CONSTITUENCY ACTIVITY

1. Various meetings with the police, with parking in the town centre, drinking in public places and various other concerns within our community. Also we have a monthly meeting with the new Inspector.
2. Have had various meetings with residents of the Troedrhwiw Estate over the selling of green land on our estate, this was to no avail as the Council has decided to sell.
3. Had a meeting with Officers over the noise and lighting at the new sports centre along with residents from Forge Mill and Edward Street.
4. Attended various events at the new sports centre over the last year, a few rugby games and new football under 18's internationals.
5. Have had various meetings with residents over the Waste Transfer Station going to Ty-Dyffryn which is still ongoing.
6. Attended Town Management meetings throughout the year, also Town Management Chair's only meetings.
7. Also have carried out various Rota Visits to different centres over the year.
8. Have attended various seminars over the year.
9. Have had various meetings with residents over the year on a number of different issues from parking to dog fouling and so on, also attended various events with the churches and chapels within our community.
10. Have had various meetings with the Headmaster and the School Governors with regard to the redevelopment of the school field for car parking at Ystrad Mynach railway station.
11. Along with Ward Colleagues and Ystrad Mynach residents I took part in a fund raising committee which successfully raised £18,000 for the Urdd Eisteddfod.
