisations other than Christianity, SACRE has experienced difficulties in finding such representation. With regards to Committee A, advice has been sought from Cytun (Churches Together in Wales), the Onyx Link Foundation and the Inter Faith Council for Wales in order to seek representation. A new representative from Wales Humanists has been recruited to a new position on Committee A. There are 4 vacancies on Committee B and SACRE is awaiting the NASUWT's endorsement of two individuals who have expressed an interest in sitting on SACRE. SACRE has contacted the Association of School and College Leaders (ASCL) on several occasions regarding the vacancy on Committee B but is yet to receive a response.

Caerphilly SACRE are in the process of co-opting youth representatives to SACRE in order to give learners a voice. Nominations could be sought from the Youth Forum. The Chair will attend a Youth Forum in Autumn Term 2019 to speak to its members about the work of SACRE.

1.4 Functions of SACRE

- To advise the Local Authority on worship and the religious education to be given in accordance with the agreed syllabus including methods of teaching, advice on materials and the provision of training for teachers

Caerphilly SACRE Annual Report 2018-2019
DRAFT VERSION

- To consider whether to recommend to the local authority that its current agreed syllabus should be reviewed by convening an Agreed Syllabus Conference.
- To consider whether the requirement that religious worship in a county school should be 'broadly Christian in nature' should be varied (determinations)
- To report to the Local Authority and the Department for Education and Skills (DfES) on its activities on an annual basis.

1.5 Meetings

SACRE met on three occasions during the academic year 2018 -2019.

14th November 2018
6th March 2019
20th May 2019

SACRE has resolved that, where possible, meetings will be held at alternative venues such as schools or places of worship. During the academic year 2018/19 SACRE held a meeting at a school in the county borough and two at the council offices.

1.6 Circulation of Report

Copies of this report are circulated electronically to those organisations and establishments listed in Appendix 4. It is also available on the Local Authority and the WASACRE website.

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY OF ADVICE GIVEN BY SACRE

Summary of the advice given to the local authority by SACRE

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

Issue

To monitor provision and standards in RE

Action

1. SACRE considers and analyses school inspection reports. If there are any issues regarding RE, such as non-fulfilment of statutory requirements, then the LA follows this up. During 2018-2019 there was one issue of non-fulfilment of statutory requirements for RE identified in the reports and follow up action was necessary. SACRE wrote to the school concerned to request a copy of the development plan and to offer advisory support.
2. SACRE visit schools on an annual basis and receive a presentation on RE at the school so that strengths and weaknesses can be identified, and issues can be addressed directly. One secondary school was visited in 2018/19.
3. SACRE analyses examination results over a three-year period and identifies trends in performance benchmarked against all Wales data. Schools are informed of the outcomes of this analysis and SACRE raises any issues schools should be addressing as a result of this analysis.

Issue

To fulfil the legal requirement to review the agreed syllabus for RE on a five yearly basis and ensure the agreed syllabus is being implemented in schools

Action

1. In 2008 Standing Conference endorsed and adopted a new agreed syllabus for the Authority's schools, which was implemented from September 2008.
2. In June 2013 Standing Conference endorsed the re-adoption of the Caerphilly Agreed Syllabus for Religious Education with an understanding that the syllabus would be reviewed once further information is received in relation to the assessment and national curriculum review.
3. In May 2019 an Agreed Syllabus Conference was constituted and the 2008 agreed syllabus was readopted.
4. SACRE has been updated on a termly basis of developments with the Curriculum review and the development of the Humanities Area of Learning and Experience. SACRE have responded to Welsh Government consultations on the white paper and the draft Curriculum for Wales 2022. SACRE are awaiting the publication of the Curriculum for Wales 2022 in January 2020 and further details from Welsh Government on the national RE Framework.

TEACHING MATERIALS

Issue

To ensure that schools are informed of suitable resources

Caerphilly SACRE Annual Report 2018-2019
DRAFT VERSION

Action

1. All schools were informed of the 2019 Holocaust Memorial Day theme of 'Torn from home' and that free Holocaust resources can be found on their website www.hmd.org.uk – these include lesson plans, film clips, case studies, collective worship/assembly material and worksheets suitable for primary to post 16 students.
2. SACRE distributed copies of RE Ideas to all schools which were kindly provided by REMW free of charge.
3. A SACRE RE News Bulletin was produced during the Summer Term for distribution to all schools and interested parties, which included information on the new Curriculum for Wales 2022, the RE Framework, the Estyn Thematic Review, WJEC updates, Interfaith Week and places of worship as well as articles submitted by teachers and SACRE members from several Local Authorities.
4. Schools were notified of the Farmington Scholarships available to teachers of RE.
5. Inter Faith News Bulletins were shared with schools <https://www.interfaith.org.uk/news/ifn-e-bulletin>
6. Information on visits and visitors in South Wales is available to schools upon request.
7. Information about the evaluation of the effectiveness of the Diversity of Religion and Belief: A guidance resource pack for primary schools in England and Wales published by Cardiff University School of Social Science was made available to schools.

TRAINING FOR TEACHERS

Issue

To ensure that teachers can access appropriate CPD.

Action

The EAS has provided RE specific training to secondary school practitioners via Learning Network School leads and the Professional Learning Adviser for RE and SACREs. The focus of the training was improving standards in GCSE Religious Studies. However, the practitioners attending also received training on the new curriculum and updates on the work of SACREs, WASACRE and other relevant bodies. There was also a focus on moderation of marking, sharing good practice and collaboration in the development of resources for Religious Studies.

COLLECTIVE WORSHIP

Issue

To ensure that schools fulfil statutory requirements for collective worship and provide a worthwhile experience for pupils.

Caerphilly SACRE Annual Report 2018-2019
DRAFT VERSION

Action

1. SACRE monitors the sections of inspection reports that are concerned with collective worship and SMSC and the LA follows up on any non-fulfilment of statutory requirements by requesting their action plan. The provision for collective worship had positive comments stating that schools were promoting pupils' spiritual, moral and cultural development well. Estyn made a recommendation with regards to collective worship in one inspection report. SACRE has written to the schools to offer support and guidance with regards to collective worship. All other schools inspected meet statutory requirements in relation to collective worship. Members were presented with a summary of findings from these inspections.
2. Schools have been informed by SACRE of appropriate resources and websites that support collective worship in schools e.g. HMD 2019.
3. SACRE resolved to hold meetings at schools in the county borough and observe an act of collective worship where possible to monitor fulfilment of statutory requirements, provision and quality of collective worship. One secondary school was visited but an act of collective worship was not observed by members.

OTHER ISSUES:

Aim: To ensure a more informed SACRE through providing regular updates on local and national issues.

1. SACRE has maintained its membership of WASACRE and receives termly feedback from the meetings of the Association.
2. The RE Adviser to SACRE is a member of NAPfRE and regularly attends meetings on SACRE's behalf.
3. SACRE has received regular updates on the development of the new curriculum and the implications for religious education.
4. Members have received presentations this year from their professional adviser Ms. P. Webber, who gave updates on the review of the Curriculum for Wales and its implications for RE, including the development of the national RE Framework, and from Ms Kathy Riddick who presented to SACRE on 'What is Humanism?' During the Summer term SACRE meeting members received a presentation from the Head of Department at Newbridge School on Religious Education at the School.
5. SACRE, where possible, hold meetings at schools in Caerphilly for members to familiarise themselves with RE and collective worship in schools. One SACRE meeting was held at Newbridge School, where members were informed on the delivery of RE at the school by the Head of RE and two pupils.
6. SACRE considered the issues surrounding the new A Level and GCSE Specifications for RS and updated schools accordingly.

SECTION 2: ADVICE ON RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

2.1 The Locally Agreed Syllabus

In 2008 the Standing Conference endorsed and adopted a new agreed syllabus for the Authority's schools to be implemented from September 2008. The agreed syllabus closely relates to the National Exemplar Framework for RE. Support materials, including schemes of work and electronic Progress in Learning files for secondary schools, were issued to schools.

During the 2012/13 academic year SACRE was made aware of the announcement by the Minister of a pending review of assessment and the National Curriculum in Wales. During the Summer Term 2013 Standing Conference endorsed the re-adoption of the current syllabus with an understanding that the syllabus would undergo review once the outcomes of the review of assessment, the National Curriculum and the Foundation Phase are made available.

During 2018-19, SACRE has been updated on a termly basis of developments with the new curriculum for Wales. In the Autumn Term SACRE representatives attended consultations with Welsh Government to receive an update on progress being made with the Curriculum for Wales 2022 and the RE Framework.

SACRE are awaiting further details from Welsh Government on the RE Framework that will support the Curriculum for Wales 2022.

On 20th May 2019, a Standing Conference was held to review the 2008 Caerphilly Agreed Syllabus for Religious Education. At the meeting, it was agreed to re-adopt the existing Agreed Syllabus until the implementation of the new curriculum in 2022.

A copy of the current Agreed Syllabus was sent to schools. Schools were advised to that they should continue to follow this syllabus until further notice.

2.2 Standards In RE

SACRE has adopted several strategies for monitoring standards being achieved in religious education in the Authority's schools that include the following.

2.2a School Inspection Reports

During SACRE meetings throughout the year the local authority and its SACRE scrutinised relevant sections of Estyn school inspection reports for July 2017-March 2019. Nineteen Caerphilly schools were inspected consisting of two infant schools, thirteen primary schools, one junior school and three secondary schools. If any issues emerge regarding religious education, such as non-fulfilment of statutory requirements, then the LA follows this up requesting their action plan. RE subject specific issues were identified in one of the reports and SACRE has followed this up with a letter to the school offering advice, guidance and support. In all other schools no follow up action was necessary.

Positive comments in relation to visits and visitors were present in the reports including and rich educational visits to places of worship provided enriching experiences for learners whilst also contributing successfully to pupils' understanding of religion and belief and of their social responsibilities. The curriculum in one infant school was found to provide suitable opportunities for pupils to learn about different cultures and faiths.

Caerphilly SACRE Annual Report 2018-2019
DRAFT VERSION

For example, during multicultural week pupils produce fact files about different countries, create artefacts and taste food from around the world. Appreciation of the importance of the celebration of religious festivals to religious believers was also evident in reports with one school developing an understanding of Hindu culture through a whole school celebration on the festival of Diwali. The range of charity projects that learners within Caerphilly was seen to contribute well to the development of their empathy and understanding of social and ethical issues. There was good provision for global citizenship and education for sustainable development.

2.2b Examination Results 2018

Examination results for GCSE and GCE AS /Advanced Level achieved by pupils at secondary schools within the Authority have been analysed and were considered during the Spring Term SACRE meeting. A three-year analysis was conducted so that a comparison could be made, and trends identified. Cohort entry numbers were also analysed, and a comparison made to Consortia and All -Wales figures (where available).

SACRE noted that there is a noticeable drop in results across several grade bandings at both GCSE and GCE 'A' Level when compared to both the 2017 results for Caerphilly schools and based on a three-year trend (2015-2018). A detailed table of examination results can be found in Appendix 4.

GCSE Full Course Religious Studies

The percentage of entries in Caerphilly increased by 8.4pp from 34.3% to 42.7%. An increase of 132 entries.

Whereas at regional and national level results have declined by 2.5pp to 95.1% and 0.8pp to 97.4% respectively. Results in Caerphilly were above the regional level but below the national level.

GCSE Short Course Religious Studies

Based on a Three-Year Trend 2015 – 2018

Caerphilly SACRE Annual Report 2018-2019
DRAFT VERSION

The results for A* - G grades decreased by 10.6pp from 91.5% to 80.9%. There is a declining picture regionally and nationally by 5.6pp to 84.7% and 5.3pp to 87.8% respectively. With results in the local authority being below the regional level and national level.

A Level Religious Studies

Based on a Three-Year Trend 2015 – 2018

The percentage of entries within Caerphilly decreased by 4.6pp from 16.2% to 11.6%. A decrease of 48 entries.

However, the results for A* - A grades increased by 1.6pp from 12.1% to 13.7%. Whereas the results at regional and national level have declined by 0.9pp to 21.6% and 0.6pp to 22% respectively. Results are below the regional and national level.

The results for A* - C grades decreased by 8pp from 72.7% to 64.7%. The results at regional level remain stable at 77.5%. Whereas the results at national level have declined by 3.9pp to 77.1%. Results in Caerphilly are below the regional and national level.

The results for A* - E grades in Caerphilly remain stable at 100%. Which is above the regional and national results of 99.6%.

AS Level Religious Studies

Based on a Three-Year Trend 2015 – 2018

The percentage of entries within Caerphilly increased by 7.4pp from 3.6% to 11%. An increase of 26 entries.

The results for A grades increased by 3.8pp from 4.5% to 8.3%.

There is a declining picture regionally, where results decreased by 1.6pp to 8.8%. Whereas nationally results increased by 1.6pp to 18.3%. Results in Caerphilly are below the regional and national level.

The results for A - C grades decreased by 23.9pp from 36.4% to 12.5%.

There is a declining picture regionally and nationally by 3.1pp to 35.3% and 6.2pp to 58% respectively. Results in Caerphilly are below the regional and national level.

The results for A - E grades decreased by 6pp from 72.7% to 66.7%.

There is an improving picture regionally and nationally by 4.2pp to 79.4% and 1.3pp to 91.6% respectively. With results in the local authority being below the regional level and national level.

SACRE considered a range of reasons for the decline in examination results across several the grade bandings. It was evident that at GCSE level some schools were now entering learners for Full Course rather than Short Course, and that the significant drop in Short Course results is reflective of the regional and national picture. SACRE members were pleased however to see that there is an increase in the number of A* grades being achieved at A Level and A grades being achieved at AS Level.

SACRE resolved to write to schools informing them of the examination analysis.

2.3 Methods of Teaching, Teaching Materials and Teacher Training

Continuing Professional Development

South East Wales Education Achievement Service (EAS) advertises their courses through CPD online. The Education Achievement Service appointed Ms. Paula Webber as a full time Professional Learning Adviser for RE and SACRE from September 2018.

The EAS has provided RE specific training to secondary school practitioners via Learning Network School leads and the Professional Learning Adviser for RE and SACREs.

During 2018-2019 the following Professional Learning relevant to RE was offered within the region:

The EAS had appointed two Learning Network Schools leads for RE during 2018-2019. Three Learning Network meetings for secondary HODs of RE were held during the academic year. The focus of the network meetings was improving standards in GCSE Religious Studies. However, the practitioners attending also received training on the new curriculum and updates on the work of SACREs, WASACRE and other relevant bodies. There was also a focus on moderation of marking, sharing good practice and collaboration in the development of resources for Religious Studies.

Teaching Materials

A wide range of teaching materials have been made known to schools by SACRE as follows:

Holocaust Memorial Day 2019 Resources

A letter was sent from SACRE to all schools were informed of the 2019 Holocaust Memorial Day and that Holocaust Memorial Day (HMD) takes place on 27 January each year and is a time to remember the millions of people murdered during the Holocaust, under Nazi Persecution and in the genocides which followed in Cambodia, Rwanda, Bosnia and Darfur. Schools were reminded that Holocaust Memorial Day is a time to learn the lessons of the past and recognise that genocide does not just take place on its own – it is a steady process which can begin if discrimination, racism and hatred are not checked and prevented. Caerphilly schools were informed that the theme for 2019 was 'Torn from home' which encouraged audiences to reflect on how the enforced loss of a safe place to call 'home' is part of the trauma faced by anyone experiencing persecution and genocide.

Schools were informed by SACRE that further information about the theme and free educational Holocaust resources can be found on their website www.hmd.org.uk – these include lesson plans, film clips, case studies, collective worship/assembly material and worksheets suitable for primary to post 16 students.

SECTION 3: ADVICE ON COLLECTIVE WORSHIP

3.1 School Inspection Reports

During the Autumn Term SACRE meeting the local authority and its SACRE scrutinised relevant sections of Estyn school inspection reports for July 2017-March 2019. Nineteen Caerphilly schools were inspected consisting of two infant schools, thirteen primary schools, one junior school and three secondary schools. If any issues emerge regarding collective worship, such as non-fulfilment of statutory requirements, then the LA follows this up requesting their action plan. Estyn made a recommendation with regards to collective worship in one inspection report. It was found that in two schools some children did not receive their entitlement to collective worship. No recommendations were made in those schools. SACRE has written to the schools to offer support and guidance with regards to collective worship.

All other schools inspected meet statutory requirements in relation to collective worship. Members were presented with a summary of findings from these inspections.

The provision for collective worship had positive comments stating that schools were promoting pupils' spiritual, moral and cultural development well. Comments in relation to spiritual development are evident in eight out of thirteen inspection reports. SACRE have been advised that NAPfRE and WASACRE had been in communication with Estyn and that in future all inspection reports should contain reference to spiritual development.

Good features

There is reference to the quality of collective worship in seven inspection report and good features are highlighted. Acts of collective worship:

- are of good quality
- provide beneficial opportunities for pupils to reflect on values such as courage, friendship and kindness, thereby promoting their spiritual and moral development effectively
- are pupil led
- support pupils to reflect on how to be kind and understanding, and to develop a suitable awareness of issues around bullying
- enable develop their confidence and resilience
- promotes pupils' understanding of values such as honesty, tolerance and co-operation effectively
- promote and contribute strongly to pupils' moral and social development effectively

- provide valuable opportunities for pupils to reflect on how they should treat others and to think of others less fortunate than themselves
- ensure older pupils can reflect on religious beliefs and how people should be treated
- promote a good understanding of right and wrong and as a result nearly all pupils treat each other with mutual care and respect
- contributes to pupils' understanding of Welsh culture and language successfully.

Caerphilly SACRE Annual Report 2018-2019
DRAFT VERSION

SACRE resolved to continue to use inspection reports to monitor that statutory requirements are being met and to use whatever comments are applicable.

During the Autumn Term meeting SACRE resolved to consider inspection reports on a termly basis at each SACRE meeting in order to be able to be more proactive in supporting schools and for timely action to be taken in respect of any schools not meeting statutory requirements.

3.2 Applications for Determinations

No applications were received from schools for determinations to be made on the lifting of the requirements for collective worship to be wholly or mainly of a broadly Christian character.

3.3 School Visits

SACRE appreciates the opportunities accorded to members to observe acts of collective worship in schools. Members had the opportunity to host their SACRE meeting at one secondary school this year. They did not attend an act of collective worship at the school.

DRAFT

SECTION 4: OTHER ISSUES

4.1 WASACRE

SACRE has continued to affiliate to WASACRE and representatives have attended its meetings. During the 2018-19 academic year issues considered at WASACRE meetings have been fully reported back to SACRE and full discussions have taken place. SACRE welcomes the pro-active work of WASACRE in taking up issues that have implications for RE and keeping member SACRE's fully informed. SACRE is represented on the WASACRE Executive committee by their professional adviser Ms Paula Webber who holds the position of Secretary to WASACRE. Caerphilly SACRE has received regular feedback from Ms Webber and those representing SACRE at WASACRE meetings.

4.2 HOLOCAUST EDUCATION

Schools were informed by SACRE that the 2019 Holocaust Memorial Day and that Holocaust Memorial Day (HMD) takes place on 27 January each year and is a time to remember the millions of people murdered during the Holocaust, under Nazi Persecution and in the genocides which followed in Cambodia, Rwanda, Bosnia and Darfur. Schools were reminded that Holocaust Memorial Day is a time to learn the lessons of the past and recognise that genocide does not just take place on its own – it is a steady process which can begin if discrimination, racism and hatred are not checked and prevented. Caerphilly schools were informed that the theme for 2019 was 'Torn from home' which encouraged audiences to reflect on how the enforced loss of a safe place to call 'home' is part of the trauma faced by anyone experiencing persecution and genocide.

SACRE resolved to inform schools about the availability of these resources and encourage them to commemorate HMD in some way. Schools were informed that further information about the theme and free educational Holocaust resources can be found on their website www.hmd.org.uk – these include lesson plans, film clips, case studies, collective worship/assembly material and worksheets suitable for primary to post 16 students.

Caerphilly SACRE were updated some of the commemorative events which took place within the county borough to mark this International Day of Remembrance.

4.3 WELSH GOVERNMENT NATIONAL CURRICULUM REVIEW

SACRE has received termly updates on the developments being made with regards to Religious Education and the new Curriculum for Wales. SACRE participated in a consultation with Welsh Government during the Autumn Term. Representatives attended a presentation in Cardiff led by Manon Jones from Welsh Government, Paula Webber and Libby Jones who represented WASACRE. Representatives were provided with the opportunity to discuss the key approaches to the curriculum recommended by the Humanities group.

Welsh Government produced the draft Curriculum for Wales 2022 on 30th April. Caerphilly SACRE members participated in the consultation on the Curriculum in collaboration with the other Local Authorities within the South East Wales consortia. The Curriculum guidance contained information on the structure and components of Curriculum for Wales, the approach to progression, and how the curriculum must be inclusive for all learners. The Curriculum for Wales 2022 is part of Welsh Government's national mission to raise standards, reduce the attainment gap, and deliver an education system that is a source of national pride and public confidence. At the heart of the Curriculum are the four purposes which set out the aspirations for all children and young people by the age of 16.

DRAFT VERSION

The Welsh Government consultation on The White Paper Our National Mission: A Transformational Curriculum set out the legislative proposals for the new curriculum. Caerphilly SACRE provided feedback following discussion in the Spring Term SACRE meeting held on 6th March 2019.

A new supporting framework is being developed to provide further detail about the relationship between religious education, the agreed syllabus, and the areas of learning and experience. This is being developed by a group of religious education practitioners, curriculum pioneers, academics, and representatives from Standing Advisory Councils on Religious Education (SACREs) and the National Advisory Panel for Religious Education (NAPFRE).

The RE adviser to Caerphilly SACRE, Paula Webber, has acted as Regional Vice Chair of the Humanities AoLE working group in her role as Professional Learning Adviser at the Achievement Service (EAS). SACRE members have been updated on the progress in terms of Religious Education within the Humanities and the development of the RE Framework at termly SACRE meetings. Paula Webber and Libby Jones (RE Adviser Wrexham) continue to lead the development of the RE supporting framework.

SACRE collaborated with other SACREs throughout the South East Wales region to provide feedback to Welsh Government on the draft curriculum.

4.4 ESTYN UPDATES

During the Autumn Term SACRE received the Estyn Thematic Report – Religious Education at Key Stage 2 and Key Stage 3 (June 2018) and considered the recommendations made within it.

The report is intended for the Welsh Government, headteachers and staff in schools, local authorities and regional consortia, and members of Standing Advisory Councils for Religious Education (SACREs). The reports findings will also help to inform the development and implementation of the new Curriculum for Wales. SACRE will seek to implement the recommendations relevant to SACRE and to advise the Local Authority and its schools on the recommendations. The SACRE News Bulletin also informed schools of the recommendations.

4.5 THE FINAL REPORT FROM THE COMMISSION ON RELIGIOUS EDUCATION IN ENGLAND

SACRE received and considered the Executive Summary of the Final Report from the Commission on Religious Education in England and its relevance to Wales. Members were informed that the Final Report of the Commission on Religious Education, Religion and Worldviews: the way forward. A national plan for RE had been published. It sets out a National Plan for RE comprising of 11 recommendations and calls on the Government in England to consider and adopt it.

