The Trecenydd Fun Day

I attended 4 Senghenydd Memorial Committee meetings.

The Fun Day at Penyrheol

Senghenydd School Twining Service and attended 3 Senghenydd School Governors meetings.

I attended 5 Cwm Ifor School Governors meetings, the Cwm Ifor School Achievement Day and took part in the recruitment and selection interviews at the school.

I spoke at the Memorial for Councillor Ray Davies at the Temple of Peace.

I attended meetings of the Aber Valley Partnership.

I gave advice to residents on planning matters including Ridgeway Golf Club and land at Hendredenny Road and attended site visits at the Energlyn Sidings and Hendredenny Road.

I assisted residents at Glyn Fields with local issues.

Undertook door-knocking sessions at Energlyn, Trecenydd, Senghenydd, Penyrheol, Glyn Fields, Ty Isfa, Hendredenny, Pen Rhos and 1st and 2nd Avenue where I introduced myself to local residents and also undertook several leaflet drops in those areas.

I attended the Memorial Committee Annual Dinner, this annual event is the main focus of the committee's fund raising.

I attended meetings of the Trecenydd Residents Association.

I attended the School Choir competition at Penyrheol Community Centre and the Vanguard Concert at Van Road Church.

I also attended the Light-Up a Life Service at St Martin Church in December 2016 and the St Andrews Church Fete, along with the St David's Hospice Christmas Fayre.

I attended the Save the Children Event and Prize Presentation held at the Tourism Information Centre, Caerphilly.

I made numerous representations on behalf of constituents to Housing, Environment, Social Services and Highways Departments.