Caerphilly SACRE Annual Report 2018-2019
DRAFT VERSION

The report is the result of two years' work from Commissioners who listened to evidence from a wide range of concerned parties including pupils, teachers, lecturers, advisers, parents and faith and belief communities. The Commission received over three thousand submissions, all of which have been carefully considered. SACRE were informed that WASACRE had been considering the findings of the report and had sent copies of the report to Welsh Government and to the Education Secretary Kirsty Williams for consideration as some of the recommendations might equally apply to Wales. SACRE were informed that Rudi Lockhart CEO of the Religious Education Council of England and Wales gave a presentation on the CoRE report at the WASACRE meeting on 20th November 2018.

The RE Adviser to Caerphilly represents the Wales Association of SACREs on the Religious Education Council for England and Wales and attends its biannual meetings where she can represent SACREs across Wales to be kept informed of national developments across England and Wales. The REC for England and Wales have been working closely with WASACRE and Welsh Government during the curriculum development process.

4.6 WASACRE WITHDRAWAL FROM RE QUESTIONNAIRE

SACRE were provided with a verbal update on this the WASACRE withdrawal from RE questionnaire and reminded of the WASACRE guidance document "Managing the Right of Withdrawal from RE" which was circulated by to all schools across the county borough. A short questionnaire had been included with the document to help WASACRE gain an accurate awareness of the instances of withdrawal from Religious Education across schools in Wales. SACRE members were made aware that several trawls had been carried out by the Clerk to SACRE so that the responses could be collated and returned to WASACRE. As of November 2018, the response rate for Caerphilly was 47%, which was in line with other survey exercises and comparable with the rate of returns across other local authorities. Overall there were very few instances of full or partial withdrawal from RE as had been reported to SACRE during 2017-2018. WASACRE examined the results and forwarded the response findings to Welsh Government.

4.7 TRAINING OF SACRE MEMBERS

SACRE members receive training on the Roles and Responsibilities of SACRE at the beginning of each academic year.

As part of its training for members SACRE received the following training:

- Updates on developments in RE and collective worship through regular presentations to SACRE members. Ms. P. Webber gave updates on the review of the Curriculum for Wales 2022 and its implications for RE.
- SACRE, where possible, hold meetings at schools in the county borough for members to familiarise themselves with RE and collective worship in schools. Newbridge School was visited this year and the HOD gave an update on RE at the school.

SACRE is very appreciative of the opportunities offered through visits and presentations to become more informed on RE and Collective worship issues in schools and would like to extend their appreciation to all concerned. A special note of thanks is extended to the Clerk to SACRE (Rebecca Barrett) for all her hard work in making such arrangements this year.

4.8 MEMBERSHIP OF SACRE

At its Summer Term meeting 2018, SACRE were informed of vacant positions and changes of membership of the committee. SACRE discussed the request for membership of Committee A from Humanists UK and the letter from the Cabinet Secretary for Education, Kirsty Williams, regarding the right of Humanists to have a full Committee A status. Following discussion, the matter was voted upon by the three groups and the vote was carried to recommend to Council that a place on SACRE be allocated to a Humanist representative. SACRE recommended to Council and the LA that Committee A (faith groups) membership of SACRE be increased by two places (to comprise one place for a non-Christian faith group/religion and one place for a group who hold non-religious beliefs. Also, that Committee B (teaching unions) membership of SACRE be increased by one place and allocated to the NASUWT teaching union. The Council and the Local Authority confirmed the additional places on SACRE in October 2018.

The current membership list showing the position as of August 2019 is attached at Appendix 1.

Whilst every effort has been made to seek representation from religious organisations other than Christianity, SACRE has experienced difficulties in finding such representation. With regards to Committee A, advice has been sought from Cytun (Churches Together in Wales) who have been helpful in providing nominations, and the Free Church vacancy was filled in June 2019. During 2018-2019 the RE Adviser has established links with the Onyx Link Foundation and the Inter Faith Council for Wales in order to seek representation. The Local Authority invited Wales Humanists to provide a nomination for Caerphilly SACRE, and the vacancy was filled in August 2019. With regards to Committee B, the Clerk to SACRE has contacted NASUWT to advise of the two vacancies and two expressions of interest already on file on Committee B. SACRE is awaiting the union's endorsement of the two individuals on file before they can proceed. The NUT Branch Secretary took the vacancy to members of the Caerphilly division in May 2018 but there were no expressions of interest received at that time. The Clerk to SACRE has contacted the Association of School and College Leaders (ASCL) on several occasions regarding the vacancy on Committee B but is yet to receive a response.

During 2018-2019 Caerphilly SACRE decided to co-opt two places for youth representatives to SACRE in order to give learners a voice. SACRE discussed the logistics around enabling young people to attend SACRE meetings. The Senior Participation Officer for the Caerphilly Youth Forum was invited to the Summer Term meeting of SACRE, to give an overview of the safeguarding processes used by the Youth Service when facilitating visits and activities for its young members. SACRE agreed to forward details of the two co-opted vacancies to Youth Forum so that nominations could be sought from the Youth Forum. The Chair will attend a Youth Forum in Autumn Term 2019 to speak to its members about the work of SACRE.

4.9 PROFESSIONAL ADVISER TO SACRE

During the Autumn Term meeting the Chair to SACRE welcomed Ms. P. Webber who had recently been appointed through the EAS as the new RE Adviser to SACRE. Ms. Webber's position is as full time Professional Learning Adviser to SACREs within the EAS region. As such she is now able to support schools within the region as well as SACREs.

DRAFT

CAERPHILLY COUNTY BOROUGH COUNCIL

REPORT TO: CAERPHILLY STANDING ADVISORY COUNCIL ON RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

DATE: 23RD OCTOBER 2019

SUBJECT: CURRICULUM DEVELOPMENT UPDATE

A PURPOSE OF REPORT

1. To update members on the development of the Curriculum for Wales 2022 in relation to RE.
2. To consider the Welsh Government consultation on the right to withdraw from RE and a proposed name change for Religious Education.

B BACKGROUND

Welsh Government produced the draft Curriculum for Wales 2022 for consultation on 30th April 2019. Caerphilly SACRE worked collaboratively with other SACREs throughout the South East Wales region to provide feedback on the draft Curriculum for Wales 2022. This was response was agreed by the Chair and submitted to Welsh Government by the RE Adviser.

Curriculum pioneers are currently considering feedback from the public and are making amendments to the curriculum.

The work of the group writing the RE Framework is ongoing. Paula Webber (EAS Professional Learning Adviser RE and SACREs) and Libby Jones (RE Adviser Wrexham) continue to lead its development. The Framework will provide further detail about the relationship between Religious Education, the Agreed Syllabus, and the Areas of Learning and Experience. The writing group consists of religious education practitioners, curriculum pioneers, academics, and representatives from Standing Advisory Councils on Religious Education (SACREs) and the National Advisory Panel for Religious Education (NAPFRE).

The Framework will be published in draft for consultation in January 2020. This will coincide with the publication of the final version of the Curriculum for Wales 2022. The delay in publishing a final draft at the same time as the curriculum occurs because the RE Framework writing group need to consider changes made to the Curriculum following the redrafting process and because Welsh Government will consult with SACREs prior to its publication. The RE writing group and Curriculum pioneers will hold meetings together during the Autumn Term in order to consult together and to coordinate the process.

Welsh Government recently consulted on the white paper Our National Mission: A Transformational Curriculum set out the legislative proposals for the new curriculum. Caerphilly SACRE provided feedback following discussion in the Spring Term SACRE meeting held on 6th March 2019. In this paper Welsh Government asked questions about whether the right of parents to withdraw from RE and RSE (Relationships and Sexuality Education) should be retained. As a result of feedback received Welsh Government are now consulting on proposals to ensure access to the full curriculum for all learners. In this proposal Welsh Government are seeking views on

- the right to withdraw from RE (and RSE)
- a change of name for RE

The Minister is 'minded' to remove the parental right to withdraw from RE and RSE and to change the name of RE to Religions and Worldviews.

SACRE will need to respond to this consultation by the closing date of 28th November 2019.

C RECOMMENDATIONS

1. For SACRE to receive an update on the progress made in the writing of the Curriculum for Wales 2022 with a focus on Religious Education in the Humanities AoLE.
2. For SACRE to receive an update on the progress being made with regards to the RE supporting framework.
3. For SACRE to consider and respond to the Welsh Government consultation on proposals to ensure access to the full curriculum for all learners, removing the parental right to withdraw from RE (and RSE) and the proposed change of name of RE to Religions and Worldviews. The deadline for feedback is 28th November 2019.

If 'yes' please specify

Please note that the feedback I provide has been collated on behalf of SACREs from the five local authorities within the South East Wales region (Blaenau Gwent; Caerphilly; Monmouthshire, Newport and Torfaen SACREs) during a collaborative workshop. SACREs have answered the questions that are of most relevance to Religious Education or to the Humanities AoLE.

Section A – General questions

A1. To what extent do you agree that the draft Curriculum for Wales 2022 guidance will help children and young people to become:

- ambitious, capable learners
- healthy, confident individuals
- ethical, informed citizens

enterprising, creative contributors? Strongly agree	Agree	Neither agree nor disagree	Disagree	Strongly disagree
	x
Comments: SACRE members are very positive and enthusiastic about the curriculum as it is written. Major concerns remain about the outside influences that will ensure the implementation of the curriculum is successful. There needs to be enough funding, PL and time for planning, suitable qualifications that reinforce the curriculum and new accountability measures that support the spirit of the curriculum. SACRE members can clearly see that the curriculum will lead to the holistic development of learners. The current curriculum is overly focused upon development of subject specific knowledge, whereas this curriculum provides a complete package that enables learners to work toward the four purposes. SACRE members were able to see the four purposes throughout the curriculum. However, for learners to become ‘enterprising’ the business studies in the Humanities might need to be strengthened. SACRE members were unable to see that this was strong enough. Members suggest that perhaps there could be greater emphasis upon the links between business and social action in WM5? Or within the planning for learning section? Or in links with other AoLE? Links to business and charity work that could be developed through an interdisciplinary approach with RE and other Humanities disciplines? This would strengthen the four purposes in the curriculum. All Four Purposes are relevant to Religious Education. If there is high quality Religious Education within the curriculum then this will enable schools to provide rich opportunities for the development of the four purposes. Schools would be missing out if they did not recognize this. Currently, due to funding cuts to schools, there has been a drain in RE provision and specialism within schools. For this curriculum to be successful in helping young people to develop the four purposes Welsh Government might consider providing funding for Professional Learning for RE linked to the Four Purposes, the implementation of the Humanities Curriculum and the RE Framework. LAs should receive funding for RE and its SACREs in order to ensure a collaborative approach to RE in the new curriculum. RE has often been described as a Cinderella subject in the current curriculum and this is to be avoided in the Curriculum for Wales 2022 where RE is an integral part. If this does not happen then learners will miss out on the rich opportunities in working toward the four purposes as RE contributes to both personal and societal well-being.

A2. Looking at the what matters statements, to what extent do you agree that these sum up the priorities for children and young people’s learning?

Strongly agree	Agree	Neither agree nor disagree	Disagree	Strongly disagree
	x

Comments:

The WM statements in the AoLEs are rigorous and future centric. The WM do well to position the learners for the uncertainty of the future both in terms of the development of technology, the changing nature of the job market, and the challenges and opportunities that face the world in which we live. The pioneers have done very well with the WM statements. SACREs have commented specifically on the Humanities WM in Question C1. SACREs can clearly see that the four purposes are evident throughout the WM statements and rationale.

Further thought might be put into the order in which the WM statements are ordered as when they are listed, they may be seen in a hierarchical order. SACRE members feel that the WM that is listed last (WM5) in the Humanities AoLE, for example, seems to be much more valuable than those that precede it because it is the one that leads not just to the personal well-being but also to societal well-being via altruistic or social action.

A3. Do you think the draft Curriculum for Wales 2022 guidance could be improved?

Yes	x	No
-----	---	----	--

If yes, how do you think it could be improved?

Achievement Outcomes – Members ask why the Achievement Outcomes are couched in ‘I can’ and ‘I have’ language if they are not intended to become tick box criteria? Is there another way in which they could be written? SACRE members also suggest that the AOs should not be linked to ages that are too much like the current key stages, especially if there is to be continuous progression from 3-16.

SACRE members asked questions such as – how many AOs would a learner have to achieve if s/he is to be placed on a Progression Step? – SACREs, therefore, wonder whether the guidance explains clearly enough how the Progression Steps work and what they are intended to be. Additionally, there seem to be a vast number of AOs across all of the AoLEs. Will this become overburdensome for Learners and practitioners.

A SACRE member asked whether the AOs are demonstrable understanding of skills and abilities and if so, should they be renamed? Should they be called ‘Descriptions of Learning’? The term Achievement Outcomes encourages the idea that they are boxes to tick.

One of the teacher representatives, who has been implementing the curriculum, reported that her Foundation Stage children are exhibiting PS1 in some AOs and PS3 in some Health and Well-being AoLEs when it comes to participation in sports day. It is good to have the freedom for the learners to progress according to their own ability and by linking them to ages you might give the impression that everyone in nursery school should be on PS1. SACRE members suggest that the Progression Steps are reviewed as they are put into practice in order to ensure they provide rigor and challenge and are not letting learners bottom out at all PSs. SACRE members ask whether the progression from concrete thinking to abstract thinking has been taken into account as this is often age related? SACREs would like to enquire how LAs will evaluate the performance of their schools in all subjects, (not just RE) if there is no performance data to analyze? How will they know if their schools are being effective?

It is important that schools realise that the AOs are to be achieved over time and are not just achieved on sports day (as in the illustration above).

In order to embed this curriculum fully there needs to be a lot of engagement with parents who may currently feel that a school is only good if it can produce A*-C results at GCSE. If the new curriculum is working toward the four purposes, then parents need to buy into this changing culture. Parents have also become accustomed to knowing how well their child is doing in comparison to other children, and how well the school is performing in relation to other schools. They understand the current data driven system. Welsh Government will need to do some work around this in order to support schools in their engagement with parents who need to buy into the vision of the four purposes of the new curriculum and how this approach will benefit their children as they progress toward adult life and the world of work.

WM in Humanities - SACREs felt that the message about the WM being interconnected and equitable is not clear in the guidance. There is a slide in the PowerPoint used for engagement that bullet points the relationship between the WM. This shows that the WM are non-linear. Could this be included in the guidance so that practitioners can clearly see the links between the WM? Practitioners ask whether a few concrete examples of how the WM interlink could be provided in the same way Nicky Hagendyk does this in the introductory video? As examples are shared with professionals it will become more obvious. SACRE members understand the need to avoid lots of examples but feel that a limited number may help to clarify how the curriculum is intended to work. This issue also highlights the need for good PL for all staff in all schools.

A4. To what extent do the assessment proposals support settings and schools to identify a learner’s strengths, achievements and areas for improvement so they can support a learner’s progression by identifying next steps?

Extremely supportive	Very supportive	Moderately supportive	Slightly supportive	Not at all supportive

A5. In relation to reporting to parents and carers, please tell us your views on:

- the role of the learner in contributing to the reporting process
- the role of the parent/carers in the reporting process
- the information you would want to include.

Section B – Detailed questions

B1. How helpful would you find the draft Curriculum for Wales 2022 guidance in developing a curriculum for your learners?

Extremely helpful	Very helpful	Moderately helpful	Slightly helpful	Not helpful at all
x

Comments:

Teacher representatives, who are implementing the curriculum, say that the guidance is 'enormously helpful otherwise practitioners would not know what they were doing at all.' They appreciate how the curriculum is now available Online and that it is very easy to navigate. SACREs are very aware that the Curriculum is married with the Professional Teaching Standards. Teachers are becoming collaborative and innovative. All of these will enhance the new curriculum. 'You can't just close your classroom door any longer and work within your own little box.'

Whilst the guidance is very helpful, teachers and schools need to be given time. Teachers are reporting that they will be spending their summer holidays planning for the next term so that they can begin to implement the curriculum. Many staff meetings are spent talking about and unpicking the curriculum and very little time has been found for the detailed planning that is needed. There should also be enough time given for collaboration between schools and in clusters or networks. There is a big difference between 'dipping your toe in the water' and deciding on a theme, and delivering the curriculum with coverage of all the What Matters, Progression Steps, Purposes, experiences, skills, etc. A significant amount of curriculum planning needs to take place to make sure that is delivered in a meaningful way. Practitioners are valuing the idea that there will be further guidance such as the RE Framework or the suite of resources being developed in Science and Technology.

The curriculum guidance is a great starting point, but please don't stop with there, further resources are needed to aid implementation. A lot of ongoing training will also be required. Teacher representatives suggest that this is a huge change and that many teachers, who were competent and confident under the old way of working, need help and support. This huge cultural change that may place practitioners outside of their comfort zones. Welsh Government should not underestimate the amount of support needed from Advisers. Are there enough professionals working within the regional consortia or LAs to provide this ongoing support? For instance, there are only 1.8 dedicated specialist RE Advisers in the whole of Wales to support the changes in Religious Education and to provide the essential specialist training for RE. Given the nature of the subject this could not be provided by non-specialists.

Teachers on SACRE suggest that it is important that Welsh Government, Consortia, LAs and SLT in schools keep telling them that what they are doing is OK because we currently have a profession who for decades have been told how to do things or that they need to attain targets. Therefore, for every practitioner is very excited about this new curriculum, there is another who is very fearful because of the culture that has been created within the current system. Welsh Government should be conscious of that and find ways of addressing this issue through Professional Learning. At the same time SACRE members are excited that that the new curriculum will provide practitioners with the freedom to explore the What Matters with their learners.

LAs are struggling with cuts to RSG and therefore, Education and Social Services are struggling. The reality is LAs will continue find it difficult to fund schools if budgets continue to be inadequate. This curriculum, especially if it is to be a curriculum rich in experiences, will need significant funding for implementation. In addition, the cost should not be transferred to parents who might not be able to fund visits or visitors for example. Ring fenced money for schools is needed to ensure the success of the curriculum. If it is not ringfenced for the new curriculum it will disappear into other areas.

B2. How well do you think the draft Curriculum for Wales 2022 guidance allows for all children and young people to gain a broad range of learning experiences?

You may want to consider learning across the different disciplines and subjects which form part of an area of learning and experience.

Extremely well	Very well	Moderately well	Slightly well	Not well at all
x
Comments: This is a real strength of this curriculum. If there is a problem in learners accessing a broad range of learning experiences, it will not be the fault of the curriculum as it is presented here. There should be no excuse for not giving learners a broad range if this guidance is applied. Schools are encouraged to link more with local communities, to invite visitors in and to take learners on visits that would provide learners with real authentic chances to experience. Training needs to be provided for practitioners organizing visits and visitors. This will be essential for RE as good relationships with communities of faith and belief can go a long way to building the community cohesion needed for societal well-being. Where will funding for these experiences come from? The burden should not be transferred to parents.

B3. How well do you think draft Curriculum for Wales 2022 guidance allows for all children and young people to specialise from age 14 in a particular discipline or subject?

Extremely well	Very well	Moderately well	Slightly well	Not well at all
		x
Comments: Specialisation at this age will stand or fall on the quality of the qualifications offered. Qualifications need to be rigorous enough to stand against other international qualifications so that learners in Wales are not disadvantaged. SACREs are pleased that Qualifications Wales have been involved in the drafting process from the outset so that we will hopefully see some joined up thinking between curriculum and qualifications. Within the Humanities AoLE SACRE members are not able to identify the point at which learners move from a general approach to a more specialized approach in the Humanities AoLE. There is enough depth to suggest that the disciplines are visible, but until qualifications are in place then we do not know what that will look like. Welsh Government need to ensure that all learners receive their entitlement to statutory Religious Education according to the locally agreed syllabus and that schools are providing enough time for this to take place throughout each year group. A minority of schools are currently using methods such as drop-down days to deliver RE, this would be problematic in the new curriculum for several reasons. To isolate RE in this way would go against the interdisciplinary approach outlined in the curriculum unless links to all of the other disciplines are accounted for in the planning of the RE. Additionally, if a learner happens to be ill on that day they would miss a significant amount of their RE. RE should be treated equally to other Humanities disciplines in a way that it is generally not in the current curriculum. Will there be the opportunity for learners to explore areas that interest them and receive a qualification in that? e.g. if a learner has an interest in biodiversity could they have the freedom to explore that and receive a qualification in it? (Would this be a similar approach to the IB Theory of Knowledge paper?)

B4. The draft Curriculum for Wales 2022 guidance is intended to support practitioners and teachers to design a curriculum specific to children and young people. To what extent will practitioners and teachers have the flexibility and support to do this?

Comments: This would depend on the headteacher. SLT also need training in school-based curriculum design and how to implement that. Would schools need time and funding in order to take a collaborative approach to this? The collaborative approach has so many strengths, but it is very time consuming. If the process that has begun is to be completed in the same spirit, then this needs to be supported by Welsh Government. One extra training day would be insufficient. Welsh Government will obviously have concerns around teacher workload and retention and be considering this during the roll out phase. Teachers are being innovative and producing lots of new ideas, but there is no money to buy equipment, resources, etc. There are financial implications t this new curriculum when practitioners are matching their teaching with what the learners want to learn. Teachers are saying that they may have to go to the charity shops to source equipment. On the other hand, with the Internet the availability of digital resources is incredible. This curriculum could not have been implemented 20 years ago. The Digital Competency is bringing the curriculum right up to date and ensuring it is as future facing too. Things of interest to learners can be found there instantly and often cost free. Collaboration and training would enable practitioners to plan for best use of the DCF in all AoLEs. The feedback on this question is that “the curriculum is absolutely brilliant but how are you going to fund it when schools do not have enough money to buy basics like glue?”

B5. How well do you think the draft Curriculum for Wales 2022 guidance supports learners to develop skills in the cross-curricular responsibilities (literacy, numeracy and digital competence) and other cross-cutting themes (e.g. Welsh dimension and international perspective, wider skills, careers and work-related experiences, relationships and sexuality education)?

Extremely well	Very well	Moderately well	Slightly well	Not well at all
	x
Comments: SACRE members note the additional guidance surrounding all these areas within the curriculum. They can see that all cross-curricular responsibilities are embedded within the AoLEs. SACREs like the concept of cynefyn within the Humanities AoLE which will give a strong Welsh dimension to this curriculum. There are lots of key concepts within RE that would link to all cross-curricular responsibilities and it would be good to develop these within the RE Framework that is being drafted.

B6. How could the cross-curricular frameworks (National Literacy and Numeracy Framework and the Digital Competence Framework) be refined to support the development of literacy, numeracy and digital competence across the new curriculum?

The timing is good to implement this as schools have become used to implementing the LNF and the DCF and so will just carry on doing those things.

With the Internet, the availability of digital resources is incredible. This curriculum could not have been implemented 20 years ago. The Digital Competency is bringing the curriculum right up to date and ensuring it is as future facing too. Things of interest to learners can be found there instantly and often cost free. Collaboration and training would enable practitioners to plan for best use of the DCF in all AoLEs.

B7. How well do you think the guidance for each area of learning and experience will support children during the Foundation Phase years?

Extremely well	Very well	Moderately well	Slightly well	Not well at all

Comments:

Superbly well! This is the view of our Foundation Phase expert.

The Humanities AoLE takes good account of the development of the youngest learners. Enquiring minds and the ability to ask 'big' questions are skills that many young children exhibit and this AoLE gives them the chance to understand the worth of these skills and develop them further. Ideas around 'curiosity' 'personal experience' 'special times' and 'rules' will be familiar to practitioners in the Early Years and give pupils the opportunity to share and celebrate their developing understanding of spiritual and religious practices that they encounter.

Professional learning will most definitely be needed for RE within the Foundation Phase because of the changes to legislation and 3-5 year olds now being entitled to receive Religious Education.

B8. How well do you think the draft Curriculum for Wales 2022 guidance supports and enables learners to progress at an appropriate pace for their development within the area of learning and experience from ages 3 to 16?

Comments:

It is important that there is a focus on pedagogies such as spiral learning within ongoing Professional Learning and Engagement so that teachers and practitioners are able to implement the curriculum and desired outcomes are achieved. SACRE members note that the curriculum alone will not do this, and that it also must sit alongside the Professional Teaching Standards so that there is an onus on teachers to ensure progression takes place.

Some SACRE members suggest that there is a risk that, if a target led approach to teaching and learning is not taken, teachers might not stretch and challenge learners to achieve their potential. However, some practitioners sitting on SACRE are excited that there will no longer be a 'tick box approach' where learners can be coached to hit a target. They like the new holistic approach to learning and developing the individual learner that the new curriculum brings. This is particularly important in a subject like Religious Education where you might have a learner who isn't able to write but is able to show incredible amounts of empathy and kindness. Under this new curriculum practitioners will be able to comment on these very specific skills that the learners have. There does need to be a way of holding teachers to account, but it is the Professional Teaching Standards that need to do that now rather than the curriculum itself.

The Planning for Learning sections are useful in planning within the Progression Steps. SACRE members have looked at the Humanities AOLE Planning for Learning sections which are good. However, there are a very small number of inconsistencies that should be checked to ensure real progression.

SE Wales SACREs have made observations regarding Achievement Outcomes in another question (A3).

Some SACRE members asked whether there is a system of ensuring that any content delivered in schools is age appropriate? There is a concern that some parents are opting for home education because they believe that the content of the curriculum is not age appropriate. Some parents are concerned that young children will be exposed to concepts they may not be ready for. SACRE members suggest that parents need to be aware of the research in this area that has underpinned curriculum development. There is a need for intensive engagement with parents so that they understand this new curriculum. Parents need to be aware of the research that has been done into how this new curriculum will affect the development of the children so that they are not overly confused at too early an age.

B9. How well do you think the draft Curriculum for Wales 2022 guidance will provide a basis to help young people progress beyond the age of 16?

Comments: It is good to see that skills for life are included in this Curriculum such as Financial Literacy, Careers, etc. It is important from the point of view of SACRE that learners are given the opportunities to engage in high quality RE which offers so many opportunities to build the life skills they require and develop the Four Purposes. Good quality RE will enable learners to explore concepts such as tolerance, diversity, attitudes toward prejudice and discrimination, interfaith dialogue, ethics, philosophy spirituality, relationships, purpose, identity, belonging, etc. This will lead to developing the personal well-being of the learner and therefore toward societal well-being.

B10. Formative assessment should be given primacy in the new curriculum. How well do the assessment proposals promote this principle?

Extremely well	Very well	Moderately well	Slightly well	Not well at all
Comments: SACREs agrees with the priority given to formative assessment in the curriculum.

B11. The assessment proposals propose a broader approach to moderation – supporting professional dialogue regarding the nature of progression, the selection of appropriate learning and assessment activities, as well as ensuring a shared understanding of what achievement looks like in the context of the achievement outcomes.

How would you envisage your setting /school putting this approach into practice? What further support do you think would be needed?

SE Wales SACREs would like to ensure that planned assessment activities consider learner entitlement to statutory Religious Education.

SE Wales SACREs have made recommendations for the improvement of Achievement Outcomes in another answer (A3). If Achievement Outcomes are not defined more clearly and understood by practitioners, then a shared understanding may not be achieved.

B12. What practical issues for settings and schools do we need to be mindful of if the assessment proposals are to be made a reality?

There needs to be Professional Learning specifically for assessment methodology and pedagogies that are in line with the assessment proposals.
Schools would need time to achieve a shared vision for assessment within the school.
Schools should understand the RE Framework in order to ensure Progression in RE. This may require PL.

B13. What implications do you see from the draft Curriculum for Wales 2022 guidance for you and your colleagues' professional development needs in respect of the:

- impact on pedagogical practice
- implications of planning for a purpose-driven curriculum
- professional learning requirements linked to pedagogy
- developing in-school and cross-school collaboration
- specific areas of professional learning aligned to the areas of learning and experience
- opportunities for professional enquiry approaches support delivery of the new curriculum?

Please see references to the bullet points above throughout this response.

The main recommendations SACREs would like to make are: -

Professional Learning needs for Religious Education in the New Curriculum

Due to the changes in the position of RE within the Curriculum for Wales, and its unique position in being a local responsibility. The following Professional Learning needs are required for learners to receive their entitlement to high quality religious education which contributes towards the development of the Four Purposes.

PL Resources could be developed by the group writing the RE Framework and/or NAPfRE working alongside Humanities Pioneers and the QI Group. A degree of training the trainer might be needed prior to engagement.

WELSH MEDIUM provision = all the above should be available in both languages

The Impact on Learners

It is important that high quality Professional Learning is delivered in order to establish a workforce confident to deliver high quality Religious Education. Religious education is objective, critical and pluralistic, and will develop and support learners to achieve the four purposes across all Areas of Learning and Experience.

High quality Religious Education enables learners to understand the changing nature of religion and belief locally, nationally and globally. Religious education focuses upon the need to have a sense of identity, belonging and purpose. At the heart of Religious Education is the quest for meaning and to understand the human condition which are essential in enabling learners to develop the Four Purposes. Religious Education focuses upon shared values, identity, personal worth and the development of curiosity and open-mindedness. Religious Education plays a significant role in enabling learners to develop the awareness, insight, knowledge, skills and experiences necessary for the social engagement and social action. These are necessary for learners to flourish as they navigate life both beyond the classroom and beyond the ordinary. Learners will, therefore, become able to imagine their futures in the world with which they are intrinsically interconnected. Religious Education also lends itself to providing opportunities for the spiritual development of learners and the experiences which can lead to self-awareness, confidence and aspiration.

Given that Religious Education is now placed within the Humanities Area of Learning and Experience and that it retains its statutory nature it is imperative that this change is understood fully. As Religious Education is locally determined it is important that the relationship between the Curriculum for Wales 2022, the RE Framework and the status and content of the Agreed Syllabus is understood. The RE framework has been written to be accessible to a wide audience. It is intended for use by teachers; head teachers; governing bodies of maintained schools in Wales; parents; local authorities and their SACREs; diocesan authorities; regional consortia; awarding bodies and Estyn. In addition, it will be useful to teacher unions, religious organisations and other bodies in Wales with an interest in religious education. It is, therefore, essential that all relevant bodies, including practitioners, understand their role in the provision of high-quality Religious Education and its impact on Learners.

Professional Learning will ensure learners are will be given opportunities to experience, develop skills and gain knowledge that will ensure consistent progression toward Achievement Outcomes.

A national approach to PL will ensure consistency, common standards across Wales. This will also include the shared pedagogical approaches to secure equity of access for all learners to receive their statutory entitlement to Religious Education.

There is a need to ensure enough funding available to ensure required resources are available including access for visits and visitors. This should not have a financial impact on practitioners or parents.

PL should be available for whole school curriculum design as well as well as for curriculum design for individual AoLEs and subjects/disciplines. This PL needs to include examples of opportunities for learners to develop the Four Purposes.

B14. What are the professional learning challenges and opportunities to enact the principles in the assessment proposals?

Many of the comments made by SACREs in B12 and B13 will also apply to the assessment proposals.

The Humanities AoLE

SACRE members within the South East Wales region (EAS) are generally very positive and excited about the Humanities Curriculum.

SACREs appreciate that Professor Donaldson has included Religious Education within the Humanities AoLE and that it has an essential position in the new curriculum. Also, that RE will be statutory from the ages of 3-16.

To explore the human condition and human experience through interdisciplinary lenses including the RE lenses (as RE is multidisciplinary) contribution to the Humanities will enhance learner’s understanding of the human condition and human experience. It is, therefore, important that teachers are aware of the disciplines that make up RE. This could be outlined in the RE Framework.

Until now RE has not been statutory the foundation phase therefore there is a need for Professional Learning specifically for those delivering the curriculum to 3-5 year-olds in order to ensure the curriculum is being delivered successfully.

Some representatives on SACRE, suggest that in the past some schools have given teachers the responsibility for RE, not because they have a degree in RE, but because they have an enthusiastic faith of their own. This approach sometimes ran the risk of confessional RE and parents wanting to withdraw their children from RE. Whilst many non-specialists are very capable, understanding the objective, critical and pluralistic nature of RE, the recent Estyn Thematic Report for ks3 and ks3 RE picked up on the lack of confidence some non-specialist teachers have in teaching religions other than Christianity. The new Humanities curriculum provides an incredible opportunity for Professional Learning so that practitioners can be confident about the delivery of RE in line with the Humanities AoLE, the RE Framework and the Agreed Syllabus. With high quality PL there might be a lot of Humanities teachers who might be happy to step into some of those roles having built up more confidence. If PL does not take place it would run the risk of the Humanities AoLE failing during implementation.

SACREs are pleased that there is an emphasis upon Enquiry within the What Matters and particularly that “as well as being a process, enquiry is a quest to understand the human condition” which “enables self-reflection which adds meaning to their own lives and contributes to their sense of place in the world.” It is important that Welsh Government ensures, through PL, that practitioners are aware that this is more than simply carrying out an investigation or research project.

SACREs were pleased to see that the curriculum includes the exploration of the concept of cynefyn. This will create rich opportunities for RE as the concepts of identity and belonging are central to RE.

SACRE members are pleased to note the inclusion of social action in the Humanities Curriculum. This is not new to RE but gives permission to encourage learners to take social action as part of the curriculum. It is important that there is further consultation with agencies that might help learners to participate in social action. Many of these organisations may be charities and they would also need training in how to engage with learners considering changes to the curriculum. It also throws up the need for PL for practitioners delivering RE as the approach taken should in no way be confessional or involve proselytisation.

Some SACRE members thought that the Curriculum guidance should outline the what the essential learning should be. Some SACRE members are keen to see that knowledge within the curriculum is strengthened because - if you have an enquiring mind then there needs to be knowledge to enquire into. Some members agree that there needs to be a focus on the concept of religion itself, as well as a focus on concepts such as diversity and inclusion, for this to be RE.

SACRE members appreciate that RE can be studied from different perspectives e.g. through the lens of history and the other disciplines and how that will, if delivered well, strengthen the RE that is taking place.

Some SACRE members asked whether RE will be defined in this document? It is important that schools and practitioners understand the nature of RE. SACREs are pleased that there will be a RE Framework to support the Humanities Curriculum and would like to see that document defining the nature of RE.

Specific training is needed for Religious Education. The LA and regional advisory services need to be strengthened, especially in relation to Religious Education. RE is a Local Authority responsibility and SACRE members are very concerned that we have seen the destruction of the Advisory Service nationally in relation to RE. They understand that there are financial implications for LAs. But members suggest that if a new curriculum is to be rolled out, supported and monitored properly it is important to have the personnel to do it. This includes a robust Advisory Service, particularly in relation to Religious Education. LAs need sufficient funding in order to do this. If the RE falls down in the new curriculum because it is insufficiently resourced, then that will have a detrimental effect upon the rest of the Humanities Curriculum and the links and interdependencies that can be made with RE and all AoLEs. There is a need to train specialists to deliver the Religious Education. There is, therefore, an economic consequence of introducing a new curriculum, not least in terms of the Advisory Service that must come with it. SACREs are aware that WASACRE has also been speaking to Welsh Government civil servants about the need for Professional Learning and Professional Support for Religious Education.

SACREs appreciate the focus on the local, national and global perspectives and issues found within the Curriculum.

SACREs suggest that there be enough training for school-based curriculum planning so that schools know how to implement this Humanities curriculum. SACREs are concerned that, due to the nature of the Curriculum and the freedom of schools to design their own curriculum that there will be inconsistency in quality across schools.

SACREs are concerned that all schools should be delivering RE that is diverse and pluralistic and that there is not a focus on one religion over others.

Some SACRE members were concerned that an interdisciplinary approach might undermine Religious Education in that there might be insufficient time to provide high quality RE. Will there be guidance surrounding parity between the disciplines in the curriculum to ensure that one subject receives more coverage whilst others are undermined?

SACREs in SE Wales feel that if the RE is to be properly delivered within the Humanities AoLE then there should be not opportunity for learners to be withdrawn from RE. This would make delivering this curriculum very impractical for schools to manage.

SACRE members would like to ensure that the RE that is being delivered includes a full spectrum of religious and non-religious beliefs and is not limited to one particular viewpoint. Therefore, it was good to see diversity and pluralism within the Curriculum.

SACREs are excited to see that the curriculum will be enriched through learning through the lenses of the different disciplines. This will be more holistic.

A teacher representative on SACRE is implementing the curriculum into the Foundation Phase and can already see that the children have an increasing understanding of religion and spirituality. SACRE members who are teachers have experienced some learners being withdrawn from RE because their families are non-religious. By providing a curriculum that is inclusive of both religious and non-religious viewpoints will go a long way toward less parents withdrawing their children from RE because they are non-religious. It is important that learners understand that religion and belief is interwoven into everything in 21st Century Wales, and that is important for them to know about religion and worldviews, whether they are from a religious background or not. The curriculum will allow for children who are from a religious background to tell their peers about their own background, beliefs heritage, etc. This will enable them to feel included and develop a sense of identity and belonging which clearly seems to be the aim of the Curriculum.

Teacher representatives on SACRE who are involved with the PL schools enthusiastically say that introducing the new humanities curriculum has also been an education for themselves too, suggesting that the curriculum is offering tremendous opportunities for all our learners.

There is a worry that many parents do not know that this curriculum is based on research. Some representatives of religion and belief report that that these anxieties are brought up and they have been fueled by reports in the media. There is a fear then that there will be an increase in home schooling that might be avoided by engaging with parents in a more robust way. The religious background of learners needs to be taken into account so that families do not become alienated and children confused. SACREs recommend continued engagement with communities as the curriculum is rolled out in order to listen to them and to address and alleviate fears that their religions and beliefs might be undermined.

Some members referred to issues that were encountered when the Scottish curriculum was rolled out in that teachers were worried about what they should actually be teaching, particularly in reference to benchmark statements that shows progression which is a good thing. However, they were concerned that there should also be reference to content in the Welsh Curriculum as there is in the Scottish Curriculum.

What Matters Statements in Humanities

SACRE members feel that it is impressive that the Pioneers have managed to find the language and words to express what is relevant for learners from 3-16 with regards to the five disciplines. They are relevant to the whole age range because they are very broad statements.

SACRE appreciates the emphasis upon the concept of spiral learning which is described in the guidance.

WM1 – SACRE members are enthusiastic about the emphasis upon enquiry in the Humanities AoLE. The whole idea of self-reflection being taught from the age of 3 is valuable. The ability to develop this skill must be specifically taught. Foundation Phase experts on the SACREs suggest that whilst the idea that something is ‘partial, inconclusive and open to different interpretations’ seems to be a big thing to consider in the Foundation Phase - it is a very exciting opportunity to be considering things like this. The Foundation Phase experts on SACRE, who are already engaging with this curriculum, were enthusiastic about the opportunities they have had to explore things like enquiry. They suggest that in the past children have come of FP with a set of knowledge that they spend the rest of their education unpicking it, when in fact learning should have been more open and broader in the first place as we see in this new curriculum. The FP experts admit to initially feeling a little daunted by the curriculum. However, their experience is that once they start talking to the children about the concepts it is very surprising how quickly the learners embrace those ideas. In terms of resources for FP - discussions and open-ended interpretations are already in the classroom, “they are just sitting there in all of those small brains. Introducing this curriculum is not as frightening as you first think from an early years perspective.” This kind of philosophical enquiry has always traditionally had a place in RE through the exploration of ultimate questions. SACRE members are, therefore pleased to see the place this has within the What Matters statements. The beauty of this curriculum is that this philosophical enquiry can take place in ever increasing depth from 3-16. Developing an enquiring mind is always very important.

Some members were keen to see the concept of altruism running throughout the statements. This could include the altruistic viewpoint this would enable learners to aim toward jobs in the care sector. Some SACRE members were concerned that investigation of worldviews might lead to people supporting hedonistic worldviews, etc.

SACRE members were very pleased to see that the experiences in the Planning for Learning section are those that are traditionally found in high quality RE. SACRE was pleased to see reference to ‘subject focused questions’ which means that RE will be delivered as one of the Humanities disciplines.

Some schools are putting the WM statements and Progression Steps on one piece of paper to ensure they are looked at as a whole rather than individually. Is this a useful approach? If so, could this be produced by WG?

SACRE members were pleased that RE is so visible within the Humanities WM statements, suggesting in fact that if you replaced the term Humanities with RE it would read as a RE curriculum.

WM 2 – SACRE members support this WM statement where learners will be critically interpreting. They see it as a fundamentally important move for the better away from their own educational experiences, where they were taught that something was the way it was and there were no alternative viewpoints put forward. Members suggest that it is in seeing things through a variety of lenses that the biggest breakthroughs in humanity come. People need to question what they already know. Members support the idea that children are taught from an early age not to believe everything they are told, and that they have their own self, is really important, especially in light of the media or social media in today's societies and the 'fake news' that is available to them. Schools need to enable our learners to see that what they see isn't necessarily correct. Some SACRE members referred to a speech made by a spokesperson for the Commissioner for Future Generations - that it is important to give our learners the ability to understand that not everything they see in the mass media is correct.

SACRE members suggest that the statement could give the impression that schools are going to teach children to challenge everything they have ever been told. Learners coming from a faith perspective might find this difficult. It could be interpreted that my child is going to be supported in developing the faith of the family. Schools are sitting in the middle of the mass media described above, which is pervasive, and with whatever they are being brought up with at home. Good quality RE within a Humanities curriculum is crucial in that it can help they learners analyse those things. Strange and new ideas (including those that may require the implementation of the Prevent agenda) are coming from the world around learners in a way that hasn't happened in previous generations and this WM and the RE within it will help learners navigate those things.

The slight concern that SACRE members have is: will there be sufficient checks and quality assurance built into this learning? When you are looking at things from a variety of perspectives it is important that this is considered. Teachers may have a conflict of interests for instance. This is sometimes seen in the case of RE where it is necessary to guard against it occasionally becoming confessional. This should always be avoided. This highlights the importance of specific training for teachers of Religious Education due to the sensitive issues discussed in relation to religion and belief. We need teachers who are confident to teach in a way that is respectful to the views of their learners. SACRE members raised the question of accountability and the future role of Estyn in checking that what is going on in out schools is good Humanities and good Religious Education. If you get RE wrong, it can have serious consequences for learners and for society.

Many of the skills required for future generations are those that have been taught in RE and are highlighted in this Humanities WM statement. The Future Generations Commissioner's office suggest that robots will be able to do most jobs in the future, but they will not be able to duplicate the skills learners will build through the Humanities WM including things like empathy, compassion and altruism. It is important that the Four Purposes are reflected within this WM statement as when the world is looked at in different ways there needs to be a focus on ethical and altruistic viewpoints. If this doesn't happen then you are creating learning that isn't going to lead to ethical individuals. SACRE members would like to highlight the links here to the Health and Well-being AoLE which lends itself to the kind of thinking that develops the Four Purposes. Members questioned whether some practices within Business Studies might lead to thinking about self only and promoting yourself above everyone else. It would, therefore, be helpful to have an ethical statement within each WM rationale.

SACRE members were pleased to see ultimate and philosophical questioning on the planning for learning section in this WM as well as the learners being encouraged to seek meaning. The skills in the WM statement would provide high quality Religious Education. SACRE members were pleased to see opportunities for learners to explore a range of symbolic stories, rituals, artefacts, art, dance, drama, music and food which would provide high quality RE.

SACREs liked the idea that the concepts of self and identity are explored in all of the WM statements but wonder whether practitioners will be fully aware of this if they are not RE specialists. Also, how will practitioners be aware of the links and interdependencies across Health and Well-being all the AoLEs in terms of these important concepts?

WM3 - SACREs support the focus on spirituality within this WM statement and upon how people interact with the world and with animals. This is fundamentally important considering the need for sustainability of the environment. Members see this as a strong WM statement. Members suggest it might be wise to ensure that there is a statement on 'doing no harm' toward the world in this statement. This WM is great for outdoor learning. Curiosity, appreciation of the natural world, awe and wonder, and the connection to the natural world are all concepts that are explored in RE and SACREs are very pleased to see that they are within this statement. Some SACRE members have asked why there is no reference to 'religion', beliefs and philosophies about the natural world in this statement? Other members are happy that the use of the term 'beliefs' here would encompass religious and non-religious beliefs. However, they question whether non-specialists would be able to see that.

WM4 –SACRE members ask whether it would be possible to add the word 'altruistic' to the last sentence on "develop a tolerant and empathetic and altruistic understanding of..."

WM5 - Members are pleased to see the curriculum taking this approach with a focus social action and becoming a global citizen from the age of 3 that would lead to learners who are less insular in their thinking. It is powerful that children from a young age will be able to understand that whatever they do will have an impact which is wider than their own home. Members agree that it is important not just to focus on self-development but to have the needs of other people at heart as well. This will give opportunities for spiritual development also. SACRE members think that it is important to explore thoughts and feelings alongside this. It is vital that the links and interdependencies with this WM and Health and Well-being are flagged up. There needs to be more help for schools planning their curriculum to be able to see the joined-up thinking. If schools plan well using the links and interdependencies, then this will allow for a more holistic development of learners.

It is good that learners are given permission to think about things to do with social justice, etc. and to influence adult's positions in those too. The idea of giving young people an authentic voice is an exciting opportunity that this new curriculum brings.

SACRE members are pleased to see compassion, empathy and social action on the curriculum. This would allow for exploration of religious beliefs around compassion and love in action which would be very relevant to RE.

SACREs note the importance of the concept of sustainability in this and like the idea that this is about more than the sustainability of the environment.

WM5 may help to redress the way in which society has become intolerant in recent years.

SACRE members appreciate that how learners will contribute to the world of work and the economy will take on an ethical focus.

General Comments

SACRE members feel that, despite knowing that the WM are equitable, that the statement on social action should be listed first. Or should the statements be accessed through clicking a circular icon so that it can clearly be seen that they are not hierarchical? SACRE members are of the opinion that if we are creating global citizens then this WM is very important in the curriculum as a whole and to apply an interdisciplinary approach to this WM is revolutionary. Members are asking why this seems to be the WM statement that is the most his seems to be the most important WM and why then it is being listed last.

There is a need to ensure that there is clarity around the reasons why there is no overlap between the WM statements as some members would like to have seen social or altruistic action within all the WM Statements. There needs to be PL so that practitioners know how to use the WM in an interconnected way.

SACRE members note that if we can teach this whole curriculum properly it will contribute to societal and personal well-being. This will have a positive effect on mental and emotional well-being.

The links and interdependencies between the AoLEs could be strengthened, particularly that between Humanities and Health and Well-being. Religious Education could straddle both AoLEs with the emphasis on concepts of self, identity, belonging, diversity and spirituality.

Planning for Learning – there is plenty of support for teachers in knowing what to deliver in the classroom. But it is very important that Professional Learning is now in place so that teacher's subject knowledge is enhanced in order to do this. Subject specific training is needed from Advisors rather than just sharing resources. Where resources are shared there should be systems of quality assurance in place to ensure the delivery fits with the spirit and purposes of the curriculum. It is important to plug gaps in the knowledge of practitioners so that they do not remain in their comfort zone and only deliver what they know. Schools need to be given time, resources and money to plan for the successful implementation of this curriculum.

SACRE members suggest that interaction between schools and parents need to include sharing and discussing examples of how the curriculum can be implemented. SACREs would like to suggest that Welsh Government continue to engage with parents and with religious and non-religious communities and organisations as the curriculum roll out in order to ensure that Religious Education is effective and delivered in a way that is sensitive to the beliefs and values of families and communities.

Progression Steps

SACRE members are concerned that, if there is only an integrated Humanities approach at 14-16, it would be too general, and the disciplines would be diluted. This would lead to learners having insufficient skills to lead to knowledge and understanding of individual disciplines. SACRE members ask whether the general Humanities approach would allow learners to focus in enough detail within the individual disciplines? There will be much reliance upon Qualifications Wales ensuring that the qualification that sit alongside this curriculum fully allow learners to progress Post 16. Welsh Government should ensure that Qualifications Wales engage with WASACRE/NAPfRE in designing the qualifications remembering that Religious Education is locally determined and that it is statutory for all schools to adhere to the content of the locally agreed syllabus for Religious Education. This did not happen during the last review of qualifications and this had a detrimental effect upon Religious Education in schools as it was more difficult for them to follow the Agreed Syllabus. The discontinued old RE short course had been designed specifically to cater for the needs of all learners who were entitled to core RE. In the new curriculum learners should be able to receive the equivalent to a short course level 2 qualification in RE as is currently the case. Members are supportive of an approach to learning that enables learners to explore the areas they are passionate about, especially through the enquiry process of WM1. The curriculum and qualifications should also take this into account as well as consider future generations - we do not know what jobs will look like in the next ten years. Learners should be enabled to follow a pathway to bespoke qualifications that develop their passion for the disciplinary areas that they are drawn toward. They also need the skills to build upon for careers and the world of work. All of this will have an effect on pedagogy, staffing and organization of schools. Again, schools should be adequately funded for this in order to make a success of the curriculum.

Worldview(s) should be one word and not two words throughout the document.

The definition of worldviews and of spirituality could be strengthened in the glossary. The definition of spirituality should include the connections between self, the world and for some people with the concept of the God/Ultimate Reality. There will need to be some consistency between the Humanities AoLE and the RE Framework in terms of definitions.

Ministerial foreword

Our vision for Wales is for a fully inclusive education system where all learners have the equity of access to education that meets their needs and enables them to participate in, benefit from and enjoy learning.

To help deliver this, we are in the midst of a transformative reform agenda, including the development of the Curriculum for Wales, based on learners making progress towards four purposes and, as part of this, providing the knowledge, skills and experiences to enable learners become healthy, ethical and informed citizens.

We are proposing that every child in a maintained school in Wales must have the right to access a broad and balanced curriculum; this includes access to Religious Education (RE) and Relationships and Sexuality Education (RSE).

RE and sex education are statutory requirements within the current curriculum. We propose that RE and RSE will be statutory within the new curriculum when it is introduced from 2022.

Through RE, learners explore the range of spiritual, philosophical, moral, social and cultural beliefs within their community, across Wales, and throughout the world. I am proposing to change the name of Religious Education to “Religions and Worldviews”, which appropriately reflects teaching practice within the new curriculum, and allows for the exploration of a range of religious and philosophical beliefs, as well as other beliefs and world-views, including non-religious world views.

Our responsibility as a government is to ensure that, through state education, all children and young people have access to learning that supports them to develop tolerance, empathy and understanding of different people, cultures and communities – and in understanding their rights and the rights of others. Children should be provided with access to information that keeps them safe from harm and allows them to navigate the world we live in, one which is very different to the world we or their parents grew up in.

All teaching and learning must be developmentally appropriate. It must be clear to parents what their children will learn about and to be able to engage in dialogue with schools about this part of the curriculum.

The teaching and learning in each school will be able to draw on a framework we will provide in guidance and should reflect the community the school serves.

I am minded to ensure all children and young people in maintained schools are required to study RE and RSE in the new curriculum, rather than continue the anomaly that parents can take the decision to prevent children from attending these specific and core lessons.

This consultation seeks views on the practical implications of such a change.

It provides an opportunity for parents, teachers, young people and stakeholders to help shape this important area.

I am very clear that we need to work with parents and carers, take account of their views and look at how we can balance the rights of parents to develop, care and guide their children into adulthood and provide a broad and balanced education that serves the public good.

What are the main issues?

1. This consultation asks for views on the practical implications on the proposal to ensure access to the new curriculum by not including the parental right to withdraw from RE and RSE¹.

Current curriculum

RE

2. At present, RE is part of the basic curriculum and schools have a statutory duty to teach RE to all learners in maintained schools, including those in the sixth form and Pupil Referral Units (PRUs) (covering ages 11 to 18), with an exemption for children in nursery classes.
3. The nature of the RE will vary according to whether the school is a faith or non-faith based school. The courts have established that RE must be taught in an objective, critical and pluralistic manner; in particular, the state is not permitted to pursue an aim of indoctrination (“the Pluralistic Requirement”). Nonetheless faith schools can teach RE in a way that accords with its faith basis but they must also provide neutral information on other religions and non-religious views as well.
4. In summary, the effect of the current legislation governing RE in schools is as follows:
 - the curriculum generally must be balanced and broadly-based and it must (a) promote the spiritual, moral, cultural, mental and physical development of pupils at the school and of society, and (b) prepare pupils for the opportunities, responsibilities and experiences of later life;
 - that the curriculum must include provision for RE for all pupils at the school;
 - Community schools, foundation schools and voluntary schools without a religious character follow the Agreed Syllabus²;
 - Foundation and voluntary controlled schools with a religious character must provide RE in accordance with the Agreed Syllabus unless a parent requests that their child be provided with RE in accordance with the trust deed for the school or, if there is no trust deed, in accordance with the tenets of the religion;

² See paragraph 2 of Schedule 19 to the School Standards and Framework Act 1998. The Agreed Syllabus is the syllabus for religious education adopted by the local authority on advice of its Agreed Syllabus Conference. It sets out the content of religious education for those schools without a faith basis and for those with a faith basis but which do not follow a separate denominational education (voluntary controlled schools).

- Voluntary aided schools with a religious character must provide RE in accordance with the trust deed for the school, or if there is no trust deed, in accordance with the tenets of the religion. However, if the parents so request, this must be provided in accordance with the Agreed Syllabus (paragraphs 3 and 4 of Schedule 19 to the 1998 Act);
- that RE in non-faith-based schools must comply with the Christian tradition³ requirement;
- RE in non-faith schools may not be given by means of any catechism or formulary which is distinctive of a particular religious denomination (although the study of such catechisms or formularies is permissible);
- the parent of a pupil has an absolute right to have the pupil excused from receiving RE, and no reason for the exercise of that right need be given;
- where a pupil has been so excused, he or she may (subject to certain conditions being met) be withdrawn from school to receive RE of a kind that his or her parent wishes him or her to receive; and
- if the school is a secondary school and pupils cannot be conveniently withdrawn from it, then (subject to certain conditions being met) facilities must be made available for the pupils to receive RE of a kind that their parents wish them to receive.

What is a faith school?

5. The schools that may have a faith basis are as follows:

- a) voluntary controlled schools: these may or may not have a religious character;
- b) voluntary aided schools: these may or may not have a religious character; and
- c) foundation and foundation special schools: foundation schools may have a religious character also.

6. In practice almost all faith schools in Wales will be voluntary aided (category (b) above).

7. As noted above, in non-faith schools there is provision in the School Standards and Framework Act 1998 which states that no Agreed Syllabus may be distinctive of a particular religious denomination (“Catechism Provision”). This provision does not apply to faith-based schools. Whilst such schools must comply with the ³ Section 375(3) of the Education Act 1996 provides that every agreed syllabus shall reflect the fact that the religious traditions in Great Britain are in the main Christian whilst taking account of the teaching and practices of the other principal religious traditions represented in Great Britain.

Pluralistic Requirement (see paragraph 3), subject to that they may still teach according to their own catechism.

Parents' ability to prevent a child receiving RE

8. Parents have been able to prevent a child from receiving RE since the Education Act 1944. Parents are not required to provide a reason for doing so and the right remains with the parent throughout schooling (including the sixth form).
9. This consultation proposes there will be no parental right to withdraw from RE (and RSE).

Sex education

10. The current legislation requires that all secondary school age pupils attending maintained settings must receive sex education (set out in Section 101(c) and (d) of the Education Act 2002). Primary schools are able to deliver sex education but this is at the discretion of their governing bodies.
11. There is not a full definition of what sex education encompasses in the current curriculum but section 579(1) of the Education Act 1996 states that it does include information on sexually transmitted diseases. This is supplemented by statutory guidance. It has generally been interpreted more broadly to encompass aspects of relationships.
12. Both faith and non-faith based schools must teach sex education in a way that satisfies the Pluralistic Requirement and does not seek to indoctrinate in any particular religious view on issues relating to sex education. However, faith schools can teach it in a way that accords with its faith basis but must provide neutral information about other perspectives on the same issues.
13. Schools also have a statutory requirement to provide Personal and Social Education (PSE) for all compulsory school age pupils (generally ages 5-16). They are supported in planning their PSE provision by the non-statutory framework for PSE document, which contains a health and emotional well-being theme. However, as the PSE Framework is non-statutory, schools are free to decide on the content and approach for delivery as long as the subject is taught in a neutral way.
14. Relationships education is already present in the Foundation Phase, which covers 3-7 years old. The Foundation Phase contains a Personal and Social Development, Well-being and Cultural Diversity area of learning. Within this, children learn about themselves, their relationships with other children and adults both within and beyond the family.

Parents' ability to prevent a child receiving sex education

15. Parents are currently able to prevent their children from receiving aspects of sex education in school (i.e. aspects not contained in the national curriculum). As with RE, parents are not required to give a reason for withdrawal and this remains with the parent throughout schooling (including the sixth form). This consultation proposes there will be no parental right to withdraw from RSE (and RE).

New Curriculum

16. We are developing a transformational curriculum and schools will be responsible for ensuring all their learners receive a broad and balanced curriculum, which is designed to meet the four purposes – that children and young people develop as:

- ambitious, capable learners, ready to learn throughout their lives;
- enterprising, creative contributors, ready to play a full part in life and work
- ethical, informed citizens of Wales and the world;
- healthy, confident individuals, ready to lead fulfilling lives as valued members of society.

17. To ensure the curriculum enables learners to progress in relation to achieving the four purposes, the new curriculum will include (amongst other things):

- A requirement for RE for pupils 3 to 16 years of age;
- A requirement for RSE for pupils aged 3 to 16 years of age.

18. Further details of the proposals are contained in the White Paper. While there will be requirements and guidance to support schools in developing and implementing the new curriculum, a purpose-led curriculum will offer considerably more freedom and agency to practitioners to offer learning which equips learners for the challenges and opportunities they face growing up and then living and working in the 21st century.

19. Within this purpose-led approach, both RE and RSE have a central role to play in realising the four purposes to the extent that we have proposed they must be separate statutory requirements.

RE in the new curriculum

20. In proposals for the new Curriculum, RE⁴ will continue to be compulsory, forming a statutory part of the Humanities Area of Learning and Experience, whilst recognising the local responsibility of the Agreed Syllabus Conferences and local authorities and the place of the denominational syllabus in faith based schools (e.g. Voluntary Aided schools with a religious character).

21. A new supporting framework is being developed to provide further detail about the relationship between RE, the Agreed Syllabus, and the areas of learning and experience. This is being taken forward by a group of RE practitioners, teachers drawn from our Quality Improvement practitioners, academics, and representatives from Standing Advisory Councils on Religious Education (SACREs) and the National Advisory Panel for Religious Education (NAPFRE).

⁴ Please see paragraphs 45 – 47 below for our proposal to change the name of this subject area

22. It is our intention also that RE reflects our historical and contemporary relationship in Wales to philosophy and religious views, including non-religious beliefs. Therefore we propose the current legislation will be amended to ensure the agreed syllabus for RE takes account of non-religious world views which are analogous to religions (for example, humanism).
23. In developing respect and understanding of different forms of religion and world view over time and in different societies, RE provides valuable experiences for children and young people that make a positive contribution to each of the four purposes.

RSE in the new curriculum

24. Relationships and Sexuality Education (RSE) explores the interconnected ways in which a wide and diverse range of social, cultural, technological and biological influences affect the ability to form and maintain positive relationships. It supports young people to develop the knowledge and skills needed to effectively navigate these rapidly changing influences and establish respectful, fulfilling relationships throughout their lives. These may include family relationships, friendships, professional relationships and sexual relationships. Moving from sex education in the current legislation to RSE in future reflects the internationally recognised World Health Organisation (WHO) standards for sexuality education. This definition seeks to encourage schools to take a joined up approach to education around relationships and the broader range of topics included under sexuality.
25. RSE within the new curriculum will be mandatory in all funded non-maintained settings and maintained schools (and PRUs) for learners aged 3 to 16. The four purposes of the curriculum support learners to grow as healthy, confident individuals who are able to build relationships based on mutual trust and respect, and develop their mental and emotional well-being by developing their resilience and empathy. RSE is essential to supporting this and should provide learners with the experiences, knowledge and skills to form and maintain a range of positive relationships. To properly reflect the breadth of what will be covered, it will be formally renamed in line with the recommendation of the Sex and Relationships Education Expert Panel⁵.
26. RSE will allow learners to explore how their experiences, decisions, social and cultural interactions, and relationships, drawn from the interpersonal level, through local, national, United Kingdom and global contexts, can help them grow in empathy and recognise the dignity and respect due to others, and to the living world around them. It is about nurturing and developing learners' understanding of the influences that can affect them, both positively and negatively, as they seek to develop and establish a range of respectful, healthy relationships. This includes learning at age appropriate stages about:

⁵ <https://gweddill.gov.wales/docs/dcells/publications/180104-future-of-the-sex-and-relationships-education-curriculum-in-wales-en.pdf>

- relationships / friendship
- respecting values, rights, culture and sexuality
- understanding gender
- violence and staying safe
- relationships and sexuality, and health and well-being
- the human body and development
- sexuality and sexual behaviour

27. Developing RSE through different areas of learning and experience⁶ within the new curriculum gives learners a rich and wide-ranging view of human relationships and sexuality from a variety of disciplines.

28. We propose that there will be a duty on the Welsh Ministers to issue statutory guidance on RSE in a way that is age-appropriate and developmentally appropriate for learners.

Role of RE and RSE in the new curriculum

29. Ensuring that RE and RSE forms part of the curriculum for all school learners would support learners to work towards the four purposes, and we believe there is a strong argument that these subject areas are necessary to produce ethical, informed citizens who are ready to be citizens of Wales and the world, and that schools have a role in providing neutral, comprehensive and accurate information to learners. Part of the rationale for including RE and RSE as mandatory elements in the new curriculum is the importance of their contribution to the four purposes; it is unlikely that some of the key characteristics could be secured by learners without access to these subjects.

30. There have been significant changes in society and the law since the introduction of the current curriculum. In this modern and increasingly complex world we now live in, religious and non-religious world views permeate through much of people's daily lives in one way or another. In order to equip a pupil for the modern world, schools must provide them with pluralistic, neutral and critical education on those religious and non-religious world views. Similarly in terms of RSE pupils have available to them a vast amount of information though the internet. That information can be accessed easily and in a number of different ways. We believe that the state has a moral obligation to ensure that children in schools receive neutral and accurate information in these issues which pervade throughout society.

31. Not including the right to withdraw would also support the interdisciplinary approach being adopted in the new curriculum. There is already anecdotal evidence that schools and parents find it difficult to identify those lessons from which their child should be withdrawn. This situation is likely to be exacerbated by the interdisciplinary nature of the new curriculum, and it would be difficult to ensure that any right to withdraw was capable of being meaningfully exercised.

What we are proposing?

Right to withdraw from RE and RSE:

32. We are proposing to not include a right to withdraw from RE and RSE in the new curriculum for Wales. These lessons will be compulsory for all pupils.

33. In coming to this proposal we have carefully considered the views expressed in the responses to the White Paper and to the consultation on the RSE guidance. It is clear that these are issues on which there are strong views, and we recognise that people are concerned about:

- Developmental appropriateness, and that children should not be exposed to issues that they are not ready for;
- Role / primacy of family in providing guidance on these issues;
- The potential for there to be a lack of sensitivity to, or recognition of, different cultural or religious views;
- The capacity and capability to provide learning in a nuanced and sensitive way;
- Scope for unwanted conflict and disagreement.

34. At the same time, there has been strong support for our proposal that sex education would be replaced by RSE. The announcement was one of the most welcome and popular posts on our social media channels.

35. We also believe that, in a world where access to information – and disinformation – is universal and instantaneous, the curriculum has a key role to play in helping children and young people navigate all this safely and be able to judge what information they can trust and to recognise the very many negative perspectives they will be exposed to online.

36. Safeguarding all our young people and supporting them to navigate this complex world is vital. Parents, of course, have a central role to play in this but there is a crucial role for schools – and a role which is now more important than it has ever been.

37. On this basis we believe there is a strong principle-based case for all school learners to be guaranteed access to RE and RSE. For learners to fully benefit from a broad and balanced curriculum, they must be able to access all parts of the curriculum. Within the new purpose-led approach (outlined above), both subjects have a central role to play in our children and young people receiving a broad and balanced education and realising the four purposes.

38. There has been a clear message from practitioners that the way forward on these issues is for Government to decide at a national level and should not be passed to schools to manage.
39. In our increasingly complicated and rapidly changing world, the children and young people of Wales have a need and a right to receive consistent, factual and developmentally-appropriate learning about the issues covered in these subjects. This is important as part of the development of a more inclusive and tolerant society. High quality RSE and RE provision in schools supports children and young people to stay safe, to respect one another, and to build healthy relationships. These are important values we want all young people in Wales to develop to allow young people to be ethical, informed citizens of Wales and the world and healthy, confident individuals, ready to lead fulfilling lives as valued members of society.
40. We carefully considered whether providing a mechanism for parents to withdraw their children from RE and RSE would be appropriate in the new curriculum. We recognised that the ability to withdraw was important to some parents and that some parents take the view these are primarily matters for parents and families to educate in relation to. We also considered the potential role of right to withdraw in circumstances where there were concerns that teaching and learning was not pluralistic. We concluded that a right to withdraw was not the appropriate mechanism to deal with this and the practice in the particular school should be being addressed. This has already been identified as an area where investment in professional learning and resources will be required to support practitioners. There is also a role for self-assessment to identify where practice can be improved and to consider how the Regional Consortia and Estyn can help identify and support action to improve practice in this area.
41. We concluded that the principle-based case for all children and young people to have access to learning on these issues was very strong and that there would be practical difficulties in operating withdrawals in this much more integrated curriculum. We also concluded that the focus on developmentally appropriate and culturally sensitive teaching and learning; and the emphasis on engagement with communities and recognising and responding to the background of learners in discussing these subjects, would provide appropriate safeguards for parents.
42. On balance, not including the right to withdraw best meets our overall policy objectives, which are:
- For all learners to be able to access a curriculum which enables them to progress in relation to the four purposes
 - For the education system to play its part in creating a more inclusive and tolerant society and maximise its contribution to the well-being goals in the Well-Being of Future Generations (Wales) Act 2015
 - To recognise the role of parents and families in guiding these children in relation to these issues
 - To recognise, and respond to, the interests of all groups and promote equality
 - To not increase the burden on schools or the workload of teachers

43. Whilst we feel that schools have a crucial role to play in supporting learners to develop tolerance, empathy and understanding of different people and communities, and of both their rights and the rights of others, this does not mean that this proposal will replace parents' vital role in educating their children. The learning provided to our children and young people through RSE and RE in maintained schools will be provided sensitively and inclusively to complement it. The guidance on these subject areas will make it clear that the information covered must be conveyed in an objective, critical and pluralistic manner.
44. We will be carrying out meaningful and sustained engagement with communities about the content of RSE in the new curriculum and the way in which it will be taught. Also, we are establishing a working group to finalise the RSE guidance for the new curriculum and will seek to ensure that representatives from a variety of communities across Wales, including faith communities, are included and will be able to shape the final guidance.

Change of name from RE

45. Following the proposed change in name of Sex and Relationships Education (referred to as sex education in current legislation), to Relationships and Sexuality Education, which was done to reflect modern practice and approach to this subject area, we feel consideration should be given to the name Religious Education.
46. RE provides opportunities for learners to explore the range of spiritual, philosophical, moral, social and cultural beliefs within their community, across Wales, and throughout the world. We feel the subject name should reflect what learners will be taught through RE. As such, we are proposing to change the name of Religious Education, so that it appropriately reflects teaching practice within the new curriculum, and allows for the exploration of all religious and philosophical beliefs, as well as other beliefs and world-views, including non-religious world views. Our preferred name is Religions and Worldviews.

Impact assessment

47. Alongside this consultation paper, we are publishing our draft impact assessment. As no formal data is currently kept on the use of the right to withdraw, we have been dependent on anecdotal evidence from education practitioners. Whilst this has been very helpful, we want to understand more about the practical impact of this proposal before a final decision is made.

Human Rights

48. We consider that the proposals to not include the right to withdraw in the new curriculum for the new mandatory elements of RE (or Religions and Worldviews as we are proposing it is renamed) and RSE is compatible with the rights protected by the Human Rights Act 1998.

49. The parental rights in the second sentence of Article 2 Protocol 1 will be appropriately respected if the RE and RSE provided does not involve indoctrination and is provided in an objective, critical and pluralistic manner. The rights of the learner in Article 9 will be appropriately respected by ensuring they do not miss out on vital curriculum content – content which is important not just in terms of making progress in relation to the four purposes but also in safeguarding them. Their parents and wider community are free to provide education on RE (or Religions and Worldviews as we are proposing it is renamed) and RSE as they see fit outside of school.

SECTION 1. WHAT ACTION IS THE WELSH GOVERNMENT CONSIDERING AND WHY?

1.1 Background

Ensuring access to Religious Education (RE) and Relationships and Sexuality Education (RSE)

As outlined in Education in Wales: Our National Mission, the Welsh Government is working to develop transformational curriculum and assessment arrangements in Wales to enable young people to have higher standards of literacy and numeracy, become more digitally and bilingually competent, and evolve to enterprising, creative and critical thinkers. The new arrangements have equity and excellence at their core and help to develop confident, capable and caring citizens. This is at the core of the contribution of our compulsory education to the well-being goals in the Well-being of Future Generations (Wales) Act 2015.

Successful Futures: Independent Review of Curriculum and Assessment Arrangements in Wales (2015) sets out practical and fundamental issues with the existing curriculum and assessment arrangements in Wales, including:

- levels of achievement not as high as they should be (as evidenced by PISA and Estyn);
- an Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development (OECD) review in 2014 which concluded the current assessment and evaluation arrangements are unsatisfactory in improving performance amongst a high proportion of Welsh young people;
- lack of continuity within education and during transition between stages;
- poor educational experience for young people at Key Stage 3; and
- a curriculum devised in 1988 does not reflect the world that young people are living in now and the implications of a changing world on what and how young people need to learn.

Consequently, there is a need to ensure that Wales has a broad and balanced curriculum which is fit for the 21st century, outlining what knowledge learners should have and what skills they should acquire. One of the core recommendations of Successful Futures is to place the four purposes at the heart of our education system so that children and young people develop as:

- ambitious, capable learners, ready to learn throughout their lives;
- enterprising, creative contributors, ready to play a full part in life and work
- ethical, informed citizens of Wales and the world; and
- healthy, confident individuals, ready to lead fulfilling lives as valued members of society.

While there will be other statutory requirements and statutory guidance to support schools in developing and realising the new curriculum, a purpose-led curriculum will offer considerably more freedom and agency to practitioners to offer learning which equips learners for the challenges and opportunities they face growing up and then living and working in the 21st century.

Within this purpose-led approach both Religious Education (RE) and Relationships and Sexuality Education (RSE) have a central role to play in realising the four purposes and achieving a broad and balanced education to the extent that we have proposed they must be separate compulsory requirements. With this in mind, we have been reviewing the Right to Withdraw element of the current curriculum which allows parents to withdraw their child from RE and sex education, which will be encompassed within RSE in future.

We have carefully considered the views expressed in the responses to the White Paper consultation on this issue, which showed that people have concerns about:

- Developmental appropriateness, and that children should not be exposed to issues that they are not ready for
- Role / primacy of family in providing guidance on these issues,
- The potential for there to be a lack of sensitivity to, or recognition of, different cultural or religious views
- The capacity and capability to provide learning in a nuanced and sensitive way

However, in our increasingly complicated and rapidly changing world, the children and young people of Wales have a need and a right to expect state education¹ to offer critical, pluralistic and developmentally appropriate learning which does not seek to indoctrinate about the issues covered in these subjects. This is important as part of the development of a more inclusive and tolerant society. High quality RSE and RE provision in supports children and young people to stay safe, to respect one another, and to build healthy relationships. These are important values we want all young people in Wales to develop to allow young people to be ethical, informed citizens of Wales and the world and healthy, confident individuals, ready to lead fulfilling lives as valued members of society.

On this basis we believe there is a strong principle-based case for all learners to be guaranteed access to RE and RSE. For learners to fully benefit from a broad and balanced curriculum, they must be able to access all parts of the curriculum, and we are therefore, proposing that the new curriculum should not include a right to withdraw.

Change of name for Religious Education

In line with our proposal to change the name of Sex and Relationships Education to Relationships and Sexuality Education² in the new curriculum in order to better reflect the current practice and approach to this subject area, we have been considering the name Religious Education.

RE provides opportunities for learners to explore a range of spiritual, philosophical, moral, social and cultural beliefs within their community, across Wales, and throughout the world. We feel the subject name should reflect the full extent of what learners will be taught through this subject area. As such, we are proposing to change the name so that it appropriately reflects teaching practice within the new curriculum, and demonstrates the breadth of the subject in allowing for the exploration of a range of religious and philosophical beliefs, as well as other beliefs and world-views, including non-religious world views. Our preferred name is Religions and Worldviews but we would welcome views and alternative suggestions.

1.2 Long term

The new curriculum and assessment arrangements are being developed to ensure they are fit for a rapidly changing world.

The learning provided in RE and RSE is important in supporting learners so that they can navigate an increasingly complex society.

The proposal to not include the right to withdraw in the new curriculum is an example of accepting some short-term challenge and pressure in order to support the long term goal of a more inclusive society.

1.3 Prevention

High quality RSE and RE provision from an early age supports children and young people to stay safe, to respect each other and to build healthy relationships. This will benefit their mental, physical and emotional well-being and therefore have important implications for their successful progression through adult life. The four purposes of the curriculum contribute to breaking multiple negative cycles by supporting children and young people to develop as: ambitious, capable learners; enterprising, creative contributors; ethical, informed citizens; and healthy confident individuals.

Mandatory RE and RSE and the proposal not to include the right to withdraw in the new curriculum directly contribute to prevention by ensuring learners receive learning about their rights and the rights of others. Access to high quality information and strategies for understanding pressures they may face will equip them better in facing those pressures: from recognising healthy and unhealthy relationships to understanding the perspectives of people with different beliefs and values to them. This will support the prevention of the negative outcomes that would arise as a result of negative relationships and behaviours

² The current name for this subject is “sex education” but guidance in 2010 used the title “Sex and Relationship Education in Schools”. We have consulted on draft guidance which uses the term “Relationships and Sexuality Education”.

It is questionable whether learners would be able to fully meet the four purposes of the curriculum especially being ethical, informed citizens; and healthy confident individuals if they do not receive RE and RSE.

1.4 Integration

The new curriculum is based on a much greater level of integration across subjects and creating the opportunity for reinforcement through different approach. The intention is that RE and RSE should be integrated within the curriculum and not including the right to withdraw makes this aim easier to achieve.

Not including the right to withdraw from RE and RSE in the new curriculum will contribute to each of the seven well-being goals outlined in the Well-being of Future Generations (Wales) Act 2015 shown below:

A prosperous Wales	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Learners not being withdrawn from RE and RSE will better enable all young people leaving school to have a full understanding of the importance of respect for all faiths, religions and groups and enable a future workforce to be tolerant and integrated enabling young people to be ready to play a full part in work and life'.
A resilient Wales	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Both RE and RSE contribute to social resilience, and RSE helps learners to recognise the dignity and respect due to the living world around them.
A healthier Wales	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Ensuring that all learners receive high quality RE & RSE will benefit their mental, physical and emotional well-being.
A more Equal Wales	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> The proposals will ensure that learners will receive information about different beliefs and attitudes, and learn to respect and treat others with dignity.
A Wales of cohesive communities	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> One of the four purposes of the new curriculum is to enable 'healthy, confident individuals, ready to lead fulfilling lives as valued members of society' and both RE and RSE contribute to this purpose by enabling all learners to gain insight into a broad range of cultures and philosophical perspectives.
A Wales of vibrant culture and thriving Welsh Language	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> In developing respect and understanding, ensuring access to RE and RSE will have a positive cultural impact.
A globally responsible Wales	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> One of the four purposes of the new curriculum is to enable learners to become ethical, informed citizens of Wales and the World'; ensuring access to RE & RSE will contribute to this purpose.

1.5 Collaboration

The policy to ensure access to RE and RSE will have an impact on parents, learners, practitioners (in different schools and settings), governing bodies, local authorities, regional education consortia and Estyn. More widely, they will also impact on third sector organisations, cultural institutions, further and higher education, and businesses.

Co-production has been key to the development of the curriculum with Pioneer Schools leading on developing the new curriculum which includes RE and RSE.

During development of these proposals we have:

- Discussed the potential implications of this proposal with a range of people with an interest.
- Undertaken a White Paper consultation which included questions about the Right to Withdraw around whether this should be retained and if so whether it should be retained in an amended form
- Consulted on draft RSE guidance

It is clear that RE and RSE give rise to particular sensitivities and, of the issues covered in the curriculum, they are the areas where the tension between the role of the state and the role of parents in educating and informing children and young people is most sensitive – and, arguably, most pressing.

In developing the proposed approach further it will be important to take opportunities for further collaboration in bringing in community representatives, experts and other groups to support schools in exploring the issues covered in more detail.

1.6 Involvement

The whole curriculum has been built on a co-construction approach. There has been extensive engagement on these policy areas (RE and RSE) but this policy proposal on the right to withdraw is particularly challenging because it evokes strong opinion and not everyone will agree with it. However that makes ongoing involvement even more important.

As part of this consultation, we will be convening a series of focus groups to explore these issues with children and young people, parents and practitioners.

We will be carrying out meaningful and sustained engagement with communities, particularly about the content of RSE in the new curriculum and the way in which it will be taught. In addition, we will be establishing a working group to finalise the RSE guidance and will seek to ensure that representatives from a variety of communities across Wales, including faith communities, are involved and able to shape the final guidance.

SECTION 2. WHAT WILL BE THE EFFECT ON SOCIAL WELL-BEING?

2.1 People and Communities

How (either positively or negatively), and to what extent (significant/moderate/minimal impact), will the proposal affect people and communities?

Ensuring access to RE and RSE

Two of the four purposes of the new curriculum enable 'healthy, confident individuals, ready to lead fulfilling lives as valued members of society' and 'ethical, informed citizens who are ready to be citizens of Wales and the world.'

The proposal to ensure access to the full curriculum will ensure that all learners in Wales develop understanding and appreciation of different world views, and establish a range of respectful, healthy relationships. It is envisaged, therefore, that overall this will have a positive impact on Welsh society. No formal data is currently kept on the use of the right to withdraw in the current curriculum, however, the anecdotal evidence we have received from education practitioners indicated that only a very small minority of learners are withdrawn. Therefore this proposal will only affect a very small number of people, although there are implications for individual groups and these are considered in the equality impact assessment at Annex B.

There is a possibility that, if the proposal is carried out, parents would prefer to withdraw their children entirely from maintained schooling to avoid them receiving education on the issues covered in RE and/or RSE. We do not have any concrete evidence on the likelihood of this happening but, if it does, this would have a negative impact on those children as they will not receive the benefits of mainstream schooling. If we decide to go ahead with the proposal, this will need to be monitored.

Change of name for Religious Education

We do not feel that there will be any impacts as a result of changing the name of this subject area, as any name change will merely reflect the existing breadth of the topics covered within it. We understand that people might have concerns that this will mean that learning about religions and religious tenets becoming a less important part of the subject area. However this is not the case.

2.2 Children's Rights

The development of the new curriculum has had regard to the United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child.

There are specific considerations in relation to the right to withdraw and a children's rights assessment is attached at Annex A.

2.3 Equality

An Equalities Impact Assessment is attached at Annex B.

2.4 Rural Proofing

How (either positively or negatively), and to what extent (significant/moderate /minimal impact), will the proposal impact on rural individuals and communities?

The curriculum is designed to apply to every learner in every classroom in Wales. There are no immediately obvious implications for rural communities or individuals living in rural communities.

2.5 Health

2.5a How (either positively or negatively), and to what extent (significant/moderate /minimal impact), will the proposal impact health determinants?

One of the four purposes of the curriculum is to support learners to become healthy and confident individuals. RSE supports learners to develop their mental and emotional well-being. Therefore the proposal should improve health determinants.

2.5b. Could there be a differential health impact on particular groups?

The proposals relate to learners of statutory school age. The policy proposal should reduce the likelihood of differential health impacts by ensuring that all learners have access to high quality learning on the topics covered in RSE in particular. There are potentially some differential impacts for some learners if they were withdrawn entirely from maintained schooling as a result of this policy proposal being carried out.

2.6 Privacy

A privacy impact assessment is not required for these proposals as they do not relate to the collection or use of personal information.

SECTION 3. WHAT WILL BE THE EFFECT ON CULTURAL WELL-BEING AND THE WELSH LANGUAGE?

3.1 Cultural Well-being

3.1a How can the proposal actively contribute to the goal to promote and protect culture and heritage and encourage people to participate in the arts sports and recreation? (for Welsh Language see section 3.2)

The proposal has no direct impact on culture apart from improving tolerance and the embracing of diversity across society.

3.1b Is it possible that the proposal might have a negative effect on the promotion and protection of culture and heritage, or the ability of people to participate in arts, sport and recreation? If so, what action can you take to avoid or reduce that effect (for example by providing alternative opportunities)?

We have not identified a negative effect.

3.2 Welsh Language

A Welsh Language Impact Assessment is attached at Annex C.

SECTION 4. WHAT WILL BE THE EFFECT ON ECONOMIC WELL-BEING?

4.1 Business, the general public and individuals

How (either positively or negatively), and to what extent (significant/moderate/minimal impact), will the proposal impact business and the public?

The policy would have no direct impact on businesses.

The impact would be on parents who would no longer have a right to withdraw their children from RE or RSE and on learners who could no longer be withdrawn and on their wider communities.

4.2 Public Sector including local government and other public bodies

How (either positively or negatively), and to what extent (significant/moderate/minimal impact), will the proposal impact the public sector?

The proposals set out will have a minor impact on the public sector in Wales, primarily in schools.

4.3 Third Sector

How (either positively or negatively), and to what extent (significant/moderate/minimal impact), will the proposal impact third sector organisations and what they do?

Third sector organisations interested in education, those representing the communities which may have particular views on or interest in the content of RE and RSE will be impacted. Third sector organisations who work directly with schools will also be similarly impacted.

4.4 Justice Impact

Based on legal advice it is unlikely there will be impacts on the Justice System. Therefore a Justice Impact Assessment has not been completed.

SECTION 5. WHAT WILL BE THE EFFECT ON ENVIRONMENTAL WELL-BEING?

5.1 Natural Resources

5.1a How will the proposal deliver one or more of the National Priorities in the Natural Resources Policy (NRP)?

The new arrangements will not have an impact on this area.

5.1b Does the proposal help tackle the following national challenges and opportunities for the sustainable management of natural resources?

N/a

5.2 Biodiversity

N/a

5.3 Climate Change

5.3a Decarbonisation

How (either positively or negatively), and to what extent (significant/moderate/minimal impact), will the proposal affect emissions in Wales?

N/a

5.3b Adaptation

How (either positively or negatively), and to what extent (significant/moderate/minimal impact), will the proposal affect ability to adapt to the effects of climate change?

N/a

5.4 Strategic Environmental Assessment (SEA)

The proposals will not have an impact on any of the key areas listed as part of the regulations (agriculture, forestry, fisheries, energy, industry, transport, waste management, water managements, tourism, town and country planning or land use). Consequently, an SEA is not required.

5.5 Habitats Regulations Assessment (HRA)

The proposals will not affect any of the listed sites under the 'Natura 2000 European protected site network.' As a result, a HRA is not required.

5.6 Environmental Impact Assessment (EIA)

The proposals will not have an impact on the listed areas. As a result, an EIA is not required.

SECTION 7. CONCLUSION

7.1 How have people most likely to be affected by the proposal been involved in developing it?

The curriculum design and development has been undertaken through a model of co-construction with representatives from the education system in Wales (Estyn, Regional Consortia, Qualifications Wales and practitioners). At the heart of this process is a national network of Pioneer Schools, who have engaged with their learners and their cluster and network schools to gather views throughout the process. In addition, an extensive programme of stakeholder engagement is underway.

The content of RE and RSE within the new curriculum is also being co-constructed. For RE, a new supporting framework is being developed by a group of practitioners, Pioneers, academics and representatives from Standing Advisory Councils on Religious Education and the National Advisory Panel for Religious Education. The approach we are taking to RSE is based on recommendations from an Expert Panel, comprised of academic specialists in RSE, service providers and teachers with RSE responsibilities.

We have also formally consulted on the proposals for RE and RSE in the new curriculum as part of the White Paper consultation (the consultation also included questions on the right to withdraw) and on draft RSE guidance.

7.2 What are the most significant impacts, positive and negative?

The most significant direct impacts would be on parents, because they would not be able to withdraw their children from RE or RSE.

It would also have a significant impact on learners who otherwise would be withdrawn. RSE and RE would become mandatory elements of the new curriculum. At present they do not have to attend such lessons if their parents withdraw them. That may be contrary to their wishes in some cases but it is reasonable to assume that in some cases the learner would be in agreement with their parent's decision. However, the proposal does mean that learners would fully benefit from a broad and balanced education by being able to access all parts of the curriculum.

7.3 In light of the impacts identified, how will the proposal:

- maximise contribution to our well-being objectives and the seven well-being goals; and/or,
- avoid, reduce or mitigate any negative impacts?

The four purposes, as the starting point for all teaching and learning and supported by legislation, contribute to the Welsh Government's well-being objectives by developing children and young people as: ambitious capable learners; enterprising, creative contributors; ethical, informed citizens; and healthy, confident individuals. Compulsory RE and RSE have a significant part to play in allowing learners to achieve these purposes, and maximise the new curriculum's contribution to the well-being goals.

7.4 How will the impact of the proposal be monitored and evaluated as it progresses and when it concludes?

We are publishing this impact assessment as part of a consultation asking for views on the implications of the proposal. We will carefully review all feedback received before a final decision is made.

FULL IMPACT ASSESSMENTS

A. CHILDREN'S RIGHTS IMPACT ASSESSMENT

1. Describe and explain the impact of the proposal on children and young people.

Ensuring access to RE and RSE

Two of the four purposes of the proposed new curriculum are that children and young people develop as:

- ethical, informed citizens of Wales and the World; and
- healthy, confident individuals ready to lead fulfilling lives as valid members of society.

It's important that children are educated in a way that contributes to developing ethical informed citizens who 'understand and exercise their human and democratic responsibilities and rights' and 'respect the needs and rights of others, as a member of a diverse society'.

The curriculum is being designed as a continuum for all learners from 3-16 and the proposal will affect this age group.

In a world where young people are able to access 'information' instantly online, it is important that accurate and comprehensive information is shared with young people in an age appropriate way supported by discussions with a professional.

The right to withdraw in the current curriculum rests solely with parents and learners are not able to determine whether they learn about the topics covered in RE and RSE or whether they wish to withdraw. By not including a right to withdraw in the new curriculum, all children and young people across the maintained education system in Wales would, for the first time, be able to have access to the full curriculum including RE and RSE.

Evidence and Consultation

As there is currently no requirement for data to be kept, formal data on the current right to withdraw and how it is used is limited. However, we have obtained anecdotal evidence from education practitioners that only a very small percentage of learners are withdrawn from these subjects, although the pattern across schools can be very different.

A national call for evidence was undertaken as part of the Independent Review of Curriculum and Assessment arrangements in Wales. This received over 700 responses, of which over 300 were from learners themselves. One of the areas that learners in particular, but not exclusively, wanted to see a greater focus on was general social competences (life skills and personal confidence, personal and social education (PSE)).

We carried out a White Paper consultation on our legislative proposals - Our National Mission: A Transformational Curriculum - which received nearly 2,000 responses and a consultation on draft RSE guidance which received 275 responses.

We have also explored the potential implications of this policy with practitioners.

2. Explain how the proposal is likely to impact on children's rights.

Pursuant to section 1 of the Rights of Children and Young Persons (Wales) Measure 2011, the Welsh Ministers must when exercising any of their functions have due regard to the requirements of Part I of the UNCRC. Accordingly, in developing this proposal consideration has been given to compatibility with the UNCRC.

RE and RSE within the new curriculum will encourage children and young people to respect their own rights and culture and those of others. They aim to equip children and young people with knowledge, skills, attitudes and values that will empower them to realise their health, well-being and dignity; develop respectful social and sexual relationships; consider how their choices affect their own well-being and that of others; and understand and ensure the protection of their rights throughout their lives. Therefore ensuring access to high quality, comprehensive information on these subject areas will positively contribute to the following articles in the UN Convention on the Rights of the Child:

- Article 13 – Children have the right to get and share information as long as the information is not damaging to them or others
- Article 28 -Children have a right to an education. Discipline in schools should respect children's human dignity. Primary education should be free. Wealthy countries should help poorer countries achieve this.
- Article 29 - Education should develop each child's personality and talents to the full. It should encourage children to respect their parents, and their own and other cultures.
- Article 33 – The Government should provide ways of protecting children from dangerous drugs

- Article 34 – The Government should protect children from sexual abuse
- Article 36 – Children should be protected from any activities that could harm their development

Providing for a right to withdraw in the new curriculum could have negative impacts on learners as – if their parents chose to exercise that right - they would miss out on core curriculum content, which is important for their development (and in the case of RSE for safeguarding them). Their parents and wider community will provide education on some of the same issues but the focus, message and comprehensiveness will potentially not be the same as provided in school (otherwise there would be no reason to withdraw them from school-based provision.)

The responses to the White Paper consultation and the consultation on the RSE guidance made it clear that some people have concerns that not including a right to withdraw in the new curriculum would have a negative impact on learners, particularly in relation to Article 13 (i.e. that children will be exposed to issues/concepts that they are not ready for and therefore will damage them) and Article 14 (“Children have the right to think and believe what they want and to practice their religion, as long as they are not stopping other people from enjoying their rights.”)

We have considered these concerns carefully. However, this proposal is not intended to replace parents’ vital role in educating their children and our guidance will make it clear that the learning provided to children and young people through RE and RSE must be provided sensitively and inclusively to complement it. Professional learning and resources (as part of a £24 million package to support implementation of the new curriculum) will be provided to support this.

We also recognise that there is an argument for retaining a right to withdraw but transferring to the learner at an appropriate point in their maturity. However, we have provisionally concluded that not having a right to withdraw is a better option.

There is a possibility that if the proposal is carried out, parents would prefer to withdraw their children entirely from maintained schooling to avoid them receiving education on the issues covered in RE and/or RSE. We do not have any concrete evidence on the likelihood of this happening but, if it does, this would have a potentially negative impact on those children as they will not receive the benefits of mainstream schooling. If we decide to go ahead with the proposal, this will need to be monitored.

B. EQUALITY IMPACT ASSESSMENT

1. Describe and explain the impact of the proposal on people with protected characteristics as described in the Equality Act 2010.

Ensuring access to RE and RSE

The new curriculum, including RE and RSE has been designed and developed to apply and be accessible to every learner in every classroom from ages 3 to 16.

In ensuring that learners receive RSE and RE, the proposal will enable them to explore how laws and policies contribute to equity and human rights regarding sex, gender, sexuality, relationships and beliefs. They will receive high quality, impartial teaching about different beliefs and respect for the rights of others.

There will be a need to work closely with all schools, in particular faith schools which are able to provide learning in line with the tenets of their religion (providing it is pluralistic), to ensure the learning offered in RSE and RE is pluralistic and non-discriminatory.

The proposals do not give rise to unlawful discrimination contrary to the Equality Act 2010.

Record of Impacts by protected characteristic:

Age (including children up to the age of 16)

The proposal that the new curriculum should not include a right to withdraw from RE and RSE would apply for learners in school or funded non-maintained settings from 3 to 16. These arrangements will equip learners with the skills and knowledge they need for later life, supporting them to develop in line with the four purposes and associated characteristics. Therefore, it is expected the arrangements will have a positive impact on learners. Due to the phased introduction from 2022, the new curriculum will be rolled out fully for learners currently in Year 4 and below.

We have been clear that the learning provided in RSE must be developmentally appropriate. This will require schools and individual teachers to make judgements about the matters that should be explored with learners of different ages. This will be explored in more detail in the RSE guidance and there will need to be associated professional learning and resources to support practitioners.

Learning, including progression, in RE is described in the Humanities Area of Learning and Experience and in an RE framework which will make the link between the Humanities Area of Learning and Experience and the Agreed (or denominational) Syllabus.

In both cases, this is about more than simply age but also an assessment of the development and maturity of the learner so that their engagement with these issues is done in a way that is appropriate for them. It will also need to recognise the cultural background of the child and acknowledge the different perspectives on issues in different communities. This is part of ensuring teaching is pluralistic.

As discussed in the CRIA (page 18 above) we consider that not having a right to withdraw is a better option than retaining it and transferring to the learner at an appropriate point.

Reasons for decision and mitigating actions

We will need to ensure that the RSE guidance is clear on the issue of developmentally appropriate RSE and that the RE framework is clear on the issue of progression.

Disability

The policy will require practitioners to adapt their provision of RE and RSE to support the needs and interests of their learners and communities, including disabled learners and those with Additional Learning Needs (ALN).

Reasons for decision and mitigating actions:

We do not have specific evidence of use of the right to withdraw by parents of disabled learners. However, that does not mean that there is not an issue. We do have evidence from the Sex and Relationships Education Expert Panel that the teaching of the equivalent of RSE in the current curriculum was: “inadequate for children and young people with disabilities. There is a lack of formal and informal SRE for children and young people with disabilities or opportunities to access information about when and how to seek advice and support.”

This indicates that even if the right to withdraw itself is not a significant issue for disabled learners or their parents (which we do not have the evidence to determine yet), there is a need to ensure schools and teachers are better equipped to provide learning which recognises the specific needs of disabled learners – and opportunities for those learners to access further support and learning. This is an issue which needs to be picked up in the Welsh Government's RSE guidance and for the professional learning and resources provided.

We will also need to engage with disabled learners, their families and representative organisations to ensure these issues are addressed.

We have not identified evidence of specific impacts in relation to RE but that does not mean that there are none. This will need to be explored further as proposals develop.

More generally in relation to the overall approach to the curriculum, the design principles for the new arrangements is that they are appropriate for every learner in every classroom which ensures that learners with Additional Learning Needs (ALN) have access to the curriculum. This criteria means the curriculum is developed to be inclusive, easily understood by all, encompassing an entitlement to high-quality education for every learner and taking account of their views in the context of the UNCRC, and those of parents, carers and wider society.

Special schools have been able to input the needs of their learners into the design through their representation on all AoLE groups, Curriculum and Assessment Group, Coherence Group, and Manageability Group.

The AoLEs have been designed with the input of Special Schools to ensure they are applicable to all learners. The ALN sub-group is developing guidance for ALN in mainstream schools to ensure inclusivity of the curriculum. In addition, a specific work stream has been set up to take account for 'Routes for Learning' during the curriculum the development process to ensure the curriculum is accessible for all. The ALN sub-group is supporting this by developing resources to support learners to progress from 'Routes for Learning' to Progression Step 1.

Gender Reassignment (the act of transitioning and Transgender people)

Proposals to make RSE compulsory for all learners should have a positive impact on these learners as it raises awareness about respectful relationships, positive behaviour and acceptance of diversity. It also aims to encourage schools to consider how they provide support and learning to LGBTQI+. Furthermore, it aims to engage learners with issues such as gender and inequality and seek to foster a whole school approach to inclusion and tolerance.

We have not identified specific issues in relation to RE but this will require further consideration as the policy is developed.

Reasons for decision and mitigating actions

The Sex and Relationships Expert Panel in their report to Welsh Government (2017) focused their recommendations to improve the provision of RSE in schools for all young people, no matter their gender or sexual orientation. RSE will form part of the curriculum for all learners up to 16, contributing to the four purposes, specifically: ethical, informed citizens who respect the needs and rights of others as a member of a diverse society; and healthy, confident individuals who form positive relationships based upon trust and mutual respect.

Research put forward in the Stonewall School Report Cymru (2017) shows LGBTQI+ identifying young people are still more likely to suffer poor mental health, self-harm and depression. The changes to RSE in the curriculum look to combat this by helping all learners feel emotionally and physically safe and secure so they are able to achieve their full potential.

The inclusion of 'age appropriate' provision of sex education in the curriculum acknowledges that, while age will still be a factor in making decisions around provision, schools will need to consider the physical and cognitive development of their learners, including taking into account the experiences of learners, when making decisions regarding planning RSE content. This supports the positive impacts on learners from this group, though there has been contention around these proposals and that could, if not handled carefully, have a negative impact on learners either in general or in the specific context of an individual school.

By not including a right to withdraw, all children and young people in mainstream education will have an inclusive Relationship and Sexuality Education across Wales.

Pregnancy and maternity

RSE may have a positive impact on the prevention of teenage pregnancies and, separately, STDs by providing all learners with more information about relationships and safe sex. It should also provide learners with factual information about their rights, including their rights as someone who is pregnant.

Reasons for decision and mitigating actions:

We have no specific evidence of impacts on learners who are pregnant.

Race (include different ethnic minorities, Gypsies and Travellers and Migrants, Asylum seekers and Refugees)

For RSE, a decision to not include a right to withdraw will have a negative impact on some parents, some learners and wider communities based on their race and religious identity or beliefs because parents would no longer be able to exercise the current choice they have about the extent to which the school educates their children about certain issues. There will be implications for different ethnic minorities as a consequence of their faith or belief. In addition, it will also have negative impacts for Gypsy and Travellers, where these matters are also very sensitive.

For both RE and RSE, if there is no right to withdraw, there are potential implications if a school fails to provide pluralistic education in these subject areas. While RE and RSE must be provided pluralistically there is some risk that they may in practice be delivered in a way which in some respects does not meet that requirement. That failure may be entirely inadvertent. If that happened, it could give rise to negative impacts for learners who would have to remain in class and attend the lessons. Work by Stonewall in relation to RSE provision, identified this as a particular issue in faith schools in the UK. However, we do not think that this concern is best addressed by having a right to withdraw, instead the issue should be addressed through guidance and the role of the consortia and Estyn.

A decision to include a right to withdraw in the new curriculum would have negative impacts for learners with these protected characteristics. This is because, if their parents chose to withdraw them from RSE and RE, they will miss out on core curriculum content – content which is important not just in terms of making progress in relation to the four purposes but also in safeguarding them (in the case of RSE). Their parents and wider community will provide education on some of the same issues but the focus, message and comprehensiveness will not be the same as provided in school (otherwise there would be no reason to withdraw them from school-based provision.)

There appear to be further potential negative impacts of including a right to withdraw for some groups with protected characteristics, in particular in relation to gender (and particular issues for girls and young women from some Black and Minority Ethnic communities or as a result of their faith or beliefs). Being withdrawn from RSE will mean that some girls and young women will miss out on learning about their rights and the opportunity to explore culturally sensitive issues such as forced marriage and female genital mutilation. Similarly, if boys and young men are withdrawn they also miss the opportunity to learn about these issues in a way which fully reflects the law in the UK. This is a safeguarding concern.

Reasons for decision and mitigating actions:

The proposals set out to not include the right to withdraw in the curriculum is likely to have a negative impact on certain communities across Wales. However with the impact of the internet and information – and misinformation - being freely available it is important that these subjects are taught to all pupils in schools in a consistent and age appropriate manner.

We will engage affected communities very closely to understand the implication for them and, if we go ahead with the proposal, to inform the guidance, professional learning and resources necessary to enable practitioners to teach the subject in a sensitive and developmentally appropriate way.

As discussed above, we have concluded that a right to withdraw is not the appropriate safeguard to the risk of a failure to provide teaching and learning which is pluralistic. Instead the inappropriate practice should be addressed. We consider that the risk of that happening can be appropriately mitigated by the publication of clear statutory guidance on that point by the Welsh Ministers.

Religion, belief and non-belief

For RE, a decision to not to include a right to withdraw in the new curriculum will have a negative impact on some religious groups. Based on the evidence we have been able to gather, it will be a particular issue for Jehovah's Witnesses and humanists. We have not identified any other groups significantly affected by a decision to not include the right to withdraw for RE but we did receive some evidence that there could be issues where a school is failing to teach RE in a pluralistic way. This issue is discussed above.

For RSE, a decision to not include the right to withdraw will have a negative impact on some parents, some learners and wider communities based on their religious identity or beliefs because parents would no longer be able to exercise the current choice they have about the extent to which they, rather than school, educates their children about certain issues. Based on the evidence we have been able to gather, it will be a particular issue for some Muslims and for some Christians.

The same issues in relation to a teacher failing to provide pluralistic learning noted above in relation to RE also apply to RSE.

However, a decision to include a right to withdraw in the new curriculum would have negative impacts for learners with these protected characteristics. This is because, if their parents chose to withdraw them from RSE and/or RE, they will miss out on core curriculum content – content which is important not just in terms of making progress in relation to the four purposes but also in safeguarding them (in the case of RSE). Their parents and wider community will provide education on some of the same issues but the focus, message and comprehensiveness will potentially not be the same as provided in school (otherwise there would be no reason to withdraw them from school-based provision.)

It is also important to note there are some differential impacts among religious groups in relation to both RE and RSE. In particular, some religious groups – those of Catholic faith (and also the Church in Wales) – may have the option to send their children to a maintained school which is also a faith school. These schools³ are permitted to teach RSE (and RE) according to the tenets of their faith, although in doing so they must ensure their teaching is pluralistic. This means they can state that the Church – and the school – held a particular view on contraception or same sex marriage for example, but would need to highlight that others held different views. There is no current equivalent option for parents of other faiths to send their child to a school where RSE (or RE) will be taught in a way which reflects the tenets of their faith, while being pluralistic, within the maintained school system in Wales⁴.

There appears to be further potential negative impacts of the continuation of the right to withdraw for some groups with protected characteristics, in particular in relation to gender (and particular issues for girls and young women as a result of their faith or beliefs). Being withdrawn from RSE will mean that some girls and young women will miss out on learning

³ In practice almost all faith schools in Wales will be voluntary aided.

⁴ Such schools could be established following a school organisation proposal about their rights and the opportunity to explore culturally sensitive issues such as force marriage and female genital mutilation. Similarly, if boys and young men are withdrawn they also miss the opportunity to learn about these issues in a way which fully reflects the law in the UK. This is a safeguarding concern.

The right to withdraw has been described to officials as functioning as a safety valve in the system and not including it in the new curriculum could have a detrimental effect on schools' relationship with those communities, and cause community tensions. In addition, not including a right to withdraw in the new curriculum could lead some parents to remove their children from mainstream school and educate them at home or in other settings, many of which might be unregulated.

Reasons for decision and mitigating actions:

Based on the evidence we have, this is one of the areas where the decision on whether to retain the right to withdraw will have the most significant impacts. This emphasises the need to engage affected communities very closely to understand the implication for them and to inform the guidance, professional learning and resources necessary to enable practitioners to teach the subject in a sensitive and developmentally appropriate way. Unfortunately, to date, officials have been unable to discuss the position with the Jehovah's Witness community.

In circumstances where the issue is a failure to provide teaching and learning which is pluralistic or where an individual practitioner does not approach the issue pluralistically, we have concluded a right to withdraw is not the appropriate safeguard. Instead the inappropriate practice should be addressed. This is discussed above

Sex / Gender

RSE as a compulsory part of the curriculum will have positive impacts on gender by raising awareness and understanding amongst learners of respectful relationships, positive behaviour and diversity.

There appears to be potential negative impacts of including a right to withdraw for RSE in particular, for some groups with protected characteristics, in particular in relation to gender (and particular issues for girls and young women from some Black and Minority Ethnic communities or as a result of their faith or beliefs which are noted above). Being withdrawn from RSE will mean that some girls and young women will miss out on learning about their rights, appropriate, safe relationships and issues like violence and against women. Similarly, if boys and young men are withdrawn they also miss the opportunity to learn about these issues in a way which fully reflects the law in the UK. This is a safeguarding concern.

There are potentially some differential impacts for some learners if they were withdrawn entirely from maintained schooling as a result of the right to withdraw being not included in the new curriculum. We do not have evidence about the likelihood, scale or the gender split but the engagement we have had with schools suggests it is possible in a minority of cases where the right to withdraw is exercised. This will need further exploration but clearly has the scope to exacerbate disadvantage based on gender.

Reasons for decision and mitigating actions

Not including a right to withdraw in the new curriculum will ensure all learners have access to high quality RSE in schools across Wales.

Based on the evidence we have, this is one of the areas where there are impacts whether a right to withdraw is included or not included. This emphasises the need to engage affected communities, and women and girls in those communities, very closely to understand the implications for them and to inform the guidance, professional learning and resources necessary to enable practitioners to teach the subject in a sensitive and developmentally appropriate way.

Sexual orientation (Lesbian, Gay and Bisexual)

The existence of a right to withdraw does not have a direct impact on LGBTQI+ learners. It is available to all and its existence does not prevent other learners from receiving either RE or RSE. However, there are indirect impacts of the continuation of the right to withdraw. It is apparent from the responses to the White Paper and conversations with the Muslim Council for Wales, for example, that certain topics are of particular concern. These topics generally relate to sexual orientation, gender identity and same sex relationships. A continuing position where learners are prevented from receiving consistent, factual and developmentally appropriate education in relation to these issues, has the potential to create an indirect negative impact on people with protected characteristics as a result of their gender, gender identity or sexual orientation. It has the potential to allow misinformation, bias or outright discrimination to persist in the wider school environment as a result of a lack of information (or inappropriate alternative learning being provided outside school.) It also has a negative impact on the development of a more inclusive and tolerant wider society. It also, arguably, fails to recognise that the rights of LGBTQI+ people to be treated with equality are protected in law and there should be no issue with learning which reflects that.

RSE and the Health and Well-being AoLE, may reduce homophobic, biphobic and transphobic (HBT) bullying and subsequently increase in well-being for LGBTQI+ learners. It will also help to challenge gender and sexual stereotypes and increase learners' understanding of safe, healthy and positive relationships.

For both RE and RSE, if there is no right to withdraw, there are potential implications if a school does not provide that education in a pluralistic way. This is discussed above

Reasons for decision and mitigating actions

The Sex and Relationships Expert Panel recommended the wider scope for Relationships and Sexuality in order to have the positive impact highlighted above. This is supported by the proposed statutory status RSE in the curriculum for all learners up to 16.

Not including a right to withdraw in the new curriculum would mean all young people in Wales will be able to be part of these important lessons.

In circumstances where the issue is a failure to provide teaching and learning which is pluralistic or where an individual practitioner does not approach the issue pluralistically, we have concluded a right to withdraw is not the appropriate safeguard. Instead the inappropriate practice should be addressed. This is discussed above

Marriage and civil partnership

RSE and the Health and Well-being AoLE will help challenge gender and sexual stereotypes and increase children and young peoples' understanding of safe, healthy and positive relationships.

Reasons for decision and mitigating actions

The four purposes, as the starting point for all teaching and learning, reflect the need for learners to respect a diverse society: Ethical, informed citizens who respect the needs and rights of others, as a member of a diverse society.

The statutory status of RSE in the curriculum and the parity across the six AoLEs (including Health and Well-being) will ensure the quality of the learning experience in this area and raise the profile of the topics of marriage, civil partnership and healthy relationships.

There is currently statutory recognition of the right for schools of a religious character to provide RSE which is appropriate to the religious denomination of the school. There are no plans to change the ability for schools with a religious character to provide RSE that is consistent with their ethos. However, their provision of RSE must be pluralistic.

Not including a right to withdraw in the new curriculum would mean all young people in Wales will be able to be part of these important lessons.

Human Rights and UN Conventions

Human Rights	What are the positive or negative impacts of the proposal?	Reasons for your decision (including evidence)	How will you mitigate negative Impacts?
Article 2, Protocol 1 – The right to an education. Article 9 – right to freedom of thought, conscience and religion Article 14 – prohibition of discrimination	The proposals actively support a child or young person’s right to an education including high quality and comprehensive information about the issues covered in RSE and RE.	By not including a right to withdraw in the new curriculum, all learners will now be able to participate in this important part of the curriculum. The guidance on these subject areas will make it clear that the information covered must be conveyed in an objective, critical and pluralistic manner	There will be a need to work closely with all schools, in particular faith schools which are able to provide learning in line with the tenets of their religion (providing it is pluralistic), to ensure the learning offered in RSE and RE is pluralistic and non-discriminatory.

We have considered whether the proposals for RE and RSE are compatible with the rights protected by the Human Rights Act 1998 (“the Convention Rights”). The relevant Convention rights are Article 2 Protocol 1 (“A2P1”) (taking into account the UK reservation), Article 9 (“A9”) and Article 14 (“A14”).

A2P1:

In terms of A2P1 (Right to education) the second sentence of that Article provides “No person shall be denied the right to education. In the exercise of any functions which it assumes in relation to education and to teaching, the State shall respect the right of parents to ensure such education and teaching in conformity with their own religious and philosophical convictions”. The European Court of Human Rights (“the ECtHR”) has conventionally approached cases involving religion in schools by focusing on A2P1, holding that it, rather than A9, is the governing Article in the area of education and teaching.

Whilst that second sentence of A2P1 is phrased as an absolute right that is not how the courts have interpreted it. Instead the courts have found that the parental rights in the second sentence of A2P1 will be appropriately respected if the religious education and RSE provided does not involve indoctrination and complies with the Pluralistic requirement.

The ECtHR has held that the setting and planning of school curricula is a matter primarily for the state, and that A2P1 does not prevent the state from imparting through teaching knowledge of a directly religious or philosophical kind; in particular it does not enable parents to object to the inclusion of such teaching in the school curriculum. However, the ECtHR has also held that A2P1 is aimed at safeguarding pluralism in education and that the state must take care to ensure that information or knowledge included in the curriculum is conveyed in an objective, critical and pluralistic manner; in particular, the state is not permitted to pursue an aim of indoctrination that might be considered as not respecting parents’ religious beliefs and philosophical convictions.

The European Commission on Human Rights has held that A2P1 governs complaints about the organisation of instruction in religious knowledge and that, in the context of religious education at school, A9 affords protection against religious indoctrination.

There is clearly a tension between the rights of the child to receive an education as expressed in the first sentence of A2P1, and the rights of the parent as expressed in the second sentence of A2P1 to have their child educated in accordance with their religious and philosophical convictions. The Welsh Government considers that in providing mandatory RE and RSE this ensures that learners receive a comprehensive education that will fit them for a modern and complex society where these issues permeate all walks of life. The Welsh Government further considers that providing legislation and statutory guidance that enables such education to be provided pluralistically appropriately respects the parental right in the second sentence of A2P1.

A9:

A9 protects the right to freedom of thought, conscience and religion of individuals including children. The ECtHR has held that teaching which only provides information about religion, and which does not amount to indoctrination, does not constitute an interference with A9 rights. It follows that if the legislation is capable of being implemented in a way that ensures that religious education is delivered in a way that does not amount to indoctrination, then it is highly unlikely that the legislation would give rise to an interference with A9 rights, and therefore no breach of A9 could arise. The Welsh Government considers that the proposals are capable of being implemented in that way and as such there is no incompatibility with A9.

A14 (when read with another substantive Article):

The question of whether there is a breach of A14 when read together with another substantive article such as A9 is often approached by reference to four questions: (a) do the facts fall within the ambit of one or more of the substantive Convention rights, (b) is there a difference in treatment in respect of that right between the complainant and others put forward for comparison, (c) are those others in an analogous situation, and (d) is the difference in treatment objectively justifiable? The first question arises because A14 is not free-standing and, in order for there to be a breach of A14, the discrimination complained of must fall within the ambit of another substantive article of the Convention. The Welsh Government does not consider the proposals are incompatible with a substantive article and therefore does not consider that there is any incompatibility with A14.

Not including a Right to Withdraw and the pluralism requirement:

The Welsh Government considers the proposals for RE and RSE are compliant with the Convention Rights and meet the pluralism requirement. The Welsh Government considers that meeting the pluralism requirement in relation to RE or RSE is sufficient to be compatible with A2P1. The Welsh Government does not consider it necessary, for Convention compliance purposes, for there to be an opportunity for the learner to be exempted from RE or RSE.

In terms of RE the Welsh Government considers that the proposals will satisfy the pluralistic requirement because:

- There will be a requirement that curriculum will be broad and balanced and that it achieves the 4 purposes;

- The name of RE will be changed to Religions and World views. This makes clear that RE should encompass a range of religious and non-religious beliefs and world views.
- Whilst faith schools will still be able to teach according to their denomination they will still be required to teach a broad and balanced curriculum that achieves the 4 purposes and will be subject to the duty to teach RE in a pluralistic manner (in compliance with the ECtHR case law).

The same is true for RSE. Further the proposals are that the curriculum for RSE will not be prescriptive and the fine detail of what will be taught will be left to the discretion of the school having taken account of statutory guidance. The aim of such guidance would be to provide neutral and accurate information to enable schools and its pupils to navigate such issues and the huge amount of inaccurate information otherwise available.

In summary, in relation to Convention rights, the Welsh Government concludes that:

- a) whilst the second sentence of A2P1 is phrased as an absolute right that is not how the courts have interpreted it;
- b) the parental rights in the second sentence of A2P1 will be appropriately respected if the religious education and RSE provided does not involve indoctrination and complies with the pluralistic requirement;
- d) it is compatible with A2P1 and A9 to remove the right to withdraw from RE and RSE. Accordingly the Welsh Government is of the view the proposals are compatible with A2P1, A9 and A14 when read together A2P1 or A9;

2. Does the proposal demonstrate a clear link with the Welsh Government's strategy for the Welsh language? – *Cymraeg 2050 A million Welsh speakers and the related Work Programme for 2017-2021?

The only link between the policy and the Welsh Government's strategy for the Welsh language is that it will apply equally to Welsh-medium and bilingual settings within the maintained education system as to English-medium ones.

3. Describe and explain the impact of the proposal on the Welsh language, and explain how you will address these impacts in order to improve outcomes for the Welsh language:

No impact on the Welsh language has been identified. There is a separate issue of ensuring there are appropriate resources and professional learning in relation to RE and RSE in the Welsh Language. However, this is being addressed through the wider development work on the new curriculum and will not be directly impacted by the policy and final decision on the right to withdraw.

ENSURING ACCESS TO THE FULL CURRICULUM FOR ALL LEARNERS – SUMMARY OF PROPOSALS

- There is going to be a new curriculum in Wales. It is being designed by teachers in Wales.
- Each part of the new curriculum is important and all the parts are needed so that learners leave school with a broad and balanced education.
- In the current curriculum, parents can prevent their child from going to Religious Education (RE) and sex education lessons¹.
- In the new curriculum, sex education will be replaced by Relationships and Sexuality Education (RSE).
- RSE and RE will be compulsory for all children aged 3-16
- We think parents should not be able to prevent their children going to these lessons in future.
- This is because RE and RSE are very important in keeping children safe and helping them understand the world around them.
- We understand that people may have concerns.
- In these lessons information must be suitable for the child's age and development and their background.
- We are asking for views on what it would mean for parents, learners and schools if all learners had to go to RE and RSE lessons in the new curriculum
- We are also asking for views on whether the age range RE and RSE should be extended to 3-16.
- We are also asking for views on whether Religious Education is still the best name for this subject area.
- You can find out more about our proposals and send your views to the Government by completing this form

This is a summary of our proposals – for the full details, please see the consultation document on the Welsh Government's website

				Nearly all pupils behave consistently well in lessons and around the school. They are kind and caring towards each other and show strong levels of co-operation. They are considerate when listening to the views of others and share their own thoughts and ideas readily. They treat adults and visitors with respect and courtesy and are very willing to discuss their work and successes with visitors confidently. Most pupils take their responsibilities seriously and embrace the leadership opportunities that they receive. For example, members of different pupil councils represent their peers maturely and keep other pupils well informed. The 'Deri Detectives' and eco council are influential in developing aspects of the school's provision, such as the 'Snack Shack'. Pupils work on the local area entitled 'Deri Ni' earned them recognition in the Welsh schools heritage awards in 2016. They researched the schools, places of worship, the railway, the pits and the Darren disaster. Along these trails there are 'i beacons', which visitors can access via their smart

				phone. This gives them descriptions of the various areas. These were researched by the pupils of Deri school and provide an interesting insight as to how Deri was in the last century when coal was king. The school engages with parents and the local community very well. Parents appreciate regular opportunities to celebrate their children's learning, for example through events such as 'Come Dine with Me' and 'Create-off' activities. There are strong links with the local library, which supports the school with pupil workshops to develop pupils' research skills and to help them to learn more about local history. The school has active pupil groups that contribute to decision-making within the school, for example, 'Deri Detectives' who monitor healthy eating and keep the school premises tidy. The eco committee encourages pupils to create an environmentally friendly space through recycling, saving energy and their litter patrol initiative. They also raise awareness of global issues, such as the human impact on endangered species, and they use the sale of their home-grown produce to raise funds for chosen charitable causes. Pupils have a good awareness of helping others, with older pupils keen to ensure decision-making helps younger pupils, for example through the purchase of additional recreational play equipment. Partnerships with the local community and industry are strong. The effective links with senior citizens from the nearby sheltered housing complex has produced a series of e books based on their recollections. Local industry

				Relationships between staff and pupils are positive and many pupils feel staff are caring and approachable. Many pupils communicate their ideas articulately in extended pieces of writing, for example when discussing themes such as the existence of god in their ethics lessons. In many subjects, pupils develop their creativity well, such as when writing an imaginative story exploring how they would feel if they were shipwrecked and isolated on an island or seeking solutions to solve social and environmental problems in the slums of Mumbai. Through various aspects of the curriculum, most pupils are developing well as informed citizens, for example, when considering the effects of climate change and global warming. Most pupils work well in pairs and in groups. For example, in small groups they consider thoughtfully the implications of being pressurised to smoke, how to withstand peer pressure and how to persuade others to stop smoking. They respond positively to others' opinions

This has increased pupils' participation and engagement in learning and has had a notably positive impact on their emotional wellbeing. Nearly all pupils feel safe in school and know that staff are always prepared to listen and respond to their concerns or ideas. These pupils have a well-developed awareness of the United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child and have produced a version of these articles with symbols for children and young people with special educational needs for use across Wales. As a result, the school council contributed to the launch of the document with the Children's Commissioner for Wales. This awareness of their rights helps pupils to appreciate that their views are valued and respected. Pupil voice groups play an active part in the school and pupils value greatly their role as a part of the school's decision-making processes. For example, the school council participates in staff recruitment by suggesting highly-appropriate interview questions and sharing its views clearly on the suitability of candidates. Pupils of all ages and abilities express their views through a broad range of strategies, including the use of photographs and eye-directed technology. These beneficial strategies enable them to identify what they think is good about their school and what they believe would improve it further. The school offers worthwhile provision for pupils to develop their understanding of Welsh culture and heritage, for example through beneficial visits to Big Pit and the National Museum, and projects on Penallta colliery.

REPORT TO: CAERPHILLY STANDING ADVISORY COUNCIL ON RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

DATE: 23RD OCTOBER 2019

SUBJECT: LEARNING NETWORK SCHOOLS FOR RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

A PURPOSE

To note the dates and events for the Learning Network Schools (LNS) RE meetings for 2019-2020.

B BACKGROUND

The EAS has invested in building the capacity of schools and educational settings within the region over the last four years to enable more collaborative ways of working. This approach is enabling teachers and leaders to learn from each other, to try out new approaches and to engage with educational research as the backdrop for improvement. Across the region there are several well-established networks of professional practice; these will continue to be encouraged and the practice shared.

The approach has recently been refined through investment in a cluster model approach. This will enable schools to build capacity and increase collective ownership for the development of effective teaching, learning and leadership. The cluster model will become the main driver to ensure the realisation of the new curriculum and the delivery of professional learning, and to support the national changes in accountability and self-evaluation. The diagram below demonstrates how the model will operate across the region.

The two EAS lead schools for LNS RE for 2019-2020 are Ysgol Gwynllyw (Torfaen) and Bassaleg Comprehensive School (Newport). Schools are selected through an application and interview process. The leads will provide Professional Learning and support to secondary schools throughout the region.

CAERPHELLY COUNTY BOROUGH COUNCIL

REPORT TO: CAERPHELLY STANDING ADVISORY COUNCIL ON RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

DATE: 23RD OCTOBER 2019

SUBJECT: HOLOCAUST MEMORIAL DAY 2020

A PURPOSE

To note the date and theme of Holocaust Memorial Day (HMD) 2020.

B BACKGROUND

Holocaust Memorial Day (HMD) takes place on 27 January each year and is a time to remember the millions of people murdered during the Holocaust, under Nazi Persecution and in the genocides, which followed in Cambodia, Rwanda, Bosnia and Darfur.

Holocaust Memorial Day is a time to learn the lessons of the past and recognise that genocide does not just take place on its own - it's a steady process which can begin if discrimination, racism and hatred are not checked and prevented.

The aims of HMD is a demonstration of how the lessons of the past can inform our lives today and ensure that everyone works together to create a safer, better future. Each year thousands of activities take place for HMD, bringing people from all backgrounds together to learn lessons from the past in creative, reflective and inspiring ways. From schools to libraries, workplaces to local authorities, HMD activities offer a real opportunity to honour the experiences of people affected by the Holocaust and genocide, and challenge ourselves to work for a safer, better future.

The Holocaust Memorial Day Trust produces materials specific to the theme of Holocaust Memorial Day. The theme for 2020 is "Stand Together" and explores how genocidal regimes throughout history have deliberately fractured societies by marginalising certain groups, and how these tactics can be challenged by individuals standing together with their neighbours and speaking out against oppression.

HMD 2020 marks the 75th anniversary of the liberation of Auschwitz, which is a significant milestone and is made particularly poignant by the dwindling number of survivors who are able to share their testimony. It also marks the 25th anniversary of the Genocide in Bosnia.

Further information about the theme and free educational resources containing material suitable for primary to post-16 students is available online at <http://hmd.org.uk/content/for-educators>. Resources include lesson plans, film clips, case studies, collective worship/ assembly material and worksheets. Holocaust Education Trust also offers resources and information on the Holocaust theme and is available online at www.het.org.uk.

C RECOMMENDATIONS

1. For SACRE to receive and consider the date and theme of Holocaust Memorial Day 2020.
2. To consider SACRE involvement in local HMD commemorations.

Cofnodion y cyfarfod

1. Cyflwyniad a chroeso

Cyn y cyfarfod, bu'r aelodau'n mwynhau cyflwyniadau gan ddisgyblion a staff Ysgol Glan Gele. Rhoddodd y Pennaeth, Julia Buckley Jones, gyflwyniad ar y cwricwlwm newydd. Rhannodd y disgyblion eu profiadau o Addysg Grefyddol ac Addoli ar y Cyd yn eu hysgol. Fe ddywedon nhw fod yr ysgol yn eiddgar i roi cynnig ar y cwricwlwm newydd i Gymru. Yna canodd y disgyblion ddwy gân.

Croesawyd pawb i Swyddfeydd y Cyngor ym Modlondeb gan Dafydd Owen, y Cyfarwyddwr Addysg Dros Dro.

Croesawyd pawb i Gonwy gan Is Gadeirydd CYSAG Conwy, Abdul Khan a chyfeiriodd ef at y gymysgedd o gobl sy'n rhan o'u CYSAG. Pwysleisiodd pa mor bwysig yw bod pawb yn parchu safbwyntiau a chredoau ei gilydd. Mynegodd ei bryderon am y diffyg swyddogion addysg sy'n arbenigo mewn AG. Mynegodd ei ddiolch i Phil Lord a arferai roi cefnogaeth i GYSAG Conwy ond a symudwyd o'r swydd hon.

2. Adfyfyrio tawel

Soniodd EE am grŵp o ddarpar athrawon y bu'n eu hannerch yn ddiweddar. Cyfeiriodd at y dywediad 'dysgu yw cyffwrdd â bywyd am byth'.

Myfyriodd am ddywediadau eraill hefyd, megis 'anelwch am y lleuad a hyd yn oed os ydych yn methu, fe gyrhaeddwch chi'r sêr'; a 'mae'r athro cyffredin yn dweud, mae'r athro da yn esbonio, mae'r athrawon gorau yn dangos, ac mae'r athro mawr yn ysbrydoli'.

Gwahoddodd yr aelodau i ystyried nad ydym byth yn gwybod pa effaith mae ein geiriau a'n gweithredoedd yn eu cael ar eraill, ac y dylem gofio hyn bob amser.

3. Ymddiheuriadau

Derbyniwyd ymddiheuriadau gan

Kathy Riddick (Blaenau Gwent), Alison Lewis (Abertawe), Mathew Maidment (RCT), Jennifer Harding-Richards (Abertawe), Andrew Jones (Sir Fynwy), Michelle Gosney (Estyn) Tania ap Sion (Wrecsam), Huw George (Sir Benfro),

4. Cyflwyniad PYCAG: Sally Holland, Comisiynydd Plant Cymru

'Y Ffordd Gywir: Addysg yng Nghymru o Safbwynt Hawliau Plant.'

Pwysleisiodd Sally'r ffaith ei bod hi'n annibynnol ac nad yw'n gweithio i un sefydliad arbennig.

Atgoffodd yr aelodau fod gan blant bedwar deg dau o hawliau 'waeth beth'. Mae gan blant yr hawl i addysg sy'n caniatáu iddynt gyrraedd eu potensial. Pan maent yn cael dewis o 'gardiau hawliau', mae plant yn aml yn dewis y cerdyn 'yr hawl i gael fy nghrefydd fy hun'.

Ymateb ei swyddfa i'r ymgynghoriad ar y cwricwlwm newydd oedd eu bod yn teimlo y dylai fod mwy o bwyslais ar gydraddoldeb profiadau ar draws Cymru ac y dylai pob plentyn gael cyfle i ddysgu am bobl cred ledled Cymru ac nid y rhai yn eu hardal yn unig. Cyfeiriodd Sally at ddeunydd yr oeddent wedi'i gynhyrchu am Islamoffobia a'r adborth gan rai ysgolion a ddywedodd na fyddent yn defnyddio'r adnoddau hyn gan nad oedd ganddynt unrhyw Fwslimiaid yn eu hysgol!

Roedd hi'n cytuno â rhoi hawl i dynnu'n ôl o AG yn y chweched dosbarth ond yn teimlo y dylai disgyblion gael y dewis i dderbyn AG os ydynt yn dymuno hynny.

Roedd hi'n cefnogi cael gwared ar yr hawl i rieni dynnu eu plant yn ôl o AG gan ei bod yn teimlo ei fod yn rhan o hawl plentyn i addysg lawn sy'n cynnwys AG ac addysg am berthnasoedd a rhyw.

Mae angen i bob plentyn ddysgu am eu hawliau dynol a gwybod fod hawl ganddynt i'w cael nhw gan wybod hefyd y dylent gefnogi hawliau pobl eraill. Dylent ddod yn ddinasyddion sy'n gweithredu dros hawliau dynol.

Mae pum egwyddor graidd i gefnogi gweithredu'r pedwar deg dau hawl:

1. Gwreiddio'r CCUHP ym mhopeth y mae ysgolion yn ei wneud – gan sicrhau fod y 42 hawl yn cael eu hadlewyrchu drwy fywyd yr ysgol
2. Cydraddoldb a pheidio â gwahaniaethu - edrych ar beth mae'r plant yn ei ddweud am eu profiadau o deimlo'u bod yn cael eu cynnwys
3. Grymuso plant - mae'n rhaid i blant wybod am eu hawliau er mwyn gallu eu harfer. (Mae clip defnyddiol ar wefan Sally o ysgol yn Abertawe a oedd wedi edrych yn arbennig ar hawl 19 - yr hawl i fod yn ddiogel. Siaradodd y plant â'r athrawon am rai gweithgareddau y tu allan i'r ysgol yr oeddent yn eu mynychu lle nad oedd y plant yn teimlo'n ddiogel. Aethant â'r pryder hwn at y Pennaeth, a wrandawodd a gweithredodd lle nad oedd y rhieni wedi gwneud.
4. Cyfranogiad – diwylliant o gyfranogi – myfyrwyr sy'n teimlo fod ganddynt berchnogaeth dros werthoedd, moeseg, cyfeiriad eu hysgol ochr yn ochr â rhieni ac athrawon. Mae'n werth ystyried pa mor effeithiol yw cynghorau ysgol mewn ysgolion.
5. Atebolrwydd – mae Sally wedi bod yn gofyn i Lywodraeth Cymru ers pedair blynedd i gynnwys plant yn y broses ymgynghori ar y cwricwlwm ac roedd hi'n falch o ddweud fod hyn newydd ddigwydd o'r diwedd yr wythnos honno – er ei bod yn hwyr iawn yn y broses.

Mae swyddfa Sally yn gofyn i hawliau plant fod yn amlwg o fewn y cwricwlwm newydd. Mae'n teimlo fod hyn yn amlwg iawn yn barod ym Maes Dysgu a Phrofiad y Dyniaethau ac i raddau hefyd ym MDaPh Iechyd a Lles.

Byddai hi'n dymuno gwneud AG ac Addysg Rhyw a Pherthnasoedd yn orfodol gan fod yr addysg yma yn rhan o hawliau plant.

Mynegodd aelod o Ynys Môn bryder am y diffyg safon addysg i'r rheiny sy'n cael eu haddysgu gartref gan nad yw hyn yn ei le ar hyn o bryd.

Roedd Sally'n cydnabod fod cynnydd gwirioneddol yn nifer y disgyblion sy'n cael ysgol gartref ac yn cydnabod fod amryw o resymau dros hyn. Mae'r Llywodraeth wedi derbyn ei 'thri phrawf' - gwybod ymhle mae pob plentyn, fod pob hawl yn cael eu derbyn yn cynnwys addysg addas, fod pob plentyn yn cael eu gweld ac yn cael ymweliad gan swyddogion fel bod cyfle i'w lleisiau gael eu clywed. Mae'r Llywodraeth yn cynnig cronfa ddata o blant yn hytrach na chofrestr. Nid oes awydd yn y DU i ragnodi cwricwlwm ar gyfer ysgol gartref (fel sy'n digwydd yn Jersey). Disgwylir ymgynghoriad ar ganllawiau llywodraeth statudol yn fuan.

Nid yw Sally'n cytuno â gosod y geiriau 'hawliau a chyfrifoldebau' gyda'i gilydd yn awtomatig gan fod gan blant hawliau 'waeth beth'. Mae pobl yn dal i feddu ar eu hawliau dynol waeth beth y maent wedi'i wneud. (Ar hyn o bryd mae un ar hugain o blant mewn carchar yng Nghymru ac maent i gyd yn cadw eu hawliau o dan y CCUHP, er eu bod wedi cyflawni troseddau difrifol).

Mae cwmni o'r enw Dynamix wrthi'n cynnal grwpiau ffocws ac mae'r llywodraeth wedi creu arolwg ar-lein ar y cwricwlwm. Mae hwn ar gael i'r holl blant a phobl ifanc er bod tri mis wedi mynd ers dechrau'r ymgynghoriad presennol.

Mewn ateb i gwestiwn am y cymal presennol ynghylch yr hawl i dynnu'n ôl o AG, cynigiodd Sally anfon gwybodaeth bellach (darn o'i hymateb i ymgynghoriad y llywodraeth).

Diolchodd EE a'r aelodau i gyd i Sally am ei chyflwyniad diddorol iawn oedd o gymorth mawr.

5. Diweddariadau ar y Cwricwlwm i Gymru

Adroddodd PW fod PYCAG a CCYSAGauC wedi bod yn gweithio y diwrnod cynt ar ymateb i'r ymgynghoriad. Mae angen mwy o waith ar hwn cyn y bydd yn derfynol. Y dyddiad cau yw 19 Gorffennaf. Bydd yr ymateb drafft yn cael ei anfon i aelodau Pwyllgor Gwaith CCYSAGauC ac aelodau PYCAG i ddechrau cyn terfynu'r ymateb ar y cyd.

Cynhaliwyd cyfarfodydd CYSAGau rhanbarthol hefyd i ystyried yr ymgynghoriad.

Mae Vaughan Salisbury wedi ymateb ar ran y Cyngor Eglwysi Rhyddion ac mae hwn ar gael i'w weld ar wefan yr Eglwysi. Mae Vaughan wedi rhannu dogfennau gyda Libby Jones i CCYSAGauC.

Pwysleisiodd PW bwysigrwydd ymateb a dywedodd ei fod yn agored i bob sefydliad, ac i unigolion.

6. Diweddariad ar Fframwaith Cefnogi AG

Atgoffodd LJ yr aelodau yr ymgynghorwyd â ChYSAGau ynghylch a ddylid cynhyrchu Fframwaith Cefnogi. Adroddodd fod y broses o ysgrifennu'r Fframwaith Cefnogi wedi dechrau ym mis Chwefror gydag amrywiaeth o arbenigwyr proffesiynol o bob cwr o Gymru. Mae'r ddogfen yn dechrau siapio erbyn hyn er bod dal angen mwy o waith. Pwysleisiodd y medrau sydd eu hangen i gynhyrchu'r fframwaith hwn gan fod angen ystyried y pwyslais ar ddatganoli yn y cwricwlwm newydd. Mae peidio â bod yn benodol yn her ond mae athrawon yn ddiolchgar am y canllawiau a roddir gan arbenigwyr AG. Bydd y Fframwaith Cefnogi drafft yn cael ei rannu gyda ChYSAGau drwy gyfarfodydd a drefnir gan Lywodraeth Cymru cyn bo hir.

Y gobaith yw y bydd CYSAGau yn mabwysiadu'r Fframwaith Cefnogi fel eu Maes Llafur Cytûn. Bydd yn cynnwys cyfeiriadau at y newidiadau mewn deddfwriaeth sydd yn cynnwys cyflwyno

AG i ddisgyblion o 3 blwydd oed. Y nod yw cynnig cyngor a gwybodaeth a allai fod ar hyn o bryd yng Nghylchlythyr Cymru 10/94 ac sydd dal yn briodol.

Diolchodd EE i PW a LJ am y gwaith enfawr y maent yn ei wneud ar ran CCYSAGauC a Chymru.

Mewn ymateb i gwestiwn, cadarnhawyd fod cynrychiolaeth o HCA ar weithgor y fframwaith yn ffurf Rachel Bendall sydd ar y panel ymgynghorol o arbenigwyr.

Codwyd cwestiwn am le hanes crefydd yng Nghymru a hanes diwylliannol Cymru ac a yw hyn yn cael ei gynnwys yn y cwricwlwm. Dywedodd Rachel Samuel fod cyfle i ysgolion ddewis yr hyn maent yn ei gynnwys yn eu haddysgu; fodd bynnag dylai hyn gynnwys hanes lleol.

Pwysleisiodd PW, fodd bynnag, nad yw'r cwricwlwm yn 'unrhyw beth i unrhyw un' ac y bydd yn cyfeirio athrawon i fynd i'r afael â chysyniadau allweddol dwfn penodol, defnyddio sgiliau penodol ac ennill gwybodaeth gyfoethog drwy brofiadau.

Tynnodd LJ sylw at y ffaith fod MDaPh lechyd a Lles hefyd yn mynd i'r afael â phrofiadau dysgu cyfoethog ochr yn ochr â'r Meysydd eraill. Yn sail i'r Meysydd Dysgu a Phrofiad i gyd mae'r Pedwar Diben, sy'n anelu at baratoi disgyblion at fyd gwaith.

7. Cefnogaeth AG broffesiynol i GYSAGau

Gwahoddwyd CCYSAGauC i ysgrifennu papur i argymhell i'r Gweinidog fod pedwar cynghorydd – un i bob rhanbarth – yn cael eu cyflogi i wasanaethau CYSAG pob consortiwm.

Awgrymodd VS hefyd na ddylem o reidrydd gyfyngu'n cais i LILC i bedwar cynghorydd yn unig.

Adroddodd RT fod yr angen i bob consortiwm gyflogi cynghorydd AG arbenigol wedi cael ei godi mewn cyfarfod diweddar o'r Fforwm Cymunedau Ffydd hefyd.

Cyflogwyd cynghorydd herio i gefnogi'r CYSAG ond nid yw hyn yn gweithio gan nad oes ganddi amser i fynychu cyfarfodydd PYCAG.

Nododd rhai aelodau yr angen am athrawon a chynghorwyr AG dwyieithog. Soniodd LJ am y broblem fod diffyg athrawon dwyieithog yn gyffredinol a bod goblygiadau gan hyn i AG. Mae hyn yn broblem ymhob pwnc.

Holodd LJ ymhle y gallem ddod o hyd i arbenigwr mewn AG sydd hefyd yn ddwyieithog ac yn meddu ar y sgiliau i weithredu fel cynghorydd a gyflogir gan y Consortia. Cydnabuwyd hefyd mai dim ond un rhan o'r ateb yw dyrannu cyllid i gyflogi pedwar cynghorydd; mae angen hefyd rhoi cefnogaeth i hyfforddi arbenigwyr AG i ddod yn gynghorwyr i GYSAGau.

Cyfeiriodd HS at yr angen i recriwtio cynghorydd ar gyfer goruchwyllo fod maes llafur cytûn yn cael ei fabwysiadu. Cytunodd LJ y bydd angen cynghorydd arbenigol i gefnogi Cynhadledd Maes Llafur Cytûn wrth ystyried p'un ai i fabwysiadu neu addasu'r Fframwaith Cefnogi yn 2021. Unwaith y mae'r Maes Llafur Cytûn yn ei le, bydd dal angen cefnogi athrawon i'w weithredu.

8. Dysgu Proffesiynol i AG

Rhannodd PW ganlyniadau'r cyfarfod â chynrychiolydd Llywodraeth Cymru - Kevin Palmer. O ganlyniad i'r cyfarfod a gynhaliwyd ar 18 Mehefin, cytunwyd ar gyllid ar gyfer pecyn dysgu proffesiynol, sef cyfres o adnoddau yn benodol i AG, ynghyd â hyfforddiant i bawb oedd yn cymryd rhan mewn dysgu AG a hyfforddi myfyrwyr HCA. Adnabuwyd hefyd yr angen am hyfforddiant ar gyfer lleoliadau nas cynhelir.

9. Diweddariadau:

Adroddodd LJ ar gyfarfod PYCAG y diwrnod cynt a'i phryder am y nifer isel a oedd yn bresennol yn y cyfarfod - roedd chwe aelod yn y bore a dim ond tri yn y prynhawn. Nid yw hyn yn bresenoldeb digonol pan mae cymaint o faterion pwysig sydd angen sylw. Bydd Maggie Turford yn gadael ei swydd gyflogedig gan y CSC gan nad yw hi'n dymuno parhau wedi i'w chytundeb ddod i ben ar 31 Awst. Bydd hyn yn effeithio ar bum CYSAG.

Cyfeiriodd LJ at y cyfarfodydd cydweithredol sydd i fod i gefnogi ymgynghori ar y cwricwlwm.

Bydd PW a LJ yn cwrdd â'r Gymdeithas Cyfarwyddwyr Addysg yng Nghymru i ddweud wrthynt am y Fframwaith Cefnogi i AG. Gobeithir y bydd hyn yn help i'r fframwaith gael ei fabwysiadu ym mhob Awdurdod Lleol yng Nghymru.

Mae PYCAG yn dymuno gwahanu Addoli ar y Cyd ac Addysg Grefyddol o Gylchlythyr 10/94 i ddwy ddogfen ar wahân. Gallai'r adrannau sy'n berthnasol i AG wedyn fynd i'r Fframwaith Cefnogi.

Cynigiwyd cael hyfforddiant i gefnogi cynghorwyr newydd i GYSAGau ayb. Bydd angen cynnig hyn i CCYSAGauC yn ffurfiol a chael cytundeb mewn cyfarfod yn y dyfodol.

Gellid gwerthuso cyfansoddiadau'r 22 CYSAG gyda golwg ar ystyried a ellir cael cyfansoddiad yr un fath i GYSAGau ar draws Cymru.

Soniodd aelodau PYCAG hefyd am y posibilrwydd o ysgrifennu 'Briff her i AG' a allai fod yn rhan o Fagloriaeth Cymru os yw AG Ôl-16 yn cael ei dynnu fel gofyniad cyfreithiol.

Bydd LIC yn ymgynghori ar Addoli ar y Cyd ar wahân yn 2020.

Bydd y Fframwaith Cefnogi AG drafft yn cael ei gyhoeddi ar gyfer ymgynghoriad ym mis Ionawr 2020.

Minutes of the meeting

1. Introduction and welcome

Prior to the meeting members enjoyed presentations from pupils and staff from Ysgol Glan Gele Infant School. Headteacher, Julia Buckley Jones gave a presentation on the new curriculum. Pupils shared their experiences of RE and Collective Worship in their school. They talked about the school being excited about trying out the new curriculum for Wales. Pupils then performed two songs.

Dafydd Owens, Acting Director of Education, welcomed everyone to Bodlondeb Council Offices.

Vice Chair of Conwy SACRE, Abdul Khan welcomed everyone to Conwy and referred to the mix of people that make up their SACRE. He stressed how important it is that everyone respects each other's different views and beliefs. He referred to his concerns about the lack of specialist religious education officers. He expressed his thanks to Phil Lord who used to support Conwy SACRE but was taken away from this post.

2. Quiet reflection

EE shared thoughts about a group of prospective headteachers he recently addressed. He referred to the saying 'to teach is to touch a life forever'.

He reflected on other sayings such as 'reach for the moon and even if you miss you will reach the stars'; and 'the mediocre teacher tells, the good teacher explains, the superior teacher demonstrates, and the great teacher inspires'.

He invited members to consider that we never know what effect our words and actions can have on others and we should always be mindful of this.

3. Apologies

Apologies were received from

Kathy Riddick (Blaenau Gwent), Alison Lewis (Swansea), Mathew Maidment (RCT), Jennifer Harding-Richards (Swansea), Andrew Jones (Monmouthshire), Michelle Gosney (Estyn) Tania ap Sion (Wrexham), Huw George (Pembrokeshire),

4. NAPfRE presentation: Sally Holland, Children's Commissioner for Wales

'The Right Way: A Children's Rights Approach to Education in Wales.'

Sally stressed that she is independent and does not work for one particular organisation.

She reminded members that there are forty-two rights that children have 'no matter what'. Children have a right to an education that allows them to achieve their potential. When offered a selection of 'rights cards', children often pull out the card 'right to have my own religion'.

Her office's response to the consultation on the new curriculum was that it felt there should be more emphasis on parity of experience across Wales and that all children should have access to learning about all people of belief across Wales and not those just in their locality. Sally referred to material they had produced around Islamophobia and the feedback from some schools who said that they wouldn't use these resources as they didn't have any Muslims in their school!

She supported the withdrawal of compulsory RE in sixth form but felt that pupils should have the choice to receive RE if they wish.

She supported the removal of the right for parents to withdraw their child(ren) from RE as she feels it is part of a child's right to a full education including RE and relationships and sex education.

Every child needs to learn about their human rights and know they are entitled to them whilst also knowing that they should support the rights of others. They should become citizens who act for human rights.

There are five key principles to support the implementation of the forty-two rights:

1. Embedding the UNCRC in everything schools do – ensuring all the forty-two rights are reflected throughout school life

2. Equality and non-discrimination – look at what children say about their experiences of feeling included

3. Empowering children – children must know about their rights in order to be able to take them up. (There is a useful clip on Sally's website from a school in Swansea which had particularly explored article 19 – the right to be safe. The children talked with teachers about some out-of-school activities they were attending where the children did not feel safe. They took this concern to their Headteacher who listened and acted where their parents had not.

4. Participation – culture of participation – students who feel they have ownership of their school values, ethics, direction alongside parents, teachers. It is worth considering how effective schools councils are in schools.

5. Accountability – Sally has been asking WG for the last four years to involve children in the curriculum consultation process and is pleased that this has finally occurred this week – although very late in the process.

Sally's office is asking for children's rights to be evident within the new curriculum. It feels this is already strongly evident in the Humanities AoLE and also to a certain extent in the Health and Wellbeing AoLE.

She would wish to make RE and Relationships and Sex education compulsory as this education is part of children's rights.

A Ynys Mon member raised concerns about the lack of a standard of education for those who are home schooled as this is not currently in place.

Sally recognised a real rise in the number of pupils receiving home schooling and recognises there are a variety of reasons for this. The Government has accepted her 'three tests' – to know where every child is, that all rights are being received including suitable education, that all children should be seen and visited by officials so that they have an opportunity for their voices to be heard. The Government proposes a data base of children rather than a register. There is no appetite in the UK to prescribe a curriculum for home schooling (as there is in Jersey). A consultation on statutory government guidance is expected soon.

Sally does not agree with the automatic coupling of the words 'rights and responsibilities' because children have their rights 'no matter what'. People still have their human rights no matter what they have done. (There are currently twenty one children in Wales in prison and they all retain their rights under the UNCRC, even though they have committed serious crimes).

A company called Dynamix is carrying out focus groups and the government has created an online survey on the new curriculum available for all young people and children albeit three months into the current consultation.

In answer to a question regarding the current clause relating to the right of withdrawal from RE, Sally offered to send further information (extract from her consultation response to the government consultation).

EE and all members thanked Sally for her very interesting and helpful presentation.

5. Updates on the Curriculum for Wales

PW reported that yesterday NAPfRE and WASACRE jointly worked on a response to the consultation. This needs further work before finalising. The deadline is 19th July. The draft response will be sent to members of the WASACRE Executive and NAPfRE members first before finalising the joint response.

There have also been regional meetings of SACREs to consider the consultation.

Vaughan Salisbury has responded on behalf of the Free Church Council and this is available to view on the Churches website. Vaughan has shared documents with Libby Jones for WASACRE.

PW stressed the importance of responding and it is open to all organisations, and individuals.

6. Update on RE Supporting Framework

LJ reminded members that SACREs had been consulted on whether to produce a Supporting Framework. She reported that the process of writing the Supporting Framework started in February with a variety of professional experts from all over Wales. The document is now beginning to take shape although still needs more work. She emphasised the skill needed in producing this framework since the emphasis on subsidiarity for the new curriculum must be taken into account. Non specificity is a challenge but teachers are grateful for the guidance being given by the RE specialists. The draft Supporting Framework will be shared with SACREs through Welsh Government organised meetings before long.

The hope is that SACREs will adopt the Supporting Framework as their Agreed Syllabus. It will include references to the changes in legislation including the inclusion of RE for pupils from 3 years old. The aim is to include advice and information that might currently be in the Welsh Circular 10/94 and still applicable.

EE thanked both PW and LJ for the enormous amount of work that they are carrying out on behalf of WASACRE and Wales.

In response to a question, it was confirmed that there is representation from ITT on the framework working group in the form of Rachel Bendall who is on the consultation panel of experts.

A question was raised about the place of the history of religion in Wales and Welsh cultural history and whether this is included in the curriculum. Rachel Samuel advised that there is opportunity for schools to choose what they include in their teaching; however this should include local history.

However, PW stressed that the curriculum is not a 'free for all' and will direct teachers to address specific deep key concepts, utilise specific skills and gain rich knowledge through experiences.

LJ highlighted the fact that the AoLE for Health and Wellbeing also addresses rich learning experiences alongside the other AoLEs. All the AoLEs are underpinned by the Four Purposes which aim to prepare pupils for the world of work.

7. Professional RE support for SACRES

WASACRE has been invited to write a paper to recommend to the Minister that four advisers – one for each region – are employed to serve each consortia's SACRES.

VS also suggested that we should not necessarily limit our ask of the WG to just four advisers.

RT reported that at a recent meeting of the Faith Community Forum, the need for each consortium to employ a specialist RE adviser was raised also.

Challenge adviser employed to support the SACRE but it is not working as she does not have time to attend NAPfRE meetings.

Some members noted the need for bilingual RE teachers and advisers. LJ highlighted the issue of a lack of bilingual teachers generally and this also has an implication for RE. This is an issue across all subjects.

LJ questioned where we might find a specialist in RE who is also bilingual and has the skills to act as an adviser employed by the Consortia. It was also acknowledged that being allocated funding to employ four advisers is just one part of the situation; there is also a need to provide support to train RE specialists to become advisers to SACRES.

HS referred to the need to recruit an adviser in relation to overseeing the adoption of an agreed syllabus. LJ agreed that a specialist adviser will be needed to support an Agreed Syllabus Conference in considering whether to adopt or adapt the Supporting Framework in 2021. Once the Agreed Syllabus is in place there will still be a need to support teachers in its implementation.

8. Professional Learning for RE

PW shared the outcomes of the meeting with Welsh Government representative – Kevin Palmer. As a result of the meeting held on 18th June there has been funding agreed for a professional learning package for a suite of resources specifically for RE, plus training for all those involved in teaching RE and training of ITT students. The need for training for non-maintained settings specifically was also recognised.

9. Up-dates:

LJ reported on the NAPfRE meeting from yesterday and her concern at the low number that attended yesterday's meeting – there were six members in the morning and only three in the afternoon. This is not adequate attendance when there are so many important issues that need to be dealt with. Maggie Turford will be leaving her role as employed by CSC as she does not wish to continue once her contract finishes on 31st August. This will affect five SACREs.

LJ referred to the collaborative meetings aimed to support consultation on the curriculum.

PW and LJ will be meeting with the Association of Directors of Education in Wales to inform them about the Supporting Framework for RE. It is hoped that this will support the adoption of the framework across all LAs in Wales.

NAPfRE wish to separate CW and RE guidance from Circular 10/94 into two separate documents. The relevant RE sections could then go into the Supporting Framework.

Training has been proposed to support new advisers to SACREs etc. This will have to be proposed to WASACRE formally and agreed at a future meeting.

Constitutions of the 22 SACREs could be evaluated with a view to consideration whether uniformity of SACRE constitutions across Wales could be achieved.

NAPfRE members also talked about the possibility of writing a 'Challenge brief for RE' which could be part of the Welsh Baccalaureate if Post 16 Re is removed as a legal requirement.

Collective Worship will receive a separate consultation by WG in 2020.

The draft Supporting Framework for RE will be published for consultation in January 2020.

4. Cyflwyniad PYCAG yng Nghyfarfod CCYSAGauC 28 Mehefin 2019:

Sally Holland, Comisiynydd Plant Cymru

Atodiad: Barn y Comisiynydd Plant am hawl rhieni i dynnu eu plant yn ôl o Addysg Grefyddol (AG) ac Addysg Cydberthynas a Rhywioldeb (ACR):

Fel Comisiynydd Plant Cymru, fy swyddogaeth bennaf i yw diogelu hawliau a lles plant a phobl ifanc, ac felly rwy'n cefnogi'r cynnig i gael gwared ar hawl rheini i dynnu eu plant yn ôl o AG ac ACR. Isod ceir y darn perthnasol o'm hymateb ymgynghoriad i'r llywodraeth yn ei gyfanrwydd :

“Ni ddylid cadw hawl rheini i dynnu plentyn yn ôl o AG ac ACR. Mae cadw deddfwriaeth sy'n caniatáu i rieni dynnu person ifanc yn ôl o'r pynciau hyn yn gwrthod eu hawliau eu hunain i blant a phobl ifanc, ac nid yw'n caniatáu i berson ifanc optio i mewn i addysg cydberthynas a rhywioldeb cyn oed cydsynio cyfreithiol.

Gan fod y cynigion a argymhellir yn datgan na fydd ACR ac AG yn elfen orfodol o'r cwricwlwm ar ôl 16 oed, golyga hyn na fydd rhai plant a phobl ifanc yn cael unrhyw addysg cydberthynas a rhywioldeb o gwbl, a gellid dweud yr un peth am AG.

Mae hyn yn anghydnaws â hawliau dynol plant o dan ddeddfwriaeth ddomestig Deddf Hawliau Dynol 1998 a'r Confensiwn Ewropeaidd ar Hawliau Dynol. Mae hefyd yn anghydnaws â'r ymrwymiad yng Nghymru i Gonfensiwn y Cenhedloedd Unedig ar Hawliau'r Plentyn (CCUHP) a sicrheir gan Fesur Hawliau Plant a Phobl Ifanc (Cymru) 2011.

Mae'r CCUHP yn darparu ar gyfer:

- yr hawl i gael eu clywed, mynegi barn a chymryd rhan mewn penderfyniadau (Erthygl 12);
- yr hawl i ryddid mynegiant (Erthygl 13).

Yn ogystal, mae gan blant yr hawliau canlynol o dan y CCUHP sy'n cefnogi darparu Addysg Cydberthynas a Rhywioldeb ac Addysg Grefyddol, sef:

- yr hawl i beidio â chael eu gwahaniaethu (Erthygl 2)
- yr hawl i gyrchu gwybodaeth a fydd yn caniatáu i blant wneud penderfyniadau am iechyd (Erthygl 17)
- yr hawl i brofi'r iechyd gorau posibl, mynediad at gyfleusterau iechyd, gofal iechyd ataliol, ac addysg a gwasanaethau cynllunio teulu (Erthygl 24)
- yr hawl i addysg sy'n cynorthwyo pob plentyn i ddatblygu a chyrraedd eu llawn botensial a pharatoi plant i ddeall a dangos goddefgarwch at eraill (Erthygl 29)
- yr hawl i ddisgwyl i'r llywodraeth eu gwarchod rhag camdriniaeth a cham-fanteisio rhywiol (Erthygl 34).

Mae'r hawliau cyfreithiol traddodadwy canlynol yn gymwys hefyd o dan y Ddeddf Hawliau Dynol a'r Confensiwn Ewropeaidd ar Hawliau Dynol:

- yr hawl i ryddid meddwl, cydwybod a chrefydd (Erthygl 9).
- yr hawl i ryddid mynegiant (Erthygl 10)
- yr hawl i beidio â chael eu gwrthod rhag addysg (Erthygl 2, Protocol 1)

Mae Erthygl 2 o Brotocol 1 yn cydnabod hawliau pwysig i rieni:

“Ni wadir hawl i addysg i unrhyw berson. Wrth ymarfer unrhyw swyddogaethau mae'n eu cymryd mewn cysylltiad ag addysg ac addysgu, bydd y Wladwriaeth yn parhau hawl rhieni i sicrhau bod y fath addysg ac addysgu'n cydymffurfio â'u credoau crefyddol ac athronyddol eu hunain.”

Yng ngoleuni hyn mae'n bwysig nodi fod canllawiau Llys Hawliau Dynol Ewrop o amgylch Erthygl 2 o Brotocol 1 yn ei gwneud yn glir fod hawliau'r rhiant o dan y ddarpariaeth hon yn ategiad i'r hawl sylfaenol i addysg ac nid yw'n mynnu fod y Wladwriaeth yn cynnig eithriadau cyffredinol. Sefydlwyd hyn drwy gyfraith achos oedd yn ymwneud â darparu ACR, er enghraifft Dojan ac eraill v. Yr Almaen 201121, a ddyfarnodd nad oedd gwrthodiad y Wladwriaeth i eithrio'r plant o ddsbarthiadau a gweithgareddau yr oedd eu rhieni'n ystyried yn anghydnaws â'u hargyhoeddiadau crefyddol, yn torri Erthygl 2 o Brotocol Rhif 1.

Oherwydd y dull cwricwlwm a bennir yn Dyfodol Llwyddiannus, lle mae profiadau dysgu integredig yn cynnwys datblygu gwybodaeth a sgiliau a hynny mewn perthynas â gwahanol feysydd cwricwlwm, bydd tynnu plant yn ôl o ACR ac AG yn gwadu iddynt hefyd fynediad at eu hawliau i addysg mewn meysydd cwricwlwm eraill. O fewn model sybsidiaredd o ddatblygu a chyflwyno'r cwricwlwm, bydd hi'n heriol iawn hefyd i ysgolion bennu pa elfennau o'u darpariaeth sy'n rhan o raglen astudiaeth y Cwricwlwm Cenedlaethol fel y'i pennwyd yn Neddf Addysg 1996; a pha elfennau nad ydynt.

Rwy'n pwyso ar Lywodraeth Cymru i fod yn gryf yn eu hymrwymiad i'r CCUHP a sicrhau nad yw'r ddeddfwriaeth hon yn gwrthod hawliau plant a phobl ifanc. Mae hyn yn bwysig iawn er mwyn diogelu lles holl bobl ifanc Cymru. Mae'r orfodaeth ddeddfwriaethol i hyn yn gryf iawn yn barod, ond caiff ei chryfhau ymhellach os cynhwysir sylw dyledus i'r CCUHP ar wyneb y Bil.”

Fel y nodwch yn eich llythyr, mae cynnwys hawliau dynol plant a phobl ifanc yn y ddeddfwriaeth drwy ddyletswydd sylw dyledus yn ganolog i'm galwadau ynghylch y cwricwlwm. Eglurir hyn yn fanwl yn fy mhapur sefyllfa, yma:

4. NAPfRE presentation at WASACRE Meeting 28th June 2019:

Sally Holland, Children's Commissioner for Wales

Appendix: Children's commissioner's view on parental right to withdrawal from RE and Relationships and Sexuality Education:

As the Children's Commissioner for Wales my principal role is to safeguard the rights and welfare of children and young people, and as such I am in support of the proposal to remove the right of parents to withdraw their children from RE and RSE. Below is the relevant section of my consultation response to government in its entirety:

"The parental right to withdraw a child from RE and RSE should not be retained. Retaining legislation that allows parents to withdraw a young person from these subjects denies children and young people their own rights, and does not allow a young person to opt in to relationships and sexuality education before the legal age of consent.

As the proposals outlined state that RSE and RE will not be a compulsory element of the curriculum after aged 16, this means that some children and young people will receive no relationships and sexuality education at all, and the same could apply in relation to RE.

This is incompatible with the human rights of children under both the domestic legislation of the Human Rights Act 1998 and the European Convention on Human Rights (ECHR). It is also incompatible with the commitment in Wales to the UNCRC guaranteed by the Rights of Children and Young Persons (Wales) Measure 2011.

The UNCRC provides for:

- the right to be heard, express opinions and be involved in decision-making (Article 12);
- the right to freedom of expression (Article 13).

In addition, children have the following rights under the UNCRC that support the provision of Relationships and Sexuality Education and Religious Education specifically:

- the right to non-discrimination (Article 2)
- the right to access information that will allow children to make decisions about health (Article 17)
- the right to experience the highest attainable health, access to health facilities, preventative health care, and family planning education and services (Article 24)
- the right to an education that support all children to develop and reach their full potential and prepare children to be understanding and tolerant to others (Article 29)
- the right to government protection from sexual abuse and exploitation (Article 34).

The following justiciable legal rights also apply under the Human Rights Act and the European Convention on Human Rights (ECHR):

- the right to freedom of thought, conscience and religion (Article 9).
- the right to freedom of expression (Article 10)
- the right not to be denied education (Article 2, Protocol 1)

Article 2 of Protocol 1 also recognises important parental rights:

“No person shall be denied the right to education. In the exercise of any functions which it assumes in relation to education and to teaching, the State shall respect the right of parents to ensure such education and teaching in conformity with their own religious and philosophical convictions.”

*In light of this it is important to note that the European Court of Human Rights guidance around Article 2 of Protocol 1 makes clear that the rights of the parent under this provision is an adjunct to the fundamental right to education and does not require the State to offer blanket exemptions. This has been established through case law relating to the provision of RSE, for example Dojan and Others v. Germany 201121, which ruled that the refusal of the State to exempt the children from classes and activities that were regarded by their parents as incompatible with their religious convictions was not in breach of Article 2 of Protocol No. 1.*

*Due to the curriculum approach specified in Successful Futures, in which integrated learning experiences include the development of knowledge, skills and related to different curriculum areas, withdrawing children and young people from RSE and RE will also deny them access to their entitlements to education in other curriculum areas. Within a subsidiarity model of curriculum development and delivery it will also be very challenging for schools to determine which elements of their provision are part of the National Curriculum programme of study as specified in the 1996 Education Act; and which elements are not.*

I urge Welsh Government to be strong in their commitment to the UNCRC and ensure that this legislation does not deny the rights of children and young people. This is very important to safeguard the welfare of all young people in Wales. The legislative mandate for this is already very strong, but will be strengthened further if a due regard duty to the UNCRC is included on the face of the Bill.”

As you point out in your letter, including the human rights of children and young people in the legislation through a due regard duty is central to my calls around the curriculum. This is explained in detail in my position paper, here: <https://www.childcomwales.org.uk/our-work/policy-positions/curriculum-reform/>
